Correction We wish to correct an error in one of last week's items. We stated that Murl Muenchau, a corporal in the U. S. army, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau. Murl was promoted to the rank of sergeant early this year and since he has earned this rank we feel he should have the credit. We are glad it was brought to our attention and extend our regrets for the error.

Former Cass County Lady is Called to Rest

Mrs. Robert A. Fudge Dies at Home in Montgomery, W. Va.—Formerly of Cedar Creek.

Relatives here have received a message with news of the death of Mrs. Robert A. Fudge, Sr. at her home in Montgomery, West Virginia on Sunday morning at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Fudge was the former Susie A. Sayles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sayles and was born on April 18, 1870 at Cedar Creek, Nebraska, where her father was for many years a merchant and grain dealer.

She was married on June 20, 1894 at the home of her parents at Cedar Creek, Nebraska, to Robert A. Fudge, and for a number of years lived at Covington, Virginia, but in later years until her death at Montgomery, West Virginia.

Her husband, parents, one sister, Mrs. Ida Seybert, and one sister, Eva E. Sayles, preceded her in death, and there are left to mourn her passing one son, Robert A. Fudge, Jr., one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Delaney, of Montgomery, West Virginia; one daughter, Mrs. Anna Marie Sterrett, of Athens, Georgia; one brother, Geo. R. Sayles of Plattsmouth, Neb.; one sister, Mrs. Ruth Thomsen of Omaha, Neb.; five grand children and several nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be held at Montgomery, West Virginia, and burial in the old home cemetery at Covington, Virginia beside her late husband.

Mrs. Fudge had a large number of friends in Cass county in her girlhood days and will be quite well remembered by the older residents of Cedar Creek, Louisville, Manly, Murdock and Plattsmouth.

ATTENTION, JUNIOR PLAY

Here it is, just what you've been waiting for. The funniest play of the season, "The Patsy," is being presented by the Junior class on November 21, 1941 at the high school auditorium.

This play is a comedy in three acts, written by Barry Connors. It has appeared on Broadway and has been praised by many critics. "The Patsy" is full of tears, laughter and fun. Patsy is the darling of the show—you'll recognize her for you see her every day. She is the younger daughter who has to keep in the background in order that "big sister" may make a brilliant marriage.

So forget your troubles and worries, and get two hours of fun with us at "The Patsy" on Friday night. The cast of characters includes: Bill Harrington... Robert Grassman Mrs. William Harrington Mary Alice Arnold Grace Harrington... Rachel McMaken Patricia Harrington... Georgia Carey Billy Caldwell... Dick Casey Tony Anderson... Edward Kubicka Sadie Buchanan... John Tiekotter Francis Patrick O'Hara... Pete Halmes "Trip" Busty... Dick Tritesch This play is under the direction of Fred McGirr.

VISITS IN THE CITY

MORE THAN JUST A SLOGAN "When you drop in around these parts, call us up," was the slogan that appeared at the head of Max Frier's Boulevard Service ad on this page for a long time... and it is more than just a slogan, as many a stalled motorist during the recent snow and sleet can attest. Max gives day and night service and it so happened that a lot more cars left the pavement to bog down in the soft shoulder at night than in the daytime. He was on the job and got the stalled cars back on firm footing in short time. Max has carried an ad in every issue carrying the Bomber news page.

MORE MEN ON SEWER JOB There has been a good increase in the number of men working on the WPA sewer job and progress is being made. Trench work is in the deepest section now and the ditch runs around 23 feet in depth. Further out the depth will be materially decreased.
