hill was the scene of a very pleasant birthday surprise that honored Mrs. Cloldt and Mrs. Elmer Sundstrom. The members of the group enjoy frequently these social get-togethers but none was more pleasant than that last evening. The group brought the makings of a fine covered dish luncheon and that all enjoyed as well as the evening of games and visiting. The members of the party comprised Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stark, Mrs. Lora Lloyd Klock and children, County Treasurer and Mrs. John E. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Sundstrom and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Cloldt.

Hathaway-Ganzel Marriage—
The marriage of Miss Bernice Hathaway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hathaway, Union, to Orville Ganzel, Otter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ganzel, took place Sunday, Nov. 16 at 1:30 p. m. at the Methodist church at Eagle, Rev. Robert Townsend officiating. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hathaway, Union.

The bride wore a seafoam green afternoon dress, and had black accessories. Her bouquet was made of pink carnations. Mrs. Hathaway wore black.

A wedding dinner for the bridal party and close relatives was served at the Ernest Ganzel home after the ceremony.

Mrs. Ganzel is a graduate of Union high school with the class of 1935. Mr. Ganzel graduated from Otter high school with the class of 1937, and has since been farming with his father. They will make their home with his parents for the present.

Card playing again was resumed in the evening, and around 9 o'clock Henry Krejci and Miss Lillian Chovanec took Albin to Omaha, where he boarded a train, bound for the Great Lakes. He is expected to be transferred to trade school in Ohio. Albin hopes to return for the Christmas holiday, but this is indefinite.

Rural Teacher to Wed—
Mr. and Mrs. John Tyson, Nehawka, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Dorothy, to Arnold French, Palmyra. The marriage will take place November 26.

Miss Tyson is a teacher in a rural school near Palmyra.

Social Event for Sailor—
Sunday was Albin E. Chovanec's last day in Plattsmouth, so his mother arranged for a day of get-together with relatives and old friends. First to arrive were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schmucker and daughters, Lotus Joy and Janice Lenora, who came from Swanton, Nebraska Saturday afternoon.

At high noon a three-course duck dinner was served to eleven by Mrs. Chovanec and her daughter, Miss Lillian. Seated around the large table were Mr. and Mrs. Schmucker, Mr. and Mrs. Vladis J. Chovanec, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Konrat, Sr., Henry Krejci, Joseph Kvapil, Jr. and the honored guest, Albin. At the children's table were seated the two Schmucker children. The guests, with the exception of the Schmuckers, who left for their home late in the afternoon, also remained for supper. Informal visiting and pinochle playing were the chief entertainment during the afternoon. Snapshot photos were taken. Little Lenora Schmucker, who is 4, entertained some of the guests in the morning by singing patriotic, popular and school songs.

Turkey Dinner at Ottos—
Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ferris, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ulrich and sons, Jerome and Edward, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christweiser formed an eightsome at a turkey dinner party Sunday noon at the Loren F. Otto home at 805 Main street. The Ottos were host and hostess. Bouquets of bittersweet brought out a floral atmosphere about the home.

In the afternoon the group motored to the Fort Crook bomber assembly plant as guests of Mr. Otto, who took them through the plant.

American Legion Auxiliary—
The American Legion Auxiliary met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Gayer south of this city with a pleasing attendance of the membership to join in the very interesting meeting. Mrs. Robert Cappell, the unit president, had charge of the meeting.

Plans were completed for the motion picture show to be held at the Cass theatre on Friday, November 28th, for the purpose of gathering Christmas toys.

It was also decided to sew for the Red Cross on Monday.

The members of the local unit were very happy to have as visitors five members of the Union Auxiliary unit.

The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. Wiley Sigler, who introduced Mrs. E. H. Westcott, who gave a very interesting talk on music which everyone enjoyed.

A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Gayer and her assistants, Mrs. R. T. Cuthrell, Mrs. George Conis, Mrs. Edward Steppat, Mrs. L. W. Niel and Mrs. Clyde Rosborough.

Attend Ice Revue—
A host of Plattsmouth people went to Omaha yesterday and saw Sonja Henie and her 1942 Hollywood Ice Revue. Group parties predominated. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bourne, Miss Vivian Moore, Mrs. Agnes Moore and Clifford T. Tinnell comprised one group. Another was Mr. and Mrs. John Terryberry and Misses Ruth and Kathleen Schaefer. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bourck and daughters, Phyllis and Marilyn, Mrs. P. D. Fülmeje, Mr. and Mrs. Den DeFord.

Attendees saw Gene Turner, 1941 national figure skating champion; Jeff Stevens, comedy star of the "four bruisers"; the Brandt Sisters, Swiss charmers; Dorothy Caley, Canadian champion; the return of Fritz Dietl, famed stilt skater, and other featured performers.

The last performance, they enjoyed over two hours of sensationally beautiful entertainment with the one and only Sonja Henie.

From Tuesday's Daily—
See Game and Wreck—
Saturday Kenneth Staubus and Milo Farney witnessed the football game between Iowa and Nebraska at Lincoln. While en route to Lincoln they happened to see close behind the W. H. Montgomery auto that wrecked and resulted in serious injuries to both Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery of Atlantic, Iowa.

Junior Women's Club—
The Plattsmouth Junior Woman's club met Monday evening at the Hotel Plattsmouth with a large attendance and a very interesting program arranged for the evening.

Miss Anne Knieke, president, presided over the business session of the club, a number of matters of importance being taken up. The new year books were ready and distributed to the members at this meeting.

The entertainment of the evening embraced a group of the Junior High school students under the direction of David Fowler, musical director of the city schools, there being twenty in this group. They presented a fine program of music.

Dr. P. T. Heineman, one of the photographic enthusiasts of the city, was a participant in the program with a wonderful collection of colored slides of many places of interest over the United States as well as Plattsmouth and vicinity.

The committee for the meeting was composed of Mrs. Marjorie Lohnes, Mrs. Donald Eora and Miss Della Solomon.

Attends Omaha Meeting—
Mrs. Marjorie Lohnes, assistant at the office of Dr. P. T. Heineman, is to attend a luncheon at the Regis hotel in Omaha this evening. This is to honor Miss Mildred Stevens, of Lincoln, who has just been named as president of the National Dental Assistants Auxiliary. The luncheon is given by the Omaha Auxiliary for the new president on her departure.

More See Sonja Henie—
Some of the numerous Plattsmouth people who enjoyed Sonja Henie and her all new 1942 Hollywood Ice Revue at the Ak-Sar-Ben coliseum in Omaha were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cappell, Misses Margaret Scotten and Laura, Meisinger, who comprise a group; Misses Lotus Nicholas, Frances Lomax and Glena Stockton formed another party; Miss Betty Jean Vroman and Eugene Ault saw the last performance Sunday evening; Mr. and Mrs. William Evers and children, Raymond and Mary attended last week.

Get-Together at Aults—
Twenty-two guests were present at the Charles Ault home last Friday evening, when Mrs. Ault and Mrs. Elizabeth Meisinger entertained the Catholic P.-T. A. and friends. The group comprised Monsignor George Aulus, pastor of St. John's church, Mrs. William Woolcott, Mrs. F. I. Rea, Mrs. Mike Allen, Mrs. Charles Petersen, Mrs. Elmer Webb, Mrs. John Hadaba, Mrs. Hermie Sebeda, Mrs. Lorine Ulrich, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Kalina, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gradoville, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Koukal, Mrs. Baltz Meisinger, Misses Genevieve Whelan, Josephine Rys, Helen Ledgway, Betty Jean Vroman, Betty Ann Farris, Robert McClanahan.

Pinochle and bridge were played, and prize winners were Mrs. Petersen, Miss Whelan, Mrs. Woolcott, Eob McClanahan and Miss Vroman.

At the business session the members completed plans for the annual Christmas treat to the children of St. John's parochial school. The P.-T. A. has always made it possible to carry out these treats each year.

From Wednesday's Daily—
Party for Methodist Youth—
The young people of the Methodist church youth fellowship met in the church parlors last evening for their first party of this winter's program. Thirty-three young people and Rev. and Mrs. Bratt attended. The evening was spent playing games and getting better acquainted. At a late hour refreshments consisting of cocoa and cup cakes were served. The evening was brought to a close with a period of singing which blended itself into a fellowship circle for the closing moments and the singing of "Taps." Those attending are expressing that they had a fine time and requesting more parties of this type.

To Show Pictures Monday—
Walter Kirtley of Nebraska City, will come to Plattsmouth Monday evening and is to be the special guest of the Plattsmouth Woman's club. The club will meet at 8 p. m. in the Hotel Plattsmouth dining room, and Mr. Kirtley will show moving pictures of Mexico.

Each February Mr. Kirtley goes to Mexico and stays a month. While there he manages to procure several pictures in interesting scenes. The visit to Plattsmouth is not the first for Dr. Kirtley, for he has been a guest of the Rotary club. The entertainment for Monday evening's program at the Woman's club is highly endorsed by the Rotary.

The hostesses that evening will be Mesdames William Heinrich, Erwin Seimers, Karl W. Grosshans, Lowell S. Devoe and H. G. McClusky.

Olsens' Guests Leave—
Mrs. Herbert Olson and two children, Robert and Karan of Vallejo, California were in Plattsmouth yesterday as guests of the Walter Olson family. The Olsens were brought here by Mrs. Olson's brother-in-law, Robert Ambroz, and they came from Bartlett, Iowa, where the Californians had been visiting. Mrs. Olson and her children expect to leave for the west coast the fore part of December, perhaps December 4. The Walter Olsens took the Californians to Omaha last evening.

Hear Lecture on Flowers—
Plattsmouth Garden club members have postponed their November meeting, scheduled for tonight, to permit members to go to the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church to attend the Thanksgiving service.

Mesdames P. Y. McPetridge, Henry Frey, Lillian Freeman, L. W. Egenberger and Luke Wilks were in Omaha yesterday and enjoyed the flower arrangement program sponsored by the Omaha Garden club.

Registration began at 10 a. m. at the Rome hotel when a fee of 25c was asked. An arrangement of flowers in the crystal room was open to the visitors, and in the afternoon a speaker from Des Moines spoke on "Winter Bouquets." Flower lovers from southeastern Nebraska and southwestern Iowa were invited.

The ladies, with scores of others, dined at the hotel at noon.

C. D. of A. Meeting—
Last evening the Catholic Daughters of America spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mrs. William Woolcott. In the bridge games Mrs. John Bergmann and Mrs. William Swatek received prizes, while in the pinochle games prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Barr and Mrs. Joe Langer. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Woolcott, assisted by Mrs. Charles Petersen and Miss Josephine Rys. Guests of the evening were Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Langer and Mrs. Mike Allen.

Daughters of Legion Meet—
The Daughters of the American Legion met at the home of Catherine Conis Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock with Juanita Sigler as assistant hostess. Election of officers followed the regular business meeting with Miss Conis, the new president; Miss Sigler, the new secretary. Many and varied were the features planned for the coming year.

After the business meeting Miss Marjorie Devoe, the program chairman for the evening, presented a very interesting Thanksgiving program, Dorothy Jean Cappell playing a piano solo, and a reading "Origin of Thanksgiving" by herself. Several games with Thanksgiving as the theme, were played. Mrs. Eugene Vroman winning the prize.

The DAL's Christmas party will be held at the apartment of Marjorie Devoe at the Coronado Apartments on December 15 with Dorothy Jean Cappell as associate hostess.

Present last evening were ten members and two visitors. Guests were Mrs. Wiley Sigler and Mary Alice Ohlschlager. Mrs. Elmer Webb, sponsor; and Mrs. Vroman, co-sponsor, were also present.

'New Dealers' Meet—
Last evening the "New Dealers" card club, composed of a group of the young girls of the city, met at the home of Miss Rose Mary Steppatt in the north part of the city, being assisted by Miss Alice Jayne Grosshans. The evening was spent at cards with Gloria Johnson winning the high score and Margaret Ann Pitz, second.

The close of the evening was marked by the serving of a lovely luncheon provided by the hostesses.

Those attending were Gloria and Norma Johnson, Margaret Ann Pitz, Corinne Hallstrom, Shirley Jacobs, Aileen Reed, Alice Jayne Grosshans and Rose Mary Steppatt.

STATIONED IN TEXAS
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jackson have received a letter from their son, Bernard, who is now in the service of the United States. He is at Wichita Falls, Texas, where the enlisted men of the U. S. air force are assembled. He was very much pleased to find at the same station, Eeryle Shanzholz, old school friend, who is also in this branch of the service.

SAILOR RETURNS TO DUTY
James Kozak, who has been home on a furlough from his duty as a member of the coast guard, returned Sunday evening to the east coast to report for duty this week. "Jimmy" has had a fine visit here with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Wales and Charles Kozak as well as the very large circle of friends who were more than pleased to have the opportunity of greeting the young sailor. He has had a great experience in his service and the future will bring him many as he serves Uncle Sam on the high seas.
