Following a short business meeting, the afternoon entertainment was that of a Christmas party. An interesting feature was the exchange of the "Mystery Sister" gifts. Since this was the last meeting of the calendar year, each member's mystery sister was revealed to her, which added much to the merriment of the afternoon.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. A. J. Nelson, Jan. 8.

ST. LOUIS (UP)—A. Emil Davis spent two weeks to keep a lecture date here. Davies, chairman of the London, Eng., county council, was to speak at the 47th annual National Conference of Government of the National Municipal League. He was unable to get passage on the trans-Atlantic clipper so he sailed across on a convoyed merchant ship, flew to St. Louis and kept his date.

YULETIDE GREETINGS TO ALL ..

'Tis Christmas! Our thoughts revert from the complicated to the simple, from the cares of maturity to the carefree thoughts of childhood, from the material to the spiritual.

'Tis Christmas! . . . time to count our many friends and recall the happy relationships we have had with them during the year . . . time to express our gratitude and to wish all our friends the choicest blessings the Yule season can bestow.
