JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Despite the rain and cold, eight pairs of miniature rubbers and galoshes were lined up on the Bennett porch Monday evening for the Junior Woman's Club Children's party. The evening was spent playing children's games. Butch Schiefelbein proved himself to be an exceptional player of "Musical Chairs." The evening's climax was a visit from Santa, who left many pretty and interesting gifts for all. Appropriate refreshments of ice cream Christmas trees and feed cookies were served. Those present were the Misses Beverly Schiefelbein, Florence Biart, Patty Jones, and Jerry and Peggy Butts; the Masters Butch Dent, Bill Watkins and Putch Schiefelbein; the club members present were Lucille Klausch, Hilda Prall, Shirley Vance, Helen Pearce, Suzanne Ogurek, Cyrella Ogurek, Jayne Chandler, Marilyn Bennett, Lorene Bennett, Virginia Puls, and Virginia Bell McCordinkale.

GOOD POULTRY HOUSE LIGHTING PAYS!

Nothing more clearly illustrates this fact than the hundreds of testimonials from poultry raisers everywhere in our territory. The statement below is typical of their comments.

"I have used lights in my laying house for several winters and have found that egg production is increased from 20 to 30 per cent over an unlighted flock. One egg a day will pay for the current consumed by the light. In my opinion, any flock owner who has electric service should by all means use lights for his layers as it means more profit from his poultry."
