

MANLEY

By Journal Field Representative

John Sheehan and wife departed last Monday for Sterling, Colo., where they went to enjoy the Christmas season at the home of a sister of Mrs. Sheehan, they remaining for over the second evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flaischman were in Ashland on Christmas day where they were enjoying a very fine visit at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Gade and family and as well a most delightful Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo Harms and son Teddy were enjoying their Christmas day in visiting at Talmage at the home of Mrs. Mary Peters and daughter, Mrs. Peters being mother of Mrs. Theo Harms. A very fine time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pearson of Manley entertained at a Christmas dinner at their home and had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jenkins, Walter Jenkins and family, all of Lincoln, and Mrs. Alice Jenkins of Manley, mother of the boys and as well Mrs. Elmer Pearson.

Wm. Sheehan, Jr., was over to Murray last Wednesday where he went to meet his sister, Miss Margaret Sheehan, who has been making her home at Omaha for several years, and who was coming home to spend Christmas day with the parents and other members of the family.

Louis Allkayer, Jr., who is an employee of the county, was a visitor in Manley last Wednesday and was looking after some business matters for the county. Speaking of his father, Louis Allkayer, sr., he says that the father is quite poorly and at his advanced age, scarcely gets about, other than about the farm.

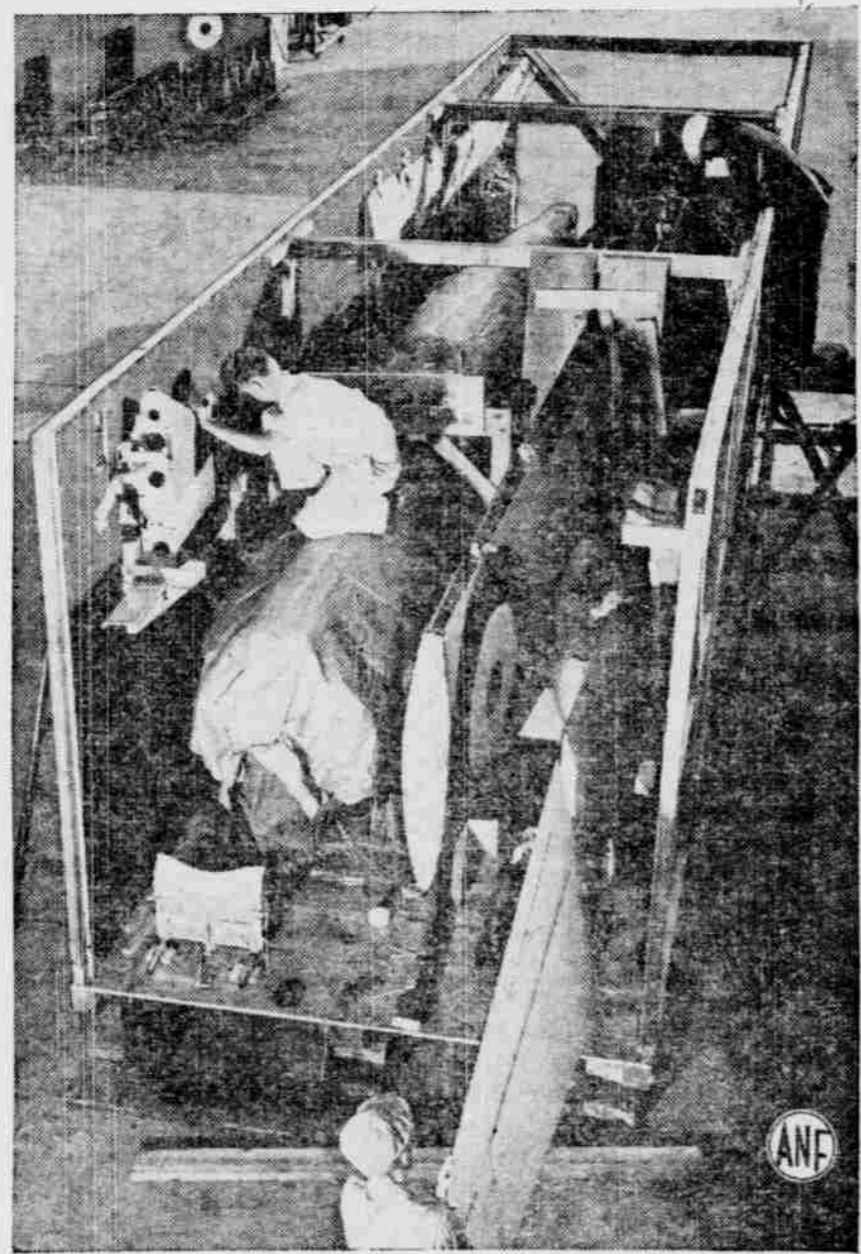

Enjoys 15-Day Furlough
Willet Rohrdanz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rohrdanz, jr. of near Ashland, who is located at the training camp at Fort Knox, Tenn., was fortunate enough to secure a 15-day furlough, and has been enjoying a visit with his folks at Ashland. He came to Manley last Sunday to spend the day with his grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Rohrdanz, sr. They enjoyed a very fine visit while here and returned to Ashland early last week.

Enjoyed Fine Christmas Party
The scholars of the Manley schools, in co-operation with the teachers were enjoying a very fine Christmas party at the school building on Monday of last week, when they presented a very fine program and sang Christmas carols. Those taking part in the program acquitted themselves creditably. The program was enjoyed by all who were privileged to be present and felt that their efforts had been worthwhile.

Attending School in Omaha
Bud Rhoden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Rhoden entered an airplane school at Omaha recently and was also joined by three Omaha boys, they driving from their home towns to Omaha and are taking the course in preparation for national defense work.

Spent Christmas Eve in Omaha
As has been the practice for many years, the children of Mrs. John Koup, sr. who makes her home with a son, Harold in Omaha, spend

This scene at the North American Aviation plant is typical, the Aviation News Committee reports, of the efficiency with which planes of this type are crated for delivery by ship to the British. Christmas eve with the mother. This year was no exception, so promptly at 8 o'clock the children gathered, they being Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Bergman and daughter, Margaret, a nurse at the Clarkson hospital, the family of Harvey Koup of Louisville and Harold Koup and family of Omaha. It goes without saying all enjoyed a splendid time on this particular Christmas eve.

Home from Hospital
John Gruber, who received such severe burns while working on the gas line going through the county, and was hurried to an Omaha hospital, where he has been slowly progressing, was able to be dismissed from the hospital but is required to return to the hospital every ten days to take a checkup in his healing. One eye is still so that it can hardly be closed, but most of the scars on his face and body are healing nicely. There still remain two scars on his face and body.

Christmas Day at George Davis
Christmas day and a very fine dinner was duly appreciated and celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Davis. There were there for the occasion Harold Krecklow and family, Mrs. Krecklow being daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. August Krecknow, Delbert Munn of Weeping Water and sister, Mrs. Ella Green who is housekeeper for her brother, Delbert Munn, who make their home in Weeping Water.

FISHERMEN TRAP SHARKS
ASTORIA, Ore. (UP)—Resource-

(ul deep set fishermen, inspired by the high prices paid for soupfin livers, spread gillnets in the ocean

National Pledge Campaign Directed At Bottleneck of Nondefense Savings

A Pledge
To the President and the Congress of the United States

FOR DEFENSE TODAY - FOR HOPE TOMORROW

BECAUSE it is becoming obvious to all thinking Americans that to afford defense on the same time ensure a stable America in the future, all nondefense, nonessential of government must be cut to the limit; and,

BECAUSE in the past many individuals and organizations, while demanding national economies of their congressmen have, at the same time brought pressure to bear on those congressmen to push local projects and expenditures not truly vital to the community; and,

BECAUSE the pressure for these nonessential expenditures in their aggregate, destroys any possibility of bringing about a sound, reasonable national spending policy; and,

BECAUSE this emergency places upon every American and every organization a moral responsibility not only for defense today but for security and stability tomorrow,

I PLEDGE, in this emergency, to serve the interests of my country, by not asking of any public official any expenditure which can be deferred or which I do not truly believe to be now vitally essential either to defense or to my own legitimate welfare or to that of my state or community.

The "For Defense Today - For Hope Tomorrow" pledge shown here is being distributed to millions of citizens by the recently organized Citizens Emergency Committee on Nondefense Expenditures, Washington, D. C., in cooperation with taxpayer organizations in 29 states.

Henry M. Wriston, Chairman of the Citizens Emergency Committee, in explaining the objectives of the pledge campaign said, "Most Americans who have really thought about our national problem today—and that includes most members of Congress—admit that we cannot pile on the staggering costs of defense on top of continued nondefense, nonessential spending of the last decade without endangering our hope in the future. They admit non-essential spending of government should be pared to the limit."

But, Dr. Wriston pointed out that the very people who demand non-defense economies are too often the ones who put pressure on their legislators to push appropriations of local interest that are not vital at this time.

The "For Defense Today - For Hope Tomorrow" campaign, according to Dr. Wriston, will afford the American people the opportunity to be heard before it is too late. It will also give millions a chance to pledge their support to the President and the Congress of the United States in effecting vital economies in order to insure the future economic stability of the country and the investment of ideals, hope and freedom that every American has in that future.
