THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1942.

Tom Tilson and Harold Wiles from over near Murray were visiting and looking after some business Nebraska City to see the great grandmatters in Weeping Water last Wednesday.

Ivan Sears and wife departed for Osceola, Mo., last Wednesday where they are visiting for a time at the home of relatives and friends. They formerly made their home there.

Phillip Tritsch from over south of Cedar Creek was in Weeping Water for the afternoon last Wednesday. Speaking of the snow, Phillip said that they had plenty out his way and could spare some at that.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bucholtz and two sisters of Mrs. Bucholtz, all from near Avoca, were visiting in Weeping Water, getting some work done at the beauty parlor, and also doing some trading on last Wednesday afternoon.

Lawrence Askew, who resides about two miles from Weeping Water for some three days was only able to get to town by walking over the fields, but last Tuesday was successful in getting the road opened and was able to make the trip into town and the store via his auto.

Last Tuesday evening when peothe fire alarm sounded and of course | doing. the firemen had to hustle, but they found only a slight blaze for which they were thankful, as it would fight it in the bitter cold.

rather poor health for some time. was observing the occasion very the time. Mr. Jourgesen managed to hearty congratulations. look after the housework and cooking, besides working for spells at the Oldham produce station.

time.

Rasmus Lawrensen was called to Lincoln last Wednesday to look after some business matters and while he was away, the carrying of the mail grandson, but as the snow was so deep, Rev. Snow was not able to get his car operating. So Ralph Keckler got out his car and hitched onto the car of Rev. Snow and had it going in a short time. Thus Rev. Snow and wife were able to go to son, finding all in fine condition.

Had to Walk to Town

Martin Neilson, who makes his home some three miles southeast of Weeping Water, tells of having to walk to town for groceries and the mail. The snow was so deep that no one was able to get over the roads. so Martin took to the fields and walked to town. He says there is plenty of winter for him.

Will Spend Winter in South

Uncle Frank M. Massie, who resides between Weeping Water and Nehawka, was in town last Wednesday and in speaking to his friends said he was departing for the Red River Valley on Thursday where he will spend the winter in the milder climate of the south. Mr. Massie is sided in Cass county for more than eighty years, he having come here from the east many years ago. Uncle place and he likes to live here and ple had gotten settled for supper. to try a milder climate, and is so fill the vacancy left by Miss Redding, Mrs. W. A. Taylor was one day for the mail and some groceries but years of age and attending school at Lived in Cass County All His Life have been a very bad night for a fifty-eighth birthday last Thursday. Caddy celebrate her eighth birthday fire, with the firemen having to He was born in Cass county, near Mrs. Anton Jourgesen has been in dent of this county every since. He uary 6th.

days.

but during the past week has been quietly. However secret leaked out kept to her home and bed most of and he was the recipient of many

Visited with Daughter

Mrs. Fred H. Gorder departed last The Haskall boys, nephews of Mr. Wednesday for Grand Island where and Mrs. E. F. Parker, were visitors her daughter. Miss Helen Gorder, is for a few days with their uncle in librarian at the Grand Island pubthe country, near Weeping Water. lic library. Miss Helen has been in they returning to their home in this position for some time, and likes Plattsmouth last Wednesday. They the work very much. Mrs. Gorder enjoyed a very fine visit and a good will visit the daughter for some 1887 they came to Nebraska and time.

PLATTSMOUTH SEMI - WEEKLY JOURNAL

They spent New Year's day at

EAGL Special Journal Correspondence linen.

Miss Esther Horsh of Fort Robinson, Arkansas and Donald Horsh Eagle who is stationed at Fort Snelling. near Minneapolis, Minn., were in ing friends. Miss Florence West, who spent the schools.

holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde West, went to Lincoln last Friday and planned to leave Sunday for Fort Madison, Iowa, where she teaches school. By Journal Field Representative Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips and daughters enjoyed having as their guest last week. Mrs. Phillips' sister, Mrs. J. C. Burton of Denver.

of Burwell came Saturday to attend after matters at the bank. the funeral services on Sunday for Mrs. M Carthy's brother. They re- pin for going to Sunday school and make a second trip on last Tuesday. turned home on Monday of this week, not missing a day. He is the son of The ladies aid of the Murray Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Becker of Union. Christian church, which was to have family of Colorado spent the holi- John Armstrong, who was injured met in regular session Wednesday. days with Mr. Norris' parents. Mr. and was sick for some weeks at Lin- January 7, has postponed the meetninety-one years of age and has re- and Mrs. William Norris and Mr. coln. has been showing good improve- ing until Wednesday, Jan. 14, when and Mrs. Walter Burk and family, ment and was able to return home the ladies will be entertained by Mrs. ever she was receiving congratula-Miss Bernita Bell Earl spent last the first of the week, week in Weeping Water with her Rev. W. A. Taylor has been As a sample of the tremendously Frank says Cass county is a very fine cousin. Miss Darlene Hoffmeister. rather poorly. With the coming of badroads. John Campbell was com-Mrs. Floyd Althouse is teaching the heavy snow there was much work pelled to walk to town on last Monhas found it an excellent place to the first and second grades until an- shoveling paths and as a result Rev. day and found it a difficult task. On recallin gthe blizzard of 1888. Mrs. make one's home, but he would like other teacher can be employed to Taylor is not feeling so well. Tuesday Lester Dill walked to town Troop then a little girl of eight who was married during the holi- last week just 70 years of age, and found the going much better. was being congratulated on her pass-

The third and fourth grades and ing of the natal day and her very Bert L. Philpot was passing his Miss Moore enjoyed helping Jill good health at the advanced years.

are greatly enjoying the visit. Old Resident of Community Dies. Mr. and Mrs. Pearley Comer and Adolph Herrmann passed away Saturday morning, January 3, 1942, family were over to Omaha last at his home northwest of Eagle at Saturday night where they enjoyed William Sporer, who has spent in Plattsmouth.

He was born in Germany, but left his native land and came to a draw or a tie score of 2 to 2. America when a young man. He worked in the state of New York for several years before going to honor of laying the last stone. property which has been held by sires.

Willis home. located on a farm northwest of Eagle.

the age of $4 years. .

Everett Lindell entertained the relatives at a waffle supper at their home in Murdock. The honored guests were presented with gifts of By Journal Field Representative

Charles Eoedcker was called to the home of the bride's mother in Omaha last Tuesd: y afternoon to look after some business matters.

They left for Fort Laramie Friday. Milton Wiles of near Cedar Creek January 2 and arrived there Satur- was a business visitor in Murray on town on Friday of last week visit- day morwning. Mrs. Collins will con- last Tuesday, having business at the tinue teaching in the Fort Laramie lumber yard,

> Mrs. Jean Peck of Louisville was a visitor at the homeof her parents, Mrs. C. H. Peck and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kenney, all enjoyed the visit. Little Patricia Kelley was born December 30 and with the mother is reported as getting on very nicely. The parents welcomed her and gave Mary Becker was looking after her the name of Patricia. business matters in Omaha last Mon- Everett Spangler, who was home

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius McCarthy day, while Mrs. Guarra was looking last week for a time, was called to Lincoln where he had some business Don Becker received his two-year matters to look after and had also to

Fred Drucker

Recall Blizzard of 1888 Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop were

Weather Too Severe

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dryrun of severe that many of the country of 12 years, was student of District anniversary at a party in their room Eldrege Minnesota, arrived in Union schools were not held as the stu- 66, and when the storm made it im-Weeping Water and has been a resi- at school on Tuesday afternoon, Jan- last week and have been visiting at dents could not attend. The roads, possible to travel was taken with the the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert however, in most cases were cleared remainder of the students and the attending the hockey game between winters in Los Angeles, and also in Omaha and St. Louis, which ended in Florida, speaking of the winters in Mrs. J. D. Pittman Born in 1852 meeting was called off for Friday. The bothr places, had to say "I prefer An article regarding the celebra- plans were for the members to be Mrs. Robert Willis of Plattsmouth being here in my own home, to tion of the birthday anniversary of entertained by Mrs. Earl Bennett. was visiting for the past week at either Los Angeles or Florida." In Mrs. Marriett Pittman stated that All the local people who had any the home of her son, Clarence Willis Los Angeles he says, the weather is she was born in 1862 when the real New Year's plans had to dispense DeSota, Missouri. He was married of Union, as well as with Mrs. B. E. damp and cold and one cannot be birth year was 1852, and her maiden with them as the blizzard stopped any to Miss Mary Heinbur in 1883. In Chapman, mother of Mrs. Willis, who comfortable. He says he prefers be- name was Miss Harriett Mauck. She visiting among relatives and friends is making her home at the Clarence ing Florida to the west coast, but was born in Indiana and has resided as roads were blocked and visibility then he says, having been at both in Nebraska for more than half a was reduced to a very short distance

Hugh Warden, who sold his farm places he is willing to spend his time century. by trade. He worked on Nebraska's some time since and who is to hold here in Murray at home where he by trade. He worked on Nebraska's first capitol building and had the Union and made purchase of the and can be at rest whenever he de- It will be remembered that John among the boys who had gone to Lin-

Warbling McGees Alvo News Special Journal Correspondence

> Mrs. Parsell is feeling much better again. A few weeks ago she fell and hurt her back.

> Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bornemeier spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Tinker.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Coatman drove to Valentine and spent Christmas with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dimmitt and Kendall visited Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Dimmitt of Greenwood Sunday.

Mr. Tinker has been putting in bathroom equipment and completing the making of their home modern.

The local school children return to school Monday after a week's vacation, but were given New Year's day. Dale Ganz, who teaches in Iowa, was home during part of his Christmas vacation Miss Iris Miller returned to her school Sunday as her school resumed its school duties this week.

Miss Ruth Ann Ganz, who teaches at Garland, spent part of her Christmas vacation with home folks.

Mrs. Lyle Miller and son Jack have been snowbound it town for several days. They were at the Carl Rosenow home.

Mrs. Tinker who is a traveling saleslady spent most of the week at home last week. They entertained relatives at Christmas dinner.

Edwin Muenchau, who works at Sioux City, Iowa, was home for Christmas and remained for over Sunand Mrs. Ben Muenchau.

Gwendolyn, the little daughter of Edmonds. The ladies are sisters and octon Monday so school could be teacher to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gerbeling has Bennett Chrisweisser Mr. Chrisweis- been on the sick list again. She has ser having passed away, while Grand- been quite ill since they took her out mother Chrisveisser makes her home for Christmas eve and Christmas day. Due to bad weather and roads, the Mother's-Daughterr's Council club > dut to the falling and drifting snow. Ralph Winn. Dick Bornemeier, Noddleman, ir, was married some coln for a show Wednesday evening time since and with the wife went chead of the storm. Because of the east to make their home at Lynn. drifting snow the boys were forced to Phillip Coatman left Tuesday for he would be sent to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Phillip has had three Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop received years training in the aviation divia card from their son, Earl, who sion, and spent much of that time Kenneth Keller, who is in camp tion here with relatives and friends. He was looking fine and seemed to be enjoing army life. Kenneth has been in for some time and was sent to Georgia several months ago where for some time he was taking a special course in office work.

Like Home the Best

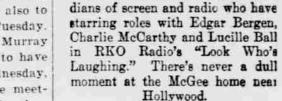

Last Monday the weather was so novel experience. Mr. Troop, a lad held Tuesday.

"Sing Me the Songs" croon Fibber McGee and Molly, inimitable comedians of screen and radio who have tions and well wishes just the same.

the New Hope district a few miles west of Murray. She remembers staying in the school house, and had a

PAGE SEVEN

to and from the depot was looked after by Soren Skamaris. Virgil Meade, who makes his home work at the stone quarry on account home. of the very stormy weather, but re-ing the cold and bad weather. Perry Graves who is employed in at the end of last week and kept homes Monday evening. to return but as none came he re- family were Sunday evening callers mained off work until last Thurs- at the Wm. Blum home, dav.

Welcomes Great Grandson

Rev. and Mrs. Snow, the former Nebr. pastor of the Weeping Water Christo Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tweckerly, ber 28. granddaughter and husband, at the hospital at Nebraska City last Wednesday morning. Of course Rev. and Mrs. Snow desired to see the great the second second statistics,

There will be several fire, windstorm and hail losses in this city and a few serious car accidents.

INSURE TODAY!

If you should be the unfortunate one are you prepared to meet the financial burdens that follow?

SEE

Special Journal Correspondence

in Plattsmouth, was off for a few Mrs. Vogel and Loran spent Satdays last week, and not able to urday evening at the Wm. Blum other relatives and friends, > with the chores. denhall officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Blum called the government quarry, went home st the Martin Zaar and William Blum looking for a half way workable day Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers and dien are spending the holidays with of 42 years, 3 months and 27 days. exposure. Fer parents and relatives in Taylor. He attended the Eagle schools and aside from two and a half years A group of young folks went to the at Ruth. Nevada and three years at The parents of Mrs. H. W. Griffin he was retired, then going to his New Orleans just as he sailed for tent of getting to be home for tian church, received a message an- Thun home to charivari August and Denver, he spent his entire life in Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Osborne, Fairplay, former home at Des Moines, Iowa, Panama, where he goes to operate a Christmas. He had a few days vacanouncing that a son had been born his bride on Sunday evening, Decem- this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stulken of Miss Clara Hebel at Denver. afternoon

Willard Rohrdanz has returned to ality and made friends where ever ing the anniversary and Mr. Osborn army life after having spent his 15- he went, he loved to visit with his who will be ninety years old in Late last week and early this ian Weekly, March 2, 1893, can be day furlough with his parents and friends both young and old. March are both in good health and week, with the snow, wind and cold, believed, it really did get cold in other relatives. Bill Rosencrans came home Christ- his wife Clara, his mother, Mrs.

mas day on a furlough. He left Jan- Daisy Burns, sister, Mrs. Muriel Mcuary 4 for Florida, where he is be- Carthy of Burwell, also uncles and Albert Willis, who has been in man, who were on the big machine, cause the thermometers froze solid ing transferred of snow drifts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun are who will greatly miss him.

not realize a snow storm was raging Mae Adams sang and were accom- day job. They write they are en- Hobscheit corner and the road east balance his books. When he attemptuntil after midnight when they were panied by Mrs. E. W. Metzger. joying living in the west. leady to go home. With roads block- The pallbearers were Albert and ed by drifted snow many did not Frank Frohlich, Herbert Umland, Dee reach home until Saturday. Paul Campbell returned to his Walberg. Burial was in the Eagle cemetery, making their home at Ellenberg, home in Minatare, Nebr., Sunday after having spent the holidays with Bajeck home.

nal office.

family, Mrs. George Vogel and Loran, day event.

was enjoyed until midnight. A de- o'clock Tuesday evening at their if he could tell them where they Monday in bed nursing the sore BATHTUB STOLEN IN PLACKOUT

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lindell of Mur- they enjoyed a pleasant visit and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lewis. It is too bad the one who took advantage of the

On New Year's eve, Mr. and Mrs. ity.

Mrs. Hermann passed away Jack Lidgett, and will occupy the tember, 1937. He is survived by two place after the sale. Mr. and Mrs. sons. Fred and Carl, six grandchil- Lilgett are making their home with dren and one great grandson and Mrs. Martha Lynn, mother of Mrs. ber of institutions, and last at St. home since. John has been employ- day, Lidgett.

Obituary of Wallace Burns Wallace Edgar Burns was born Their home is at Nehawka and Dr. she will be able to return to her September 4, 1899 at Eagle. Nebras- Anderson has an office at both Union home.

ka, and passed away at a Lincoln and Nehawka. They think they will Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dill and chil- hospital January 1, 1942 at the age suffer no serious ill effect from their Celebrate 67th Anniversary Missouri, celebrated their 67th wed- where he hasa since lived, passed drag line.

He was married January 9, 1932 to ding enniversary New Year's day, away at the latter place Dec. 13. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin and Mr. and Mr. Mackey was well known here Selby, South Dakota, called on Mr. His sister, Mildred and father, Ed- Mrs. Arden Ruhn were guests at and had many friends who are painand Mrs. Martin Zaar Wednesday gar J. Burns preceded him in death. the celebration. Mrs. Osborne, who ed at hearing of his demise. Wallace had a pleasing person- was $7 years of age the day follow-

Roads Tough to Drive Over

Albert Willis Writes

He leaves to mourn his passing feeling fine for their years.

the roads were made almost im- the '50s.

Alfred Rikli with his caterpillar of Harrison, Arkansas, Mr. D. E. where he and his wife are employed, out all night on a 24-hour shift with way until spring. They claimed that tractor and snow plow and a crew of Roberts of Denver, Colo. and Mrs. writes he is working there in a large no sleep and very little to eat. But it was so cold that boiling water on had an attack of appepndicitis and men have been busy clearing roads Nellie Russell of Fort Morgan. Colo., garage, while Mrs. Willis is a tele- they stuck to the job until they a red hot stove froze and burst the and other relatives and many friends graph operator. She had been work made it possible to travel over the kettle. Smoke from the chimneys ing on a day shift when the com- roads. Even then in many places it congealed and fell to the ground in shipping their furniture to Esbon. Funeral services were held at the pany had her transferred to a night was only possible to open one lane chunks where it was picked up and Kansas this week. They will go by Methodist church Sunday afternoon shift, whereupon she immediately passages through the drifts, but this burned for fuel over and over again. car, lic is to be station agent there. with Rev. E. W. Metzger in charge, resigned. A few days elapsed and is far superior to no traffic at all. One old timer relates that one The New Year's eve celebrators did Misses Virginia Trumble and Irma the company reinstated her on a The road leading east from the John cold winter night he sat up late to > was blocked full and had not been ed to blow out the light, his breath gotten open early this week but the had no effect on the flame. The light crews are after it and making good had frozen solid. Finally in desper-Willim, Vernon Longman and Arthur Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wompole, progress.

> > Mrs. Earl Merritt Ill Mrs. Earl Merrit, who has been his mother. Mrs. Cora Campbell and Entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Collins where they were looking for a rela- in rather poor health for some time, Russell and in Plattsmouth at the A number of social events have tive. John Hemphill, a brother of being better for a few days and again been held honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Hemphill, of Nehawka, not so well, had been sick and kept erica's first brass bed, died near here Mr. Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Livers and Collins, whose marriage was a holi- Mrs. Wompole had been at the apart- to her bed for a number of days with recently. For the 1893 Columbian ments a number of times where Mr. an aftection of one of her lungs. Exposition in Chicago he built a and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Blum. Helen Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Fentiman and Hemphill lived but had been unable which developed a cist or gathering massive brass bed. Its posts were and Herbert, spent New Year's eve son. Glenn of Elmwood entertained to locate him. They saw a man en- and was very painful. Mrs. Merrit six feet tall. The bed sold for $1,000. with Mrs. Cora Campbell. Pinochle at a three-course dinner at six tering the apartment as asked him was celebrating, her birthday last

Meet Relatives in the West

the latter formerly Marjorie Hoback,

Washington, were visiting in Seattle, licious lunch was served by the hos- home south of Elmwood. Mrs. Rob- could find Mr. Hemphill and the man lung. Mrs. Merritt was born on ALAMEDA. Cal. (UP) -- This city's crtson and Burke were also guests. replied "I am Mr. Hemphill." So January 5, 1889, a daughter of Mr. "meanest thief" for the moment is

We're selling a lot of rubber stamps dock and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Rob- Hemphill recounted many happen- that she was compelled to celebrate city's first blackout to steal the $35 these days and the reason is the low ertson of Alvo had the bride and ings that transpired thirty-five years her natal day in bed but no one can white enamel bathtub awaiting inprices. Get your stamps at the Jour- groom as their guests. ago when he lived in this commun- tell what situation they will be in stallation at the home of Victor

Showing Good Improvement Mrs. Ben Dill, who was at a num- N. J., where they have made their remain in Lincoln all night and next Mary's hospital at Nebraska City, ed in an airplane factory. They Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bornemeier en-Funeral services were held Tues- Dr. R. R. Anderson and wife, where she underwent a major opera- like the east very much and espec- tertained Mr. Bornemeier's brothers Dave Campbell has been on the day afternoon at the Trinity Luth- while returning home from Platts- tion, has been showing improvement ially since on December 29 a very and families and other relatives at turned last Tnesday notwithstand- sick list. His son, Chester, is helping eran church with Rev. A. L. Men- mouth, were caught in the whirling and is reported to be able to sit up fine little baby girl came to make dinner Sunday at their home. A snow and intense cold and were in a chair. This news will be very her home with the very proud par- large crowd was present and all spent Burial was in the Eagle cemetery. nearly perished when they came in pleaasant for her many friends in ents. The little lady has been nam- a very pleasant day.

sight of a light at the home of Mr. and about Murray where she is well ed Mary Elizabeth Noodleman, All Harris, where they sought refuge, known. It is not known just when concerned are reported doing nicely. military training. He thought that

Hear From Son, Earl

W. E. Mackey Dies in Iowa

W. E. Mackey, former section fore- was then onhis way to Panama, in in the Philippine Islands. man for the Missouri Pacific, who the Canal zone, which was written lived in Murray for some years until on December 30 and mailed from in Georgia, was fortunate to the ex-

IT WAS COLD

Cold winters have always been known to the people of Nebraska, but if the story of the Tekamah Burtonpassable until they were cleared. Old settlers say that they could Herman Wohlfarth and John Berg- only conjecture how cold it was beaunts. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burns the west, stationed at Portland, Ore., had a tough time of it, for they were early in the fall and remained that ation. he broke off the light.

FAMED BED-MAKER DIES

ATLANTA, Ga. (UP)-Alfred H. Plante, 82, the man who made Am until the matters come to them. How- Richit, Jr.

Undergoes Operation

Charles Roelofsz, who has been ill for the past two or three weeks and was taken to the hospital last week underwent an operation the latter part of the week. The attending physician was of the opinion that he had this had caused an abcess on the appendix. He is reported to be getting along as well as can be expected but just how long it will be necessary for him to remain in the hospital has not been determined as yet. Friends wish him a speedy and complete recovery.

BEWARE of fire-the stealthy thief who creeps up behind you catching you unawares. Take every precaution against fire but carry adequate fire insurance through this agency. Searl S. Davis OFFICES: 2ND FLOOR Platts. State Bank Bldg.

E 40: