

Alvo News
Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. Fischer has been very ill for several days. John and Dick Fischer of near Eagle have been assisting their mother with the care of their father. Friends hope to hear a better report from Mr. Fischer soon.

Mrs. Don McKinnon entertained club members at her home last week. Several ladies were present and enjoyed a very entertaining afternoon and delicious lunch.

Henry Miller who lives alone, went out to his son's home, Archie Miller, to spend the remainder of the winter.

Dr. Fletcher, veterinarian from Ashland was called to Alvo Saturday. He was forced to drive to Lincoln to reach Alvo due to closed roads.

This week-end marks the close of the first school semester. The scholars are already getting their subjects lined up for the new semester's work. Exams were held at the close of the semester.

Several school children had to be absent from school because of closed roads last week.

Entertains Club

Mrs. J. W. Banning was hostess to the Reading Club Thursday afternoon at her home. Fifteen members were present to enjoy a pleasant event.

Mrs. Earl Dreamer gave a very interesting report on "Books of the Year" and Mrs. Stroemer told much about the book "Berlin Dairy." All proved very interesting to the club members.

Mrs. Rehmeier was a guest. Very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

W. S. C. S.

The W. S. C. S. ladies met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Elliott, Jr., Wednesday afternoon. Eighteen ladies were present in spite of the sub-zero weather.

Hostesses were Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Harold Nickel, Mrs. Talbert Edwards and Mrs. Lee Coatsman and they served a very delicious lunch in the close of the meeting.

Bad Roads

Many of the closed roads have been opened after being closed since the storm. Many were so badly closed that they required the larger snow plows and because there are so few of them in the county work was slow.

Milk truck drivers, mail carriers, school bus drivers were unable to make their routes; in fact for several hours the trains could not make their route either. But at this time the condition is much improved through much effort of the people's cooperation with the road people.

John Deere Day

J. B. Elliott Jr., the local hardware and implement dealer, held his annual John Deere day, Monday at Legion Hall in town. The usual free lunch and picture shows were free to the public. The day was a success in every way.

Holding Clinic at School

A health clinic will be held at

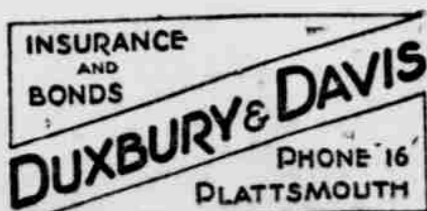

BEFORE 1942 ENDS

There will be several fire, windstorm and hail losses in this city and a few serious car accidents.

INSURE TODAY!

If you should be the unfortunate one are you prepared to meet the financial burdens that follow?

SEE

The Alvo school Friday. This has been made possible by the state health department who will furnish the vaccine; local health unit will furnish the necessary equipment and set up a clinic at school and secure the services of a nurse to assist; Dr. Liston agreed to come to the local school to give the vaccine; and the cooperation of the school patrons and financial aid that they could give.
