MANLEY

By Journal Field Representative

Wm. Murphy who has been visiting here departed a few days ago for Iowa where he will be employed in a stone quarry near that place.

A very pleasant card party was held last Wednesday, at which a number of the young people and many of the older ones were in attendance.

Johnnie Greuber and Donald Opp were in Omaha on day last week where Johnnie went to receive a checkup as to his condition following the severe burns which he received when he was covered by boiling tar.

Miss Teresa Kauth who is housekeeper for the priest of the Julian Catholic church, was visiting her friends and relatives in Manley. The priest was a guest of the priest of the church here.

Mrs. Rudolf Bergman, who was taken to an Omaha hospital for treatment, after a few days was returned home. She is reported as getting along just fair at this time, but is growing better, which is very pleasant news for her many friends.

Mrs. George Vogler was taken very seriously ill and by advice of the family doctor was taken to an Omaha hospital where she underwent an operation and is reported as resting fairly well and hopes she may soon be returned to her former good health.

George A. Vogel who was at an Omaha hospital for a time where he was under observation and receiving treatment, was able to return home some time ago and while he has been showing some improvement he has not realized the improvement which was desired, and is feeling only fair, but hoping for better health.

Wilber Flemming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Flemming, who has been quite ill for some time, still remains very poorly. While everything which it seemed would cause the return of his health has been done he does not seem to show the desired improvement. Wilber has many friends who are anxious that he may be restored to his former health.

Mrs. Waldo Minford has been making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rohrdanz, southeast of Manley, while the husband was called to the colors as one of the reserve officers and is now located in New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Rohrdanz drove to Lincoln last Friday to take the daughter where she will visit for a time with the folks of her husband.

Lived Life in Cass County

Friday of last week, January 23, marked the 69th birthday anniversary of one of the very prominent residents of Manley, Andy Schiefert. He was born a few miles northwest of Manley on the homestead of the Schiefert. Here he spent his boyhood and attended school and later married, and they as young people lived there. A few years ago he and wife moved to Manley and have been making their home here. Their family has grown up and found homes for themselves. Mr. Schiefert has spent his entire life in Cass county and says he likes living in Nebraska and Cass county and especially on the farm and in Manley. Mr. Schiefert was receiving congratulations and best wishes for many more years of life and good health.

To Engage in Farming Soon

Harry Haws who has been manager of the Manley Co-operative Grain company for some years past has resigned his position which was accepted at the recent meeting of the company. The board of directors which have managed the company were all re-elected with the exception of Mr. Haws, he requested that he might be allowed to engage in farming. There has been a number of applicants for the position, but up to the end of last week, no choice had been made for the position.

Not Feeling So Well

Freddie Stohman has not been feeling so well. He had been in his usual health, but was taken with a severe spell last Friday noon, which lasted with severe pains which lasted for a couple of hours when they subsided. He with a number of assistants was sawing wood for Fred Lawrensen and had to stop and allow others to complete the work.

Wishes to Serve His Country

Gerald Isaacs has desired to attach himself to the United States navy, but not passing a physical examination, then tried the army and did not pass, and has returned home. He will make application after a stated period and hopes to have better fortune.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Doan's Pills

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Beechner and son of Lincoln were visiting in Elmwood last Sunday, being guests at the home of Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, mother of Mrs. Beechner. All enjoyed the visit very much. The guests returned to their home late that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rueter and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bornemeier were in Lincoln Wednesday of the past week where they were looking after some business and doing some shopping.

Mesdames L. A. Wiseman and Ralph Keckler were visiting in Elmwood, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene for the evening last Tuesday.

Fine Display of Flowers

While the past fall and present winter have been rather the reverse in conditions for keeping of indoor flowers, the American Exchange bank have a bank of plants and blooming flowers gracing the east windows, which attracts much attention from the public, and makes a bright spot in a world in the throes of tragic conflict.

Return from the South

For ten days Teddy Hall and wife, Mrs. O. E. Liston and Sumner Hall from the northern portion of the state, some two weeks ago departed for a trip to New Orleans and some half dozen states below the Mason and Dixon line. They stopped at New Orleans where they established their headquarters, and enjoyed boat riding in the father of waters where the water was nice and warm and summer sunshine enlivened the whole country. The perceptible tan which Teddy exhibited is a trophy of their trip. They visited in Louisiana, Tennessee, Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Kansas and returned to their own state of Nebraska well satisfied with their very pleasant trip. Sumner Hall continued on to his home at Brunswick.

Working at Oil Station

Roy Sterner, well known and a hustling young man, has accepted the management of the service station of the Trunkenbolz interests, following the resignation of M. V. Wood, who has returned to his trucking lines.

At Lincoln Hospital

Mrs. Wm. Marshall, who has been in delicate health for some time was recently taken to the L. van Memorial hospital in Lincoln as a patient and where she underwent an operation. She rallied very nicely and latest reports are that she is progressing very nicely.

Working in the West

Advices from Norville Bothwell and Milo Frisby who are located at Seattle, where they have an apartment and where they went to accept employment, is that they are enjoying the west with its opportunities and are both very busy when they shall have gotten lined up and at their regular work they will have time to write to their friends in Elmwood.

Visited Relatives Here

Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Dearing of Onawa, Iowa where the doctor operates a hospital, were visiting with friends here and in Weeping Water, they enjoying a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene of Elmwood and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water. The three ladies are sisters. On their return to their Iowa home Mrs. Ralph Keckler accompanied them for a few days visit.

Norman Succeeds His Father

With the return of Emil Bornemeier to the farm which will be done this spring, as he has leased the Will Smith place and will farm it, the son, Norman Bornemeier, will assume control and director of the trucking business and will employ help, as he has two trucks. Norman

AVOCA

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. John Everett of near Union were visiting in Avoca last Sunday, guests of relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel were in Lincoln Tuesday afternoon looking after some business matters.

Mert McCann was celebrating the passing of his 33rd birthday anniversary last Saturday, January 17 and was receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

Calvin Carsten and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith were in Lincoln last Saturday where they enjoyed the basketball game between Kansas and Nebraska.

John Maseman and Miss Aileen Grauf who are employed in the same wholesale house in Lincoln drove down to Avoca to visit their respective parents recently.

James E. Everett and wife of Omaha were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of the mother of James E. Everett, Mrs. John Everett sr. A very pleasant visit was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Olwain of Omaha were guests in Avoca last Sunday and were visiting at the home of Mrs. Olwain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gollner. Mrs. Olwain was formerly Miss Dorothy Gollner.

Will Operate Electric Brooder

Ray Rhoden was in town Wednesday of last week after having been kept at home since the snow storm and when the snow melted the roads were impassable for a time, but he was able to get to town last week. Speaking of the farming interests he remarked that he was installing a large electric brooder as he has decided that the electricity provided a more even heat, thus insuring more healthful chicks. Mr. and Mrs. Rhoden expect to grow a large number of chicks this spring and summer.

Will Make Home in Omaha

Thomas Smith, who has been farming on the homestead of his parents, the father, Mr. Will Smith having died some time ago, the mother, Mrs. Ellen Smith has stayed on the farm and kept house for her son Thomas while he farmed the place. However Thomas took a civil service examination and secured a position in Omaha where he will move. The mother, Mrs. Ellen Smith, will accompany the son and care for the home there.

Back in Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck are back at their home in Elmwood after a four weeks absence, taking care of the chores on the Lloyd Miller farm. Lloyd reports a very nice time in California and good roads all the way till he got back to Fairview school house. His own drive and yard didn't look very enticing for car driving, either.

To Return to the Farm

With the moving of Thomas Smith and his mother to Omaha, this leaves the farm unoccupied. Emil Bornemeier who has been living in town, has been thinking of returning to the farm, and has secured the farm of agricultural pursuits. Mr. Bornemeier has been trucking for the past few years and now again turns to farming.

Repair Community Building

The Community building which was inspired by the American Legion and later taken over by the city of Elmwood, has been having some needed improvements in the shape of improvements on the two dining rooms and the alteration and hanging of some doors. There were a number of other alterations and remodelings needed at the community building but the shortness of funds prevents doing them at this time. However they are hoping to do the remainder of the work in the near future.

Goos to Washington

Miss Darlene Hollenbeck returned from Lincoln to Elmwood last Tuesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hollenbeck over night and started for Washington, D. C. Wednesday morning. She took the civil service examination on Saturday and got the message Tuesday morning to be ready for work Jan. 16th, which fact necessitated her leaving immediately Wednesday morning to her new line of work.

guard who is making his home at Syracuse, brother of Mrs. Thomas also came to Avoca, where they looked over the property of the late W. H. Bogaard and visited and consulted as to some business matters, all returning to their homes in the evening.

Honored at Kitchen Shower

Miss Anna Marie Salling was hosted at a kitchen shower for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson at the home of her mother, Mrs. Christian Salling. A large number of the friends were present and a large number of very beautiful gifts were given in token of the high esteem in which this couple is held.

Receives Government Order

The Marquardt elevator in Avoca received an order from the government to ship some 10,000 bushels of corn to Atchison, which has been stored in the Marquardt elevators for some time. One car was shipped a number of days ago and moving of the rest of the corn has to wait the reception of additional cars. Early this week four cars were received and the shipping of the corn continued.

Home from the Far West

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Akesen, who have been visiting in Washington for the past four weeks, they driving out, returned home last week. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller in the west, where they enjoyed a very fine time. They were greatly impressed with the western country.
