Important Farmers' Notice!

The War Dept. has demanded all Canners to pack as many Peas, Tomatoes, and Corn as they possibly can, because these three vegetables are very essential for a balanced diet for our Soldiers and Sailors.

The War Department stated that it was every farmer's patriotic duty to raise these crops for Canning Factories and do their part toward feeding the Army and Navy.

We are cooperating 100% with the War Department by paying the prices they ask us to pay for these crops.

OUR PRICES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

PEAS

$120.00 per ton for No. 1 & 2 sieve Peas

$65.00 per ton for . . . No. 3 sieve Peas

$37.00 per ton for . . . No. 4 sieve Peas

Seed will be same as last year, 7c per lb.

TOMATOES

$22.00 per ton for No. 1 Tomatoes

$10.00 per ton for No. 2 Tomatoes

Plants will cost $2.50 per thousand. It will take about 1500 plants per acre.

SWEET CORN

$10.00 per ton White AND YELLOW Evergreen

$11.00 per ton Country Gentleman

Seed will all be Hybrid and will be furnished by us at NO COST TO FARMER

Please note that these prices are considerably higher than last year and should show a net return equal to any other crop.

Anyone interested in growing canning crops, please drop us a card or Phone 88 Plattsmouth, Collect.

You can do your part for the FOOD for VICTORY program by raising as many of these crops as possible.
