SAVE YOUR VISION

Defective eyesight is a major cause of the jitters and "sour" dispositions. Eyes that are weak or defective usurp nerve energy intended to keep other organs in balance—and indirectly cause a person to fatigue easily, become cross, on edge—and generally jittery. Funeral of Mrs. Starkjohn

The funeral services for Mrs. Theodore Starkjohn were held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church of which Mrs. Starkjohn was long a member.

The church was filled with the old friends and neighbors of many years standing to pay their last tributes of respect to the departed pioneer resident.

Rev. Willard Sherman, pastor of the church, gave the sermon and paid tribute to the memory of Mrs. Starkjohn and her long and useful life in the community.

During the services Mrs. Otto Pitz and Mrs. Louise Klingler sang two of the old hymns, "Sometime We'll Understand" and "Face to Face." Mrs. Willard Sherman being the accompanist.

The interment was at Oakhill cemetery beside the husband, old time family friends being pallbearers, John Bergman, Louise Schieel, Walter Weisk, Adam Stoeber, George Eorn, Frank Schiele.

The Sattler funeral home had charge of the funeral arrangements.
