

Have Word from Soldier Son

Mr. and Mrs. Pollock Parmele, of Lincoln, were here Sunday for a few hours visit with friends and report hearing from their son, Lieutenant Calvin Parmele, now in the air service.

Lieutenant Parmele has been stationed in the Canal Zone and finds that section of the world quite interesting to one from the north especially.

Depart for Navy

From Monday's Daily—
This noon two more of the popular and highly esteemed young men of the community departed from here for the purpose of doing their part in the defense of their country. These were John Urish and Harry Griffin, both of the boys being enlisted in the navy. They have been awaiting the call for service for some time and today received the message calling them to training at San Diego training station. This makes two from the Urish family in the service, a younger brother, Virgil, being in the army.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Krejci

From Monday's Daily—
This morning at the Holy Rosary church in the west part of the city was held the last rites for Mrs. Mary Krejci, old resident of the community. The church was filled with the old friends and neighbors with whom the departed had long been associated.

The requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Joseph R. Sinkula, pastor of the church, bringing the blessings of the church on the departed and the bereaved family.

The choir of the church assisted in the singing of the mass. At the close of the service the body was borne to the last resting place in the Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were old time friends of the family, James Sedlak, Ferdinand Duda, James Holy, Sr., John Zatopek, Frank Swoboda, John Matousek. The Sattler funeral home had charge of the funeral arrangements and burial.

Railroaders of Old Times Here

Sunday two of the old time railroad shopmen were here to enjoy a visit with relatives and friends and meeting other old associates of the years past. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wurga of Havelock were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Tartsch and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wales, of Omaha, were here as guests at the Joseph M. Sedlak home.

Teachers to Receive Boost in Pay

The board of education at their meeting Monday afternoon voted to grant the teachers in the city school system receiving below $900 a teaching year, an increase of ten per cent in their wages. A few in the higher brackets in the high school and junior high school were also given an increase.

Enjoys Visit at Home

Walter Ferris, who has been engaged in working at the Bendix plant at Philadelphia, came in Saturday evening for a visit with his wife and daughter as well as the many old friends. Mr. Ferris has found the east most interesting and filled with many historic spots, but the people at large lack the cordiality of the western folk.

VISITS RELATIVES HERE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Last evening Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Puls had a very agreeable surprise in a visit from Louis Eannick, of Hartington, nephew of Mrs. Puls. The young man is now in the United States army and has been located at Fort Leonard Wood. He is now stationed at the Transport school at Fort Crook.

Return from Visit

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bull, of this city, spent the week-end at David City, with relatives and friends, and on their return, their daughter, Joan, who spent her Easter vacation there also returned. Mrs. T. E. Hattel, of Manchester, Iowa, sister of Mrs. Bull, who has been visiting at David City accompanied the family home. Mrs. Hattel will go on to her home Wednesday.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all who assisted in any way at the funeral of our beloved mother and grandmother, also those who sent flowers. We want to thank Rev. Sherman for his words of comfort and consolation. We shall always remember with heartfelt gratitude the many expressions of sympathy.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Starkjohn.
