Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

Miss Catherine Lorenz, who is employed in Omaha with the Mutual Life Insurance company, was enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lorenz, over the week-end.

Glen Nickolas, of California, where he is with the Coast Guard, was enjoying a short furlough and visiting at home for a few days during the past week.

Miss Joyce Dearing of Onawa, Ia., who has been spending the past week as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green, returned to her Iowa home last Saturday.

C. F. Weber, pastor of the Callihan church southwest of Murdock, was looking after business matters in Elmwood last Tuesday.

Former Superintendent of Schools Welles has accepted employment with a company engaged in making defense goods and moved his household effects to Lincoln one day during the past week.

Josiah Mears has been troubled by the appearance of an infection in the shape of a carbuncle on the back of his neck. He has been poulticing it and says it is some better.

J. L. Hayes was over to Lincoln last Tuesday where he went to consult a specialist regarding his health.

Verle Kuehn is to depart for Norfolk, Va., on Aug. 20, where he is to be inducted into the service in the navy air service.

Rev. Gerald Gardner and wife were among the guests attending the annual church dinner which was held at the Murray Christian church last Sunday.

Miss Lillian White of Plattsmouth, candidate for nomination for the office of register of deeds, was visiting in Elmwood and looking after her interests in the coming primary election.

Miss Madge Garnett and Miss Florence Fouchet of Plattsmouth, were in Elmwood last Tuesday, interviewing the voters in favor of Miss Garnett, who is seeking nomination to the office of county attorney at the primary election Aug. 11.

While working with the chickens one day last week, Mrs. William Bornemeier struck her arm against a protruding nail, inflicting a severe wound and puncture of an artery which bled profusely. After stopping the flow of blood the injury seemed to heal very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bornemeier were over to Plattsmouth to get a sugar allotment card. They, like many others, have been forced to drive to Plattsmouth to get their war ration cards. This works all right for sugar but is wearing on the tires.

Jay Stanton, who was receiver for old photograph record for Post No. 247 of the American Legion, has a display of the disks in the window at the creamery. The record looked innocent enough, but who knows what they might say when placed on a reproducer. Mr. Stanton shipped the consignment late last week.

Hits Bull Hard Swat
While Norman Bornemeier and wife were returning home Sunday night in the dark their car struck a bull belonging to Donald Hollenbeck. The bull was out late and without a tail light. Both the car and the animal had to be repaired, the former being made in the best of condition, while the latter did not fare quite so well.

Enjoy Wonderful Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. West and daughter, Catherine, of Beatrice, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rueter, who left Elmwood on Friday of week before last, drove to St. Louis, where they visited with Kenneth West for over the week-end. They found the going splendid but encountered rain on their way home and had one tire down. They had an off-size tire which they put on and at every station, and there were not many as it was quite late, they tried to obtain another tire but was unsuccessful. Even at St. Joseph they were unable to purchase a tire. They found Kenneth feeling fine and working every day.

Rev. Frank Gardner Poorly
Rev. Frank Gardner, father of Rev. Gerald Gardner of Elmwood, who has been troubled with an infection of one of his feet, has been visiting with his son here. The affected foot has caused so much trouble that Rev. Frank Gardner had to be taken to a hospital and it is thought it may be necessary to amputate one foot.

Dr. G. G. Douglas Very Poorly
Dr. G. G. Douglas, who has been in ill health, being at the hospital two different times recently, was brought home by Bud Clement last week and has been kept in bed since. He is reported only slightly better. Hopes are that he will soon begin to show improvement. His wife is caring for him.

To Hold Band Concerts
Elmwood is to have band concerts for the remainder of the summer, the first being held on Wednesday evening of last week. These concerts will be a regular feature of Wednesday evening till fall and will be greatly appreciated by the people of the town and surrounding community.

Returned From Hospital
Herbert Lorenz, son of Arthur Lorenz, who was so severely injured when the car in which he was riding came in contact with a mail truck some time ago, was brought home last Monday from the hospital and is reported as getting on very nicely.

Family Dinner
On Sunday, Aug. 2, a picnic dinner was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Spohn. The occasion was in honor of La Moyn's and Harlan Hertz' birthdays which fell on that day, and Mrs. C. H. Spohn's, the previous day, and Loyd Kuntz, the Wednesday previous. Amongst all the good mashed potatoes, salads, pickles, pies, etc., were seven fried chicken, ice cream, cake and one cake was a beautiful big angel food, made by Mrs. C. L. Spohn in honor of her husband. The following guests enjoyed the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Spohn and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kountz, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Kuntz and children, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hooker and three daughters of Council Bluffs, Ia., Mrs. C. H. Spohn, Halan Kuntz and Miss Dorothy Frolich of Lincoln. Misses Sarah Jane Hooker and Alice Marie Hooker went home with Mrs. C. H. Hooker to spend the week.

Miss Katherine Anderson, a former grade teacher in the Alvo school, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Charles Edwards. Miss Anderson has been teaching in the Superior schools for several years.

Five more ladies took the examinations for their home nursing certificates Wednesday. They were Mesdames Frank Taylor, A. B. Stroemer, Wayne Kinney, Walter Vincent and Glen Dimmitt. Mesdames Lee Coatman, Marion Kellogg and Earl Fairfield had taken their examinations at the scheduled time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayers and two younger daughters, who have been living in Texas the past three years are planning upon moving back to their Alvo home. They plan to come as soon as they harvest their corn crop. Moving time is the first of January in Texas so they will be here by that time.

Simon Rehmeier, who has been feeling very badly all summer went to Rochester, Minn., Sunday to have a thorough examination. Mrs. Rehmeier accompanied him. They made the trip by train.

Homer Cook is assisting with the elevator work while Simon Rehmeier is in Rochester. Fred Rehmeier is also assisting and looking after the office work.

Fred and Frank Rehmeier are staying with their aunt, Mrs. Frank Taylor, and husband, while their folks are away.

Mrs. Roy Bennett is spending a few days at the Earl Bennett home.

Mrs. Arzilla Foreman visited her brother Earl Bennett and family over the week-end.

Forrest Hardnock and Orland Bennett have enlisted in a mechanical division. They went Tuesday and to take their examinations. This is a new department of the service and offers opportunity to young men interested in that type of work.

Mrs. Carl Hoffman, a former Alvo lady, who with her family has resided for several years in Lincoln, has been selected through civil service for a position at the air base in Lincoln. She has been employed in Lincoln for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Mayes and little daughter moved back to Lincoln. They have been in Illinois the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Klyver and little granddaughter spent Thursday evening at the Elmer Klyver home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nickel and children were Lincoln visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nickel are taking Leila and Ralph to the hospital Saturday where they will have their tonsils removed Saturday morning.

Dr. Bert Story, district superintendent, will be at the local church Sunday at which time he will hold the annual church business meeting. At this time reports for the present year will be made by various officials and groups, and plans made for the coming year.

Alvo News

By Journal Field Representative
Miss Mary Ramsey, who is employed at the Farm Loan office, enjoyed a visit with her folks at Dorchester over the week-end.

James Roelofz departed for Seattle, Wash., early last week for a few days visit at that western city, but more especially to see his girl friend, Miss Jean Adair Bothwell, who recently moved to the west coast with her parents.

Carl Ganz of Omaha, was visiting for over the week-end at his home, returning to his work in the army.

Herold Elliott, manager of the farm loan office, and family were spending the week-end in Omaha, guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. Floyd Brockney.

The American Boys Cooking club is to hold their achievement day demonstration August 12. The boys, as well as the girls are expected to know the art of cooking, for who knows that their wife in the future might have a severe headache some morning and they would have to prepare the breakfast.

The L. C. L. which is the girls organization of the W. C. T. U., was entertained at the home of Miss Doris Nelson, with a very enjoyable and worthwhile program and a delightful luncheon as well.

The Ladies Aid of the Alvo Methodist church held their meeting at the church basement Wednesday of last week, where they found an abundance of work to do. As the basement was cool and they could have what they wanted to eat and drink, they got along very nicely.

Mrs. Thomas Murtey, who has been visiting with friends and relatives in and about Alvo for the past two weeks, departed last Monday for her home at Clay Center.

Visits for Week Near Murdock
Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Bird, the latter who has been in very poor health, were visiting for a week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Carl Bornemeier over near Murdock. They returned home last Thursday, having enjoyed a very fine visit.

Receives Nice Promotion
DeWitt Bennett, more familiarly known as "Dee" Bennett, who has been employed in Lincoln with the Safeway Stores as meat cutter, has been advanced to the position of manager of the store at Geneva.

Godbeys Visit in Lincoln
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Godbey were over to Lincoln on Monday of last week where they went to visit for the evening a grandson, Maynard Campbell, a young man who had married their granddaughter, and who had been called to the colors and was to report for induction in the army on Aug. 16. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed although marred by the thought that the young man was to leave and how long it might be before his return.

At the Church Sunday
The fourth conference of the Methodist church was to be held on August 9, yesterday, and as yet we have been unable to get a report on the meeting.

The track workers who are known as the section crew, on the Rock Island, enjoyed their annual vacation of two weeks, as the road is in excellent condition and their is little urgent need for the services at present. However, all are keeping in touch with the foreman should any emergency arise.

Storm Causes Much Damage
There was much damage caused by the storm some time ago and many of the farm buildings have been repaired. Among the places where repair work has been done is the farm of W. C. Timlin and William Bornemeier and the Grove Hill farm.

SCIENTISTS AND RATE CLERKS SOUGHT FOR U. S. CIVIL SERVICE
The United States Civil Service Commission is seeking physicists and metallurgists for junior grade positions in the Federal war program, and also freight rate and passenger rate clerks for computing rates and auditing accounts of rail, steamship, highway, and air-line carriers.

Junior physicists will be appointed to positions paying $2,000 a year. Applicants must have completed a full course in a recognized college with 18 semester hours' study in physics. Senior students who will complete their courses in 6 months may apply now, and may receive provisional appointments prior to graduation.

Metallurgists are needed for junior positions paying $2,000 a year. A degree in metallurgy or metallurgical engineering will qualify applicants. Major study in chemistry, geology, physics, or engineering, which included or was supplemented

FOUR MILE CLUB
The Four Mile 4-H club held their meeting at the home of Peter and Betty Halmes. Plans were discussed for entering a float in the "Scrap Carnival." We also anticipate entering our calves at the state fair. All members were present except Marilyn and Clifford Dress who have moved away. Besides members of the families, guests present included Mr. and Mrs. John Halmes, J. E. Halmes and Ralph Puls. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Betty Halmes, Scribe.
