New Family Arrives Here

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Merle Stewart arrived in the city today and expect to soon be able to locate for the school year, Mr. Stewart being the athletic coach of the Plattsmouth high school for the coming season. The new coach and his wife are located at the Hotel Plattsmouth at present but are hopeful of being able to secure an apartment soon and start housekeeping.

The coach is to start the workouts for the football team at once and a meeting with the squad will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the high school gym. The first workouts will be light to get the boys in shape for the heavier practices that will be necessary for the season's start. This year the local schedule will start on Sept. 18, with Glenswood entertaining the Platters in the Mills county city.

Old Resident Here

From Wednesday's Daily—
Samuel Patterson, who has been making his home in the south for several months, was in the city for a short time today, coming down from Omaha with Dr. Betz, of Bellevue, an old friend.

Mr. Patterson is now on his way to the west coast and expects to be located at Los Angeles, his daughter having left her home in the south. Mr. Patterson, a son of one of the territorial families, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Patterson, still retains a fond regard for this city and the surrounding territory so rich in the history of his family.

Death of Old Resident

The death of Floyd Kerns, a native of Plattsmouth, occurred at Falls City during the past week and the interment was made in that city. Mr. Kerns was 78 years of age and has been engaged in the many years of his residence in Richardson county in farming and well digging.

The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters. Mike Kerns of this city is a brother.

Madge Garnet, Helen Farley, Edith Farley and Zelda Wakelin, a guest of Miss Helen Farley, were greatly impressed by the military exhibition put on at the war show in Creighton Stadium in Omaha last night. Miss Wakelin later left for her home in York where she is an instructor of languages in York College.

The rivers and streams of the Province of Quebec abound in black bass, speckled trout, grey trout, ouananiche, dore, and northern pike. Probably the most prized fish of all is the Atlantic Salmon.

BACK TO WORK— WITH GOOD VISION

Have your vision checked before the long months of winter work begins. Good eyesight means work more easily performed—more work accomplished—better work. It means more energy left for pleasure in the leisure hours after work. It means better looks, better dispositions, better income, better living.

Have your vision checked—now—before the long months of winter work begins.

Merchants Whip Makeshift Lincoln Crew Five to Two

Game Starts Two Hours Late—Lasts Only Six Innings—Fox Racks Up No. 2

By ROBERT COOK

After a slight delay of about two hours the Plattsmouth Merchants beat a makeshift Lincoln outfit by a score of 5-2. The game was originally scheduled with Lincoln's Cornhusker Hotel Legion Team, but only two known members of that bunch arrived. The game was slated for 2:30 but didn't quite make it. What crowd was there was maintained until 3:30 by a broadcast of the game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the New York Giants. This went on indefinitely until Dolph Camilli smacked a home run with the bases loaded in the tenth and dispersed the listeners in. At 4:00 Bud Vroman left, and Joe Noble disappeared with the only two decent baseballs in the lot.

Then at approximately 4:30 when everyone was about to make sad departure, a dilapidated highway bus bearing Lancaster county plates wheezed on to the field and disgorged five players (all 16 or younger), one manager, and a possible batboy. Well, the Lincoln gang finally got a bedraggled nine assembled. The manager player center-field, the batboy took over second base, and two innocent bystanders, Russ Nielsen, and Eob Gall, went to left and right fields respectively. Bill Fox hurled for Plattsmouth and didn't have to strain himself as he gave four hits, struck out four, and walked one for his second win of the season. Morrie Galter, all-state legion center fielder, did mound chores for Lincoln. His south-paw slants were nicked for seven hits while he fanned eleven and walked three. Gene Ault and Ralph Puls led Plattsmouth at bat with a brace of hits apiece. Peterson, D. Hayes, G. Hayes and Nielsen got Lincoln's hits.

Plattsmouth opened fire in the first. R. Hayes walked and Piffled B. Hassock. Smith poked a double to left center scoring Bob easily. The Merchants kept on in the second. Davis beat out a slow roller to short and reached third on two wild pitches. Puls' Texas leaguer fell between Carr and Nielsen in short left for a hit scoring Davis. Lincoln rallied to tie it up in their half of the second. Peterson beat out a bouncer to Ault for a single. D. Hayes was safe when Chovanec muffed his wobbly pop down the third base line. G. Hayes singled to center scoring Peterson, and Nielsen's smash went for a hit to the same spot when umpire Hobbs collided with R. Hayes and knocked him off balance. This filled the sacks. Duncan's high bouncer fell behind Fox for an infield hit scoring D. Hayes.

Plattsmouth recaptured the lead in the third with two out. Ault rifled a single back over Galter's head in to center field. Smith walked and both advanced on a wild pitch. Chovanec was safe when H. Hayes dropped a third strike, and Ault stole home when the catcher made a futile peg to first. Smith came in on a wild pitch. Plattsmouth got one more tally in the fifth. R. Hayes doubled to center, and Ault beat out a bouncer to second. Hayes got entangled with the shortstop and second baseman, and couldn't liberate himself in time to go to third. Smith tapped in front of the plate and was thrown out at first, but Hayes scored all the way from second. R. Hayes shined afield with his graceful movements despite numerous accidents. Box score:

Ad Club Meeting at the Plattsmouth Hotel Today

From Wednesday's Daily—
Members of the Ad Club enjoyed luncheon at the Plattsmouth Hotel today noon.

President Clem Woster opened the after-dinner discussion of business affairs by having secretary and treasurer, W. H. Puls read the minutes of the last meeting. Following this the regular business discussion centered about the equipment of the club. New purchases and repairs to loud speaking apparatus were mentioned. Members spoke of ways and means of securing records to be played for public occasions in these times when they are difficult to purchase.

Randall Bigsby, who with Warren Scharfenberg, represented the Ad club committee to round up business men for the recent scrap drive, reported the results of their efforts. "Everyone cooperated splendidly," said Bigsby. "But why say more, the results of Plattsmouth's effort speaks for itself, as evidenced by Cass county's final position in the contest."

Picnic in the Rain

From Wednesday's Daily—
The much needed rainfall in this section of the county that started falling near the noon hour, failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the large crowd that attended the annual picnic dinner of the Mynard Community club. The event was held at the C. A. Wetenkamp grove west of Mynard and here the ladies had arranged the long table filled with all of the good things from fried chicken on. The ladies stayed on the job despite the rain and served 124 persons in the dinner hour.

A very large number from this city drove out for the dinner, the Rotary club as usual being on hand and with their ladies to enjoy the treat. The dinner of the Mynard club has become an institution in this part of the state and many from the different towns in this locality are glad to have the opportunity of enjoying the picnic dinner. Owing to the rain the club members did not have any after dinner program or games that they sometimes feature for the home folks.

Group Enjoys Show

From Tuesday's Daily—
"Here's Your Army," showing in Omaha this week, is drawing a great many from all parts of the central west and Plattsmouth people were largely represented last evening at the show.

One group comprised Mr. and Mrs. Ordell Hennings, Dick Hess, Donald Skalak, Joe Highfield, Phyllis and Shirley Speck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess F. Warga were guests of Miss Anna Warga, of Omaha, at the show last night.

Another of the groups to enjoy the great demonstration of the modern war machine was H. A. Schneider, E. H. Bernhardt, C. E. Ledgway and James Mauzy, they finding a wonderful demonstration of the national war machine.

Enrolls for Journal

W. A. Umland and Bert Muenchau, well known residents of the Eagle community were visitors in the city Tuesday to look after some business matters and while here were callers at the Journal. Both of the men enrolled as new readers of the semi-weekly edition of the paper to come to their homes twice each week.

CARD OF THANKS

To the kind friends and neighbors I wish to take this opportunity of thanking each and everyone for their kindness during the illness of my dear wife and for the sympathy, flowers and especially to those taking part in the funeral services.

MIKE LUTZ.

To Extend Activities

Elated by the success of the dance which they gave for the Ft. Crook soldiers at the hotel last Friday night, the Victorettes will take up business matters at their meeting at Shirley Jacobs home 7:30 Thursday evening.

Although the girls have managed to entertain the soldiers upon two occasions, they have not yet had an election of officers. This will be one of the matters taken up at the Thursday meeting. Also there has been some talk of obtaining a headquarters which can be used for the entertainment as well as the meetings. Ways and means of obtaining and maintaining such a headquarters will also be discussed. All girls interested in aiding the club to entertain soldiers are invited to attend the meeting and join the club.

Now in Coast Guard

"Bill" Knorr, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Knorr, is now a full-fledged member of the United States coast guard and is undergoing training on the west coast. He is at the island training station at Alameda, Calif., and undergoing the preliminary training to fit him for this exacting branch of the service. His address is Roy W. Knorr, Jr., AFR Co. 2-A, battalion 4, barracks 6, U. S. C. G., Government Island Training Station, Alameda, Calif.

See War Show

From Wednesday's Daily—
After attending the American Legion convention yesterday in Omaha, Judge A. H. Duxbury and County Treasurer John Turner took in the war show. With them were the judge's young son, Dickie, and Emerson Wiles. The Elmer Webb family and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Marsh were also in attendance.

Enjoy the Army Show

From Wednesday's Daily—
Despite the bad weather conditions the Army Show at Omaha last night drew out a great crowd to watch the thrilling exhibition of the might of the modern armed forces. There were a number from this city to take in the show and among these were: Wallace Warner, Fred Lugsch and W. A. Swatek.

Locates in City

D. L. Grow, of Lincoln, who has been here for the past few months engaged in work at the Martin plant at Fort Crook, Sunday moved his family here from Lincoln. They are located at the Taylor apartment on high school hill, where the David Fowler family have been living.
