the birthday of J. V. Pittman.

Has Two Sons in Service

Alex Bisanz and wife, of Omaha, uncle and aunt of G. E. Brubacher, gave a dinner Sunday in honor of their son Carl, who has just left for service in the U. S. armed forces. Mr. and Mrs. Brubacher and Beverly Ann were guests at the dinner and stopped en route to the metropolis for Mr. Brubacher's mother at Plattsmouth. A brother of Carl, Alex, Jr., is already in the service.

Enjoy Harvest Home Supper

The farmers in the community of the Otterbein church southwest of Murray and north of Nehawka, gathered at the church Friday and like of old, enjoyed a harvest supper, giving thanks for the bountiful returns of their labors. The supper was liberally patronized and the church netted the neat sum of $26.28, which will be used for the activities of the organization.

Making Repairs on Farm

Frank Dill was down to his farm southwest of Murray last Monday, taking a load of lumber and building material to make some changes in the buildings and prepare for moving to the farm in the spring. With the lack of labor and material, and the manner of securing the same, building new and repairing old buildings is quite a problem. Mr. Dill has decided to farm less land next year and try to look after the work himself as the labor problem is a hard nut to crack.

Charles Sporer Entertain

Last Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sporer was gathered a pleasant group of relatives and friends who enjoyed a delightful dinner and visit. There were there for the occasion William Sporer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Holman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bether and family, Harriett Stull and the Chas. Sporer.

To Visit Mother

Mrs. Deloris Ottaman, daughter of Mrs. Phillip Keil, who has been in California since her marriage two years ago, is to arrive in Murray to visit with her mother this week. She will also visit with friends at Avoca, where she resided for a number of years.

Makes Change in Business

Women and older men have been given work to replace younger men who are needed in the armed forces and defense plants and as a result Oscar E. McDonald is now working at the Wilbur Lang tavern in order that Wilbur may continue his duties at the bomber plant at Fort Crook. Mr. McDonald was refused employment at the plant because of his age.

Dr. Kroehler to Knoxville

From Tuesday's Daily—
Dr. R. A. Kroehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kroehler of this city, left this morning on the Missouri Pacific Eagle for Knoxville, Tenn., where he will officially enter the army medical service. For 13 years Dr. Kroehler has maintained a practice in New York City. Recently he was called to duty in the army, and as good luck would have it, he was sent to his home state for a final check-up by the army.

Dr. Kroehler's wife and three children are in New York awaiting word of the doctor's future location with the army.

Two New Employees

From Tuesday's Daily—
Miss Helen Porter, director of the county assistance office, announced this morning that she had two new employees. Miss Harriette Guthals of Union is the new stenographer. Miss Guthals graduated from the Nebraska City high school last evening. The other newcomer is Miss Frances Ramey of Red Cloud. Miss Ramey is employed as a visitor. It is her duty to determine the eligibility of applicants for assistance. She is well qualified for her job as she did this type of work in Lincoln before coming here.

Visit in Missouri

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bierl and son, Eddie, left Friday for St. Joseph, Mo., for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris and family. While they are gone, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Meisinger are at the Bierl home.

Sunday at Ft. Leavenworth

Mrs. George Hall went to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, with her sister, Mrs. I. N. White, and her niece, Mrs. William White, where they spent Sunday with Pvt. William White, formerly of Omaha.

Nehawka

By Journal Field Representative

Jack Haines has been selected as caretaker of the Nehawka schools, which opened on Monday of this week with a good enrollment of pupils.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson and son were visiting for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Steffens, parents of Mrs. Anderson. They drove down for the day and enjoyed a very fine visit.

Lyle Kruger, who is employed in the west in the construction of rural electrification lines, writes he likes the work very well, but he was forced to lay off for a few days on account of not feeling well. He, however, is feeling better now.

Robert Troop, of Syracuse, accompanied by Mrs. Troop, was visiting at the home of Robert's folks Sunday and remained until Monday.

Fred Hollingsworth, husband of the former Genevieve Rutledge, who is located at New Orleans, was spending a short vacation at Syracuse with Mrs. Hollingsworth's mother and in Nehawka with her father.

Mrs. A. F. Strum and Patsy, who departed last week for Wyoming to visit with Jack Yeiser, who is located at an army camp there, are back home. The party consisting of Mrs. A. F. Strum, Mrs. Gertrude Yeiser and son Andrew, and daughter Suzanne, enjoyed the trip greatly and report Jack is doing well.

Roy Greag was assisting James Chriswiler making hay. They also were assisted in their work by Edward J. Kruger.

School Opens at Nehawka

The Nehawka school opened Monday of this week and the following instructors are in charge: B. Vauch, superintendent, high school, L. Hallstrom, Mrs. D. Bixler and Edna Eastwood; grades Taleta Elfelt, 1st and 2nd; F. Deever, 3rd and 4th; Dan Tucker, 5th and 6th, and Bernadine Bishop, 7th and 8th.

Home from the South

Mrs. Matthew Akin and her two small sons, who have been visiting for the past 10 days at the home of friends at Fairplay, Mo., which is their old home, returned this week. They report meeting many old friends and acquaintances and a general good time. They also report good crops over the entire country, in many places better than has been raised for many years.

Dies at Hospital

Mark Burton and family moved to Nebraska City several weeks ago, where Mr. Burton had employment painting. Mr. Burton's health has not been so robust for some time and during the past few weeks he has been rather poorly. He visited in Nehawka last week and was somewhat thinner and feeling badly. On Friday of last week he was taken to the University hospital at Omaha and despite all that could be done he passed away Sunday morning.

Prepare for Football

Coach Merle Stewart of the Plattsmouth high school, is now on the job of getting the football training schedule under way. There have been some 15 of the boys of the school out so far to meet with the coach and look over the situation. Many of the boys have worked during the vacation and will probably do so up to the opening of school on next Monday, when they will get into the training harness.

There have been around eight lettermen out so far to help get the training organized. Lars Larson, the team captain will be absent this year as he is to attend school at Colorado Springs.

Iowan in Town

Selden "Hickey" Hickenlooper and his fiancée made a trip from his home town in Blockton, Iowa, to visit friends in Plattsmouth today. The youth lived in Plattsmouth for a short time while he was working at the bomber plant. When he joined the air corps he quit his job and went to his home in Iowa. Today's visit was made to pay a final visit to his Plattsmouth friends before entering the service.

Enjoy Roller Skating

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Wurga and daughters were at Omaha Sunday for a few hours. While there their eldest daughter, Marilyn had the opportunity of enjoying roller skating at one of the large rinks in that city. The young lady is quite an expert in this line and enjoyed the opportunity very much of skating with the large group of youngsters.

Victorettes Elect Officers

From Wednesday's Daily—
The largest number of girls yet to attend a Victorette meeting elected Miss Alice Jayne Grosshons for their president at an emergency meeting last night at the home of Shirley Jacobs. For their secretary and treasurer the girls named Miss Buster Blauvelt. Both girls have been very active in the organization and business of the club which functions as an entertaining unit for men in the armed forces.

This large gathering of girls discussed final plans for a dance to be given the Fort Crook soldiers Friday night at the Legion hall.

Officers of the club asked girls who are to serve as dancing partners for the soldiers to be at the hall by 8 o'clock so that they can be on hand when the lads arrive.

In drawing up rules the members agreed that a girl must be out of high school to belong to the club. Regular meeting nights were set for the first and third Thursdays of each month. Girls who do not attend these meetings at least once a month are automatically dropped from the organization, unless they have a good reason for being absent. Until they secure a suitable location where they can have their meetings, dances, and open house for the members of the armed forces, the girls will continue to meet at the home of Shirley Jacobs.

Aids Peace Officers

The Nebraska City News-Press reports that Florence McCarthy, of north of Nebraska City, well known here and at Union, has been a big help to Sheriff Carl Ryder and other officers. He is farming along highway No. 75 and also operates a gas station.

Monday McCarthy helped the sheriff capture two boys in a vacant house near his home; Tuesday he reported an abandoned car to Sheriff Ryder, and helped bring it in. Later, on Tuesday "Floss" helped the sheriff and deputy sheriff in rounding up five negroes suspected of a holdup in Missouri. He also stood guard over two negro women while Ryder and Wiles gave the three men in jail a going over.

Go to Weeping Water

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mrs. Flora Murray and her aunt, Mrs. Flora Taylor, left today for Weeping Water where they will make their future home at the Resthaven hotel. The Austin nursing home has been closed as Mrs. Austin is engaged in working at the Martin plant.

Mrs. Murray and Mrs. Taylor have been at the Austin home for over two years. The Resthaven hotel is now converted into a nursing home. The ladies will be pleased to have their friends call on them at their new home and the semi-weekly Journal will accompany them to their new location.

Sheriff Injures Shoulder

From Monday's Daily—
Sheriff Joe Mrasek was busy today in explaining the reason for carrying his left arm in a sling. It seems that the sheriff who likes to wrestle with friends, tried out this stunt Sunday with some acquaintance on the street with the result that several muscles of the shoulder were damaged and thence the necessity of taping up the shoulder and putting the arm out of commission. The sheriff has discovered that he is not of the John Pesack or Emil Dusek class.

Will Undergo Treatment

From Tuesday's Daily—
Noah Parker, chief of police of this city, departed for Savannah, Mo., where he will spend some time undergoing treatment at the clinic. Mr. Parker has had a growth on the top of an ear for some time and this has reached such a stage that it required a prolonged course of treatment.

Old Tree Falls

Mrs. Marie Blauvelt had planned to have a huge old Linden tree removed from her yard. She was saved this trouble and expense last week. While Mrs. Blauvelt was observing the tree from a window, it tottered and crashed to the ground, making such a noise that a number of persons gathered to see what the fuss was about. Fortunately the tree fell where it did no damage.
