AVOCA

By Journal Field Representative

Mrs. Clarence E. Tefft and daughter, Miss Esther, of Weeping Water, was a visitor in Avoca recently, looking after some matters of business on the farm and attending to other matters.

George Mayers, living north of Avoca, was getting material for the building of a corn crib, as it looks like he will have more corn this year than in a series of years just past, a fact which pleases everyone.

John W. Ruhga, making his home a number of miles northwest of Avoca, was in town securing material for the construction of additional crib room, as present capacity for storing the corn is not sufficient to care for the crop.

Mrs. Lee Hauptman was visiting over the week-end at the home of her daughter in Plattsmouth, where both mother and daughter enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

Mrs. Wm. Stoval of Riverton, Iowa, was a week-end visitor in Avoca, being a guest of relatives and friends.

Messrs. Matthew Midkiff and Virgil Ruby of near Nehawka, were in Avoca on last Tuesday, looking after some business matters and visiting with their many friends.

J. J. Cullen began construction of a corn crib the first of last week. While the crib is being built the corn is ripening and soon will be ready to store in the new building.

Gets Power Lawn Mower
Silas Everett, who has charge of the Avoca cemetery, made the purchase of a power lawn mower for use at the cemetery and at his home. The new machine will take much of the labor out of keeping the lawns trimmed.

Treat Scales Floor
At the lumber yard the truck scale platform, which has a large area and is built of wood, was susceptible of absorbing much moisture during rainy days, which required frequent balancing of the scale beam. To remedy this condition the platform has been treated to a coat of creosote and raw linseed oil, which makes a firm surface that does not take water readily.

Spend Weed-End at Utica
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt and his mother, Mrs. Caroline Marquardt, drove out to Utica last Sunday where Fred looked after a herd of cattle which he has on pasture there, and attended to other matters while the mother and other folks visited with Mrs. Meta Beckart, a sister of Mrs. Caroline Marquardt. Fred observed the crops were wonderful all the way out, with all vegetation nice and green.

Spend Sunday in Nebr. City
Phillip Maseman and wife were over to Nebraska City Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Maseman, where a reception was held honoring Phillip Maseman, who is soon to depart for the army.

Join the Coast Guards
Robert Hallstrom of the Avoca bank, and Lee Pommell enlisted in the Coast Guards and went to Omaha where they were assigned to their training station.

Auction Bonds at Fair
WEeping Water, Neb., Sept. 17, (UP)—The first day of the Cass county fair yesterday was featured by the "auctioning" of $13,940 in war bonds. A red, white and blue rooster was offered at auction and brought $1,400 when bought by Wendell Hart, who turned the fowl back to the auctioneer, who, in turn, resold it for $1,100.

A sack of flour brought $550, and enthusiastic buyers bought the shirt and suitcoat from the back of O. C. Hinds, Weeping Water banker.

Paper Placed Under License
Washington, September 18, (UP)—Distributors of newspaper and other paper products were placed under licensed control today by the OPA.

The OPA order makes a license the required condition for resale of any paper product covered by general maximum price regulations. It covered dealers in wood pulp, craft paper, standard newspaper and sanitary napkins.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Delta Deck

Many beautiful fall flowers proved very pleasing to the ladies of the Delta deck bridge club when they met at the home of Mrs. L. W. Egenberger last night. High scorer for the evening was Mrs. L. W. Egenberger; second high was Mrs. Lillian Livingston. Miss Laura Meisinger took the consolation award. Guest for the evening was Mrs. Frank Gobleman.

Stamfield Allen Wedding

Word has been received here by friends of the marriage of Mary Louise Stanfield to John Thomas Allen, Jr., on September 6 at the home of Mrs. Allen's parents in Denver, Colorado. Mrs. Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Stanfield, who made their home in Plattsmouth a number of years ago when Mr. Stanfield was in business here. She graduated last June from Dupuaw University.

Entertained at Omaha

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gamble entertained at a dinner party at their lovely home in the outskirts of Omaha, a number of the friends from this city being invited to join the group. Those from here for the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Soennichsen, Mr. and Mrs. Milo M. Hoppe, Mary Rosencrans and Robert M. Walling. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thomas and daughter, Mrs. Damast were also guests.

Goldenrod Study Club

The Goldenrod Study club held its first meeting of the year at Mrs. Charles Barnard's home in Myrdar Tuesday. Mrs. Adda Perry and Mrs. Ralph Wiles were assistant hostesses.

Mrs. Ray Cole acted as chairman in the absence of both President and vice president.

Mrs. Herman Meisinger spoke to the ladies of the need of their help in the Red Cross work and announced that a work room for making bandages would be opened in her home very soon.

Mrs. Elbert Wiles was in charge of the program for the afternoon which was "Sugar Savers and Substitutes."

Recipes were exchanged and many ideas that were much appreciated, were given.

The hostesses served a very refreshing and suitable lunch, which proved one can entertain without the use of sugar.

St. Paul's Circles

The members of Circle No. 3 of the St. Paul's church met on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Adam Stoehr where a very interesting time was enjoyed. The regular business session was held and the devotionals, "Self Sacrifice" was led by Miss Marie Nolting.

There were thirteen circle members and four guests in attendance at the meeting, the visitors being Mrs. Hugh Stander, Mrs. Charles Manners, Mrs. Ed Steppet and Brenda Ote.

Mrs. Stoehr and Mrs. Ednest Schubeck, hostesses served dainty and much enjoyed refreshments at a suitable hour.

Naomi Circle

The Naomi Circle of the Methodist church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Wiles with Mrs. Million and Mrs. Highfield as assistant hostesses. Eighteen members attended the meeting. The devotionals were given by Mrs. G. O. Schwenneker from the "Radiant Heart" with the topic "Fellowship in the Gospel" being featured in the lesson. Plans were discussed for the White Elephant Sale and the fall bazaar and chicken pie supper. Mrs. Fred Howland presented the lesson based on the theme "Refugee Women and Children" taken from the Methodist Woman.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Clem Woster, was several musical numbers by the Reeder twins Janet and Janice, who were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. J. R. Reeder, and piano music by Bob Ashton, the music director in the public schools. Two visitors, Mrs. D. S. Sumner and Mrs. Stephen Wiles, were present and two new members, Mrs. King and Mrs. Pifer, were in attendance at their first meeting.

Eighteen members were present at the meeting.

At the close of the afternoon's business and social hour, the hostess and assistant hostesses served refreshments and were assisted by Mrs. Vernon Waterman.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Circle No. 1 met at the home of Mrs. George R. Sayles, associate hostesses were Miss Helene Perry, Mrs. F. G. Nolting and Miss Edna Warren. Nine members and four guests were in attendance. After the business meeting, refreshments were served.

Circle No. 2 gathered at the home of Mrs. Nellie Spangler. Mrs. Richard Spangler and Miss Edith Farley were associate hostesses. The 21 members and three visitors heard Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt speak on Red Cross work. Mrs. Ralph Wehrlein had charge of the missionary lesson. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Circle No. 3 met at the home of Mrs. George L. Farley who had as associate hostesses Mrs. Eva Gansemer, Mrs. Mary Rawls and Mrs. T. E. Olson. The ladies had a very delightful reading, "The Keys to the Kingdom" given by Mrs. P. T. Heineman. Mrs. Edith Aller had charge of the missionary lesson. There was a fine attendance and at the close of the afternoon refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Circle No. 4 convened at the home of Mr. Eugene Burdick, associate hostesses were Mrs. George Dobson and Mrs. Chris Lien. Fourteen members and two guests were present. Mrs. Carl Ote, president, presided and Mrs. Wiley Sigler was in charge of the lesson. She was assisted by Mrs. Earl Becker and Mrs. William Schmidtman Jr. Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting.

Circle No. 5 met at Miss Carrie Baird's home. Miss Estelle Baird and Miss Pearl Staats acted as associate hostesses. A pleasing attendance entered into the business discussion of White Cross and rummage activities. Following the serving of refreshments the ladies disbanded.

Fined for Tax Evasion

Omaha, September 18 (UP)—A prominent Grand Island clothing store operator, M. M. Shapiro, has been fined $500 and costs by Federal Judge J. H. Donohoe. Shapiro was a former president of the Grand Island chamber of commerce. The government charged he secreted monies he had received as discounts for prompt payments of bills for goods from his stores and failed to report them in his 1936-37 income tax statements.

In addition to the fine, Shapiro paid the $6,000 the government said he had shorted and was assessed an additional $6,000 in penalties.

Test Baseball Sentiment

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Sept. 18—The future of professional baseball in the Council Bluffs-Omaha trade territory will be at stake, Sept. 23 at 4:30 when the Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Browns open the first major league game in history at Legion park, 35th and Broadway.

Purpose of the contest will be two-fold. Salaries of players will go on until the end of the season, and club owners need the added revenue. The big point is that both may try to place farm clubs here or in Omaha after the war if midwestern fans show the proper attitude.

It is no secret that the bulk of support for any baseball team must come from the small towns and farms within a radius of 150 miles of the home park. Riley Nelson, chairman of the sponsoring American Legion baseball committee, has assured that support.

This will be a regulation game, and not an exhibition. K. M. Landis, high commissioner of baseball, will allow no "monkey business" when teams under his jurisdiction take any field.

Requests for reserve and box seats have been heartening. The original allotment of 535 boxes was gone Monday, and sponsors arranged for 1,500 extra field boxes along the first and third base lines. Many of the 1,608 reserve grandstand seats are still available.

Says Tried to Wreck Train

OMAHA, September 18, (UP)—The Omaha World-Herald today received a letter signed "I am an American" in which the writer claims to have placed the explosives which almost wrecked the Burlington railroad's Denver Zephyr near Nodaway, Iowa, Sunday night.

The letter was mailed on a train from somewhere in Nebraska or Colorado probably at Lincoln, Hastings or McCook.

In a rambling letter, the writer asserted he had two boys in the service. He complained that soldiers are forced to ride ordinary trains while the idle rich occupy such first class trains as the one which he attempted to blow up.

The writer said he did not want to "hurt anybody next time," but it might be different next time.

Returns from Outing

Mrs. Joseph Bierl has returned home from St. Joseph, Missouri, where she has been visiting for a few days. She was a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris.
