

Silver Wedding Of Former Cass County People

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams of South Oceanside, Calif., Celebrate Event With Group of Friends

Old time friends in Cass county will be interested in the following account of the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams, one time residents of Cass county. Mr. Williams was at one time employed in the grocery department of the store of E. C. Dovey & Son in Plattsmouth:

Twenty-five years of happy marriage culminated in the celebration of a silver wedding day for Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams of Morse street, South Oceanside.

Many friends were invited to share in the anniversary at a social evening at the Williams home Monday night.

"We were married on Sept. 7, at 8 o'clock in the evening," said the Williams, so we set the same hour to receive congratulations.

The marriage was solemnized in Minden, Nebraska, where the young couple lived for some time. Later they moved to other places, in the same state before coming to Oceanside 10 years ago. Mr. Williams is employed now as manager of the local whole sale store of Smart and Final.

The home was attractively decorated with lovely flowers, pink dahlias and pink zinnias were combined with a beautiful silver lace flower, a new plant grown in the Williams yard.

A. O. Anderson acted as master of ceremony, presenting a program of songs and an address by the Rev. E. G. McDaniels, who formerly lived in the same town in Nebraska as the honorees. Rev. McDaniels related the life history of the happy couple.

Music entertainment included solos by R. L. Leonard who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and Don Selinger, who sang "The Desert Song." The two men also sang duets, "In the Garden" and "Near the Cross."

Paul Todd entertained with selections on the piano.

A three tiered wedding cake, decorated with silver leaves centered a lace covered table. Mr. and Mrs. Williams cut the wedding cake which was served by their daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. L. Williams. Another daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Williams, presided at the punch bowl. Miss Frances Birmingham assisted in serving other refreshments.

A beautiful silver salad fork and spoon were given the honorees by members of Aetha class of the Baptist church. They also were recipients of many other gifts from their many friends.

Warren came from San Diego and the other brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. from Oceanside.

Other relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winslow, (sister of Mrs. Williams), Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Leonard and twin daughters, Marilyn and Muriel. Guests present included the following: Messrs. and Meses. Fenton Martin, Dio B. Hunter, Ray Franks, Moss Todd, and son, Paul, Ralph Higgins, F. L. Hackett, Gus Fleibiger, A. O. Anderson, Don Selinger, C. C. Johnston, M. L. Dearborn, J. R. Prather, Al Faircourt.

The Rev. E. G. McDaniels, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Birmingham and daughter, Frances of Vista, Meses. C. L. Martin, Vera Cherry, Fanny Hunter, Jessie Patterson and Anna Nehring.

Moving to New Mexico

From Thursday's Daily—

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Clinkenbeard and son departed this morning on the first steps of their journey to Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they are planning on locating for some time at least. They are making the trip via trailer and will have living quarters when they reach their destination. Mr. Clinkenbeard is to be engaged in some construction work near the New Mexico city that will require several months.

The residence property of the Clinkenbeard family has been purchased by D. H. Reichstadt.

Glenwood and Blue Devils Tie Up 13 Alike

Plattsmouth Teams Make Good Start But Tied up as Rams Score Freak Touchdown

By Bernard Ulrich
Coach Stewart's debut was a success as his boys came through with a tie. The game conditions were better than expected. The sod was damp but it didn't slow up fast backs.

Both teams put fleet feet as well as slipper leather on the field. Plattsmouth held the uphand throughout the game but showed a leaky pass defense and one boner gave Glenwood a tie.

The blue devils also must build more reserves. The game was scouted by Valled with Hollins, Rankin, King Grocock witnessing it. Plattsmouth was well represented and the fans saw the boys in the new pants for the first time.

Plattsmouth scored in the first quarter with 5 1/2 minutes gone. White kicked off after having won the flip and Joe Gradoville recovered a fumble and ran for touchdown but a penalty nullified the run. Glenwood punted short to the 39 where White swung end for 28 yards to the 9 line. Plattsmouth bogged down. Glenwood lost the fumbled ball. Vroman recovered on the Glenwood 13. White scored around end and drove over tackle for the extra point.

Plattsmouth scored again in the 2nd quarter when Vroman who played a great game at end tossed Hayes for a 11 yard loss. A weak punt put the ball on the 49, and White running wild refused to be stopped and finally scored. His try for extra point failed.

In the 3rd quarter Glenwood went to the 1 yard line on a 41 yard pass play, faking a reverse Moore whipped the ball to Fitzpatrick who went down the sideline to the one where Pike drove him out of bound. In three smashes Trimmer scored and smashed center for 7 points. On the following kickoff Brake kicked way down the field, it lit in end zone. Plattsmouth thought it would be a touchback, let the ball roll and Barney Hayes Glenwood co-captain fell on it for a touchdown. On the attempt for extra point the entire Plattsmouth team tossed Kemp. The rest of the game was very close with White trying hard to push one over.

Plattsmouth used only 4 substitutes, Conis, Essert, Beveridge entered the game when starters were injured while Pike saw service at Center.

Novak, Vroman and White stood out for Plattsmouth, while Cox and Brake looked best for Glenwood.

Attend Funeral Service

From Thursday's Daily—
H. A. Schneider, president of the Plattsmouth State bank, was in Omaha this afternoon where he was in attendance at the funeral service of Harold A. Arnsberger, assistant cashier of the First National bank. Mr. Arnsberger was a friend of many years standing of Mr. Schneider, they having enjoyed many banking meetings together in the past.

The funeral is being held at the Crosby-Meyer chapel and the pall bearers include many of the banking friends of Mr. Arnsberger, Byron Dunn, Lincoln. H. A. Schneider, Plattsmouth; Major Carl Ganz, Alvo; Lt. Col. Francis J. McDermott, William B. Hughes, Frederick Liles, Glen Cavanaugh, T. L. Davis, C. D. Saunders, F. W. Thomas and E. F. Jepsen of Omaha.

Elmwood

By Journal Field Representative

Jean Adair Bothwell returned from Bremerton, Wash., to attend school here and finish with her class.

John Creamer of Ogallala, brought his daughter, Ruth, to Lincoln to attend Wesleyan university. He spent Sunday visiting with his mother and sisters in Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hollenbeck and Victor were Sunday dinner guests at the L. H. Hollenbeck home.

Walter Plybon met with an accident Friday afternoon. A cement block fell on his right foot, breaking a toe in two places and bruising the foot considerably, as the x-ray revealed. He is under the doctor's care and is getting along nicely.

The W. S. C. S. met last Friday afternoon in the Methodist church basement. Mrs. Hickman was the honor guest as she contemplates leaving soon. Plans were made to hold a teacher's reception Sept. 21, and a jitney supper Oct. 12.

John Hopkins, residing a few miles east of Elmwood, has sold five corn pickers and could have sold more but could not make deliveries.

Mr. and Mrs. Rikli departed last week for a camp in Colorado where they are visiting with their son Paul Rikli, who is taking radio training in army. Mr. Rikli already has extensive knowledge of radio work. Mr. and Mrs. Rikli enjoyed the trip west very much as they did their visit with their son.

Guy Clement has a brooder for baby chicks improvised in the building next door south of the bank, where they are handy to look after. He is using an abundance of electric lights as the heating medium and the chicks seem to be doing very nicely. Yes, fries about Christmas, as the fowls should be just about ripe by then. The arrangements present a very pleasant scene, and we hope the venture will be a profitable one.

Mrs. George Blessing, sr., who makes her home two miles west of Murdock, is at Salt Lake City, where she went to visit with her son Richard, who is a member of the United States army, having a clerical post at Salt Lake City. Lately Richard was offered a position at Portland, Ore., but as he likes his present job and it will be permanent, he turned down the advancement.

Otto Ring, formerly of Elmwood, and well known here a number of years ago, has been making his home in the north, at Gregory, South Dakota. He was here for a short time last week and speaking with some of his fellows had to say that there was an excellent crop in his country, which had not had a full crop for 10 years. But this year, he says, there was a good crop of small grain, the pastures were fine, and the corn crops will be heavy.

DeLois Turner, who is joining the navy will depart from Elmwood for the Great Lakes Training station on September 23, having passed his two physical examinations heretofore.

Hal Strable departed last Saturday for Norfolk, Va. where he entered the navy and where he will begin his training.

Visiting Here with Brother

Rev. Lane Douglas of Maryville, Mo., a retired Methodist minister, arrived in Elmwood on Tuesday of the past week and is visiting at the home of his brother, Dr. G. G. Douglas. The two brothers are enjoying the visit very much, notwithstanding the fact that Dr. Douglas is and has been in very poor health and can hardly get about.

Still Gets Around

R. M. Dennis, who carries the mail from the post office to the railroad station, with the number of trips he has to make, is kept pretty busy. He is finding it difficult to care for the mail because of a lame leg, which interferes with his getting about. He uses his auto and thus gets the work done. The lameness of late has been improving somewhat.

Purchases Car

Rev. Gerald W. Gardner, pastor of the Elmwood and Murray Christian churches, and who requires a car to travel between the two communities, traded in his old

Death of W. P. Cook

From Saturday's Daily—
The death of William P. Cook, 84, long-time barber, occurred this morning at Havelock, where he has been visiting with his daughter, Mrs. W. D. Glock, and family. Mr. Cook has been in very poor health for the past year and his passing was not unexpected.

He was born in Salem, Iowa, in May, 1858, and has been a resident of Plattsmouth since 1884, and up to a few years ago was active at his trade of barber.

There is surviving two children, Mrs. Glock, and a son, Lynn Cook, of Kansas City, Missouri.

The body will be brought here to the Sattler Funeral home but the funeral arrangements have not been fully decided upon.

A more extended obituary of Mr. Cook will appear later in the Journal.

Reaches Ripe Age

From Friday's Daily—

Mrs. John Libershal, Sr., yesterday observed the passing of her eighty-ninth birthday and despite the great age Mrs. Libershal is quite active and takes a keen interest in the daily happenings. She resides in the old home in the south part of the city and nearby the residences of her sons, Joseph and Frank Libershal. The aged lady maintains her own home and looks after its care as she has done through the years. Born in Austria-Hungary, Mrs. Libershal has made her home here for fifty-nine years.

Mrs. Robert Sedlak received word from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wilson. They are in Culver City, Calif., visiting Mrs. Wilson's brothers, Jasper and Ira Queen. The Wilsons left here some weeks ago on a vacation trip to give Mr. Wilson a chance to recuperate from a recent illness. Previous to their going to California they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wilson in Corpus Christi, Texas where young Wilson is stationed with the navy. Mrs. Sedlak said she did not know when her parents were returning. Her father has obtained employment on the coast. She thinks there is a possibility of their remaining there to live.

Hears from Parents
