Dr. E. J. Tierney, new director of the health units serving Sarpy and Cass counties, is hopeful of occupying the new health unit building by November 1. "Work on the building has been going on at a good pace, and at this time the building is half completed," said the doctor.

The following women met last Wednesday at Mrs. Gregg's to hold a "sewing shower" for Mrs. Will Robinson: Mesdames Earl Clark, Ella Baker, Ruby Homan, W. J. Shallcross, Nelson, J. O. Phelps, Frank Maxie, Frank Vannorman, Collins, Robinson and Gregg.

At the conclusion of the remodeling which is now taking place at the Morrison Grocery, the store will be rendered into a modern self-serving market. The inside is being painted and the old shelving replaced with new low shelving, putting all products in easy vision of the customer. A walk-in meat box at the rear of the store will make it possible for a greater variety of meat to be kept on hand.

Dr. Tierney is a newcomer to Bellevue, having come here October 18 at which time he replaced Dr. L. E. Kling as unit director. The former Kling as unite director. The former director took leave and is at Columbia University in New York. His leaving is not considered a resignation, and at the conclusion of his work at Columbia, he will in all probability return to some public health post.

Up till the time of his appointment the new director was located at the air port in Sioux Falls, S. D. His wife and three children, Patrick, Colleen, and Richard are now residing in Sioux City, Ia. where they will remain until Dr. Tierney finds suitable living quarters here.

Miss Ruth Ranson and Miss Hazel Owen were recently appointed to fill the vacancies left by the resignation of two nurses at the district health unit. Miss Ranson, with headquarters in Bellevue, replaced Mary Henderson who went back to her home in Massachusetts. Miss Owen has her headquarters in Weeping Water. She took them over when nurse Ruth Martin volunteered for army service.

At a defense meeting in Papillion attended by committeemen from surrounding towns, Mayor F. H. Freeman and Lawrence Bear, Bellevue representatives, learning that schooling in defense work will be given at Papillion to various defense officers of these towns.

The school which will last about six weeks will include instruction on first aid, gas protection, protection against sabotage, and fire protection. The number of officers taking this course from any town will depend on the size of that town. A town having a population of a thousand will be able to send six officers, a chief air raid warden, and his assistant, a chief auxiliary firemen and his assistant, and a chief auxiliary policeman and his assistant. The number of officers from any one town will vary according to the population. A town of two thousand will send twice as many officers as the town of one thousand. Officers in Bellevue will be subject to appointment by the mayor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pfeiffer were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when they received a long distance telephone call from their son, Coxswain Richard Pfeiffer, who is stationed at Oakland, California. Richard was celebrating his 22nd birthday. The Pfeiffers have another son, Pvt. William Price, who is stationed at Camp Barkley, Texas, and who has been confined to the camp hospital for the past two weeks.

At the meeting it developed that a new procedure would be followed relative to the scrap drive which began last Monday and will last until October 15. Mr. Bear, who served as committeeman in the previous scrap drive, attended in place of city chairman Joe Betz who was unable to be there. Under the new plan the AAA will send its representatives to all farms to inquire about scrap. These representatives will help the farmer dig up the scrap and then report their findings to proper authorities for later pick-up.

The Sarpy county Red Cross chapter will open its first surgical dressing room next Wednesday, October 7, in Bellevue at Lowry hall at the NYA school. Instructors will be on hand at 1:30 and it is hoped that many women will take the time to aid in preparing these dressings. A clean, light colored or white housedress is all you need to bring.

The national Red Cross has asked that every woman give at least 4 hours every week for the next 16 months to the making of surgical dressings. In fact, they say it will be necessary if the boys on the battlefields are to have adequate care.

Counties To Contest

LINCOLN, Sept. 26 (UP)—Twenty-four Nebraska counties bearing the same names as counties in Kansas today were asked to challenge their Kansas namesakes in a private on the side contest in the "Corn-Hawk" scrap collection drive, Gov. Griswold announced today.

The contest was suggested by Nemaha county chairman Ben Moore of Auburn. It will be staged on a per capita basis with Nebraska chairmen challenging the Kansans.

The governor, meanwhile, announced that the War Production Board has made good its threat to prosecute hoarders of scrap by asking for bids on 100 tons of metal hoarded in an unnamed locality. The WPB cannot confiscate the scrap but must acquire it by "process of law."

"This is the first use of its kind in Nebraska," the governor said.

Revolver Brings Death

OMAHA, Sept. 29 (UP)—Tommy Chamberlain, eight-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chamberlain, was killed yesterday by a shot from a .38 caliber revolver with which his brother, William, 4, had been playing.

Mrs. Chamberlain, working in the basement, heard the shot in an upstairs room where the two lads were playing. She rushed up the stairs and was met by William who cried, "I didn't mean to do it, Mommy. I didn't mean to do it."

The mother found Tommy in the bedroom. He was wounded, and the smoke from the discharged cartridge filled the air. Nearby was the pistol, an antique belonging to the elder Chamberlain—a gift from his great-grandfather.

Tiny Tommy was taken to a hospital for an emergency operation, but did not recover. Aside from the parents and William, two sisters survive.

First Japs At Scottsbluff

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb., Sept. 30 (UP)—The first Japanese evacuee laborers are at work today in Morrill and Scotts Bluff county potato fields. The evacuees—189 of them—arrived by train yesterday and farmers immediately hurried them to their fields.

The workers were brought in primarily to help with the sugar beet harvest which begins next month but were welcomed now in the potato fields. All the Japanese are volunteers who expressed willingness to fill jobs indicated by farmers' applications to the War Relocation board.

The evacuees are either from or en route to the relocation center in Arkansas. It is expected that many more will stop off in western Nebraska to aid with the farm work.

Meanwhile, high school students were filling most of the demands for potato pickers as the harvest reaches its peak. Most Scottsbluffs schools closed Monday for one or two weeks, and 300 boys and girls were at work in the fields yesterday.

in WAR or in peace we must protect their PRECIOUS EYES!

Don't take your family's eyesight for granted. Mother! Nothing of your children's is more precious than their good eyes—nothing so greatly deserves protection in time of war or in time of peace. Eyes can be protected in wartime . . . and easily.

Simple Ways to Avoid Wasting Light and Help Your Eyesight, Too!

1. KEEP LAMP BULBS and BOWLS CLEAN . . . dust-free. Wipe them frequently with a damp cloth and you'll get a lot more light from present lamps, to make seeing easier and to protect eyes from strain.
2. IF LAMP SHADES ARE DARK—or turned yellow inside, you may be losing as much as 50% of the light! Clean or brush shades regularly—or if they're too bad, replace with fresh ones.
3. TURN OFF LIGHTS WHEN YOU DON'T NEED THEM . . . electricity and eyesight are both vital today. Conserve them! Be sure you have enough light when you read, sew or study; but don't leave unnecessary lights burning.
4. Reddy, your electrical servant, is at your beck and call to guard against eyestrain. "Please remember," Reddy urges, "school days are here. Let's watch that study lighting—let's protect those precious eyes!"

Reddy Kilowatt is on Guard . . .
