Weeping Water

P. F. C. Gustave Neumeister, 130 Infantry, Co. A. was visiting in Weeping Water Saturday evening. Mr. Neumeister is on a fifteen days furlough, from Ventura, Cal., where he has been stationed. He is visiting his parents, the Fred Neumeisters, at Avoca.

Mrs. Lyle Flemming was quite ill with the Flu last week.

Mrs. Wm. Finley is visiting her husband, Wm. Finley, who is an apprentice seaman at the Great Lakes Training School. Mrs. Finley will make her home at Waukegan, Illinois, for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Stock, and family, are moving to Valparaiso, today so that Mr. Stock will be closer to his work at the Meade Plant.

The Don Rathburn family moved to Omaha last week so as to be closer to his work.

Honoring Mrs. Ratburn as her guest Mrs. Willis Lorenson entertained Tuesday afternoon, at her home, and on Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Russell Root, Mrs. Walter Lühring and Mrs. Wilson Bickford were hostesses at a party for fifteen ladies, honoring Mrs. Forest Stock. Fifteen guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bickford and family, were in town Saturday evening, enroute to Lincoln, where they have decided to make their home. They had been to Avoca, Iowa, packing their household goods, which were going through by truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Houseman (Betty Wolcott) have decided to make their home at Fremont. Mrs. Houseman left Saturday for her new home. Mr. Houseman is employed at the Meade Plant.

The first meeting of the season for the Knickerbockers, one of the oldest women's card clubs in the community, was held Wednesday evening with Mrs. Joan Carter at the Laurel Hotel. This club has twelve members.

Jack Munkres, who is attending the University of Nebraska, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. E. E. Moore informs us that their son, Ermond, is still at Treasure Island, taking his second course in radio work.

The Weeping Water Ladies Welfare Club had an all day meeting Monday in the basement of the Congregational Church, with a covered dish Luncheon at noon when nineteen enjoyed a Luncheon together and several ladies came in to work during the afternoon. It was the annual comfort tying day, and everyone was busy sewing or tying comforters. Mrs. Minnie Lane presided at the business meeting, when the decision was made to sew for the Red Cross during this winter, or as long as needed.

A large group of friends of Dr. A. C. Petersen and Dr. L. N. Kunkel, as we always think of them; Captain Petersen and Captain Kunkel as they are now known, and of Corporal Herman Ludwig, who was also at home on a furlough, gave a dance at the auditorium in their honor, Friday evening, when all had a visit and enjoyed the reunion. Dr. Petersen left the next day for a visit with his parents in Tyler, Minnesota, and Dr. Kunkel left Tuesday of this week for the western coast.

Mrs. Bert Philpot returned Saturday evening from Hollywood, California, where she went with her daughter, Mrs. Grow, who expects to make her home in the west.

Mrs. G. R. Binger spent the past week at Wilbur visiting a friend, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Spillman, of El Monte, California, with their two children, Shirley and Barbara Ann, arrived Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Spillman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Tuck.

Miss Agnes Rough spent Sunday in Lincoln visiting her sister.

Charles Critzer, of Pocatiello, Idaho, is here visiting his son, Harry Critzer.

Julius Neilsen, who has been working at the Martin Bomber plant, as a carpenter, has been transferred to Pearl Harbor. He expects to leave tomorrow, (Friday) for the west. Mrs. Nielsen and daughter will remain in Weeping Water for the present. He will be a ship fitter and carpenter at Pearl Harbor.

The Merton Norris's (Doris Wolcott) have taken an apartment in Omaha for this winter.

Reginald Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jorgensen, was taken quite ill a week ago, and does not seem to respond to treatment as rapidly as had been hoped. He was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital Wednesday, for observation and treatment.

As Miss Margaret Ranney and Patty LaRue have birthdays on the same day, October the first, they celebrated this with a dinner together at the Ranney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gussett expect to move to Lincoln the latter part of this week. Mr. Gussett has employment which keeps him in Lincoln all of the time, so they have rented an apartment there. Saturday, Mrs. Fred Gorder entertained Mrs. Gussett, Mrs. J. M. Ranney, and her house guest, Mrs. Minnie Hill, of California, at dinner.

Cass County Bankers Association met Friday evening in Weeping Water, with a dinner at the Laurel Hotel. Guy Clemmons, of Elmwood, presiding. The evening was spent with an informal roundtable discussion of banking problems, and Charles Boedeker, of Murry, was elected as president for the coming year.

Charlotte Stacey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stacey, celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday, by inviting eight of her small friends in to spend the afternoon, with her. From far off Minnesota from an aunt, came a gift of all table decorations, with cloth and streamers from the central chandelier, of azure, blue and pink crepe paper, favors of tiny flower pots of crepe paper, filled with candy, place cards with Chinese decorations, birthday cake and small cakes, paper plates and napkins to match in color. Home made ice cream and cake were served and the afternoon was spent playing indoor games. It was a happy birthday for Charlotte, Joan Myers, Joan Berthold, Patricia LaRue, Mary Domingo, Shirley Bill, Carol Jean Ambler, Willa Waldo, Dorothy Kunkel, Janet Christensen, Susan Hobson and Patty Ann Berthold were the invited guests. Mrs. Stacey was assisted by Miss Margaret Ranney in entertaining the young guests.

Simon Henrik Rehmeier Simon Henrik Rehmeier, 55, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Rehmeier, was born October 26, 1886, in the village of Sall, in Jutland, Denmark, and came to America in the year, 1908. He spent several years near or in Avoca.

March the third, 1911, he was united in marriage to Miss Ane Marie Henriksen, who also had come from her home in Denmark. They moved to Alvo in September, 1922, and have lived there continuously since that time. He was baptized and confirmed in the Lutheran Church, later uniting with the M. E. Church, of Alvo. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and of the I. O. O. F. Lodge at Elmwood, and was active in all civic affairs of Alvo. He was prominent politically, in Cass county, having been county democratic chairman during the past two years, and was a familiar figure at all public gatherings of the county where his wise council, and dignified bearing, will be greatly missed during the years to come. He had been ill for several weeks, and was at Mayo Brothers, at Rochester, Minn., for a few weeks, came home and remained there for a few days then was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital, where he remained until three days before his death, when he wished to return to his own home. His was a courageous fight with cancer, from which he knew that there was no hope, but he kept his interest in life, and passed away, at his home in Alvo, Nebraska, September 28, 1942, at the age 55 years, 10 months and 28 days, with his loved ones with him. He leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, a foster daughter, Mrs. Sterling Coatman, and two sons, Fred and Frank; one brother, Fred Rehmeier of Weeping Water, two sisters, Mrs. Adolf Mogensen, of Omaha, and Mrs. Frank Taylor, of Alvo, several nephews, nieces and cousins, and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, September 30, at the Alvo M. E. Church, with six of his business associates as pall bearers. He was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, at Weeping Water, where his parents were laid to rest several years ago. The Masonic Lodge was in charge of services at the grave. Hobson's Funeral Home had charge of all arrangements.

FIRST AID CLASSES START MONDAY Monday evening, Oct. 12 the classes will be organized for the Standard course of instruction in First Aid at the school houses at Alvo, Eagle, and Elmwood. Weeping Water instructors will teach these classes.

All adults and the Juniors and Seniors of High School may take this course.

This is a very interesting and valuable course and it is urged by our government that civilians take this instruction. If interested contact your local chairman of Red Cross for information.

Baby Beef and Rope Club The Four Mile 4-H Baby Beef and Rope club held their last meeting for the year at the home of Gene Nolting. All were present and guests included the members of the families. New business consisted of sending in our final reports and obtaining club charters.

After the meeting was adjourned very delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Betty Halmes, Scribe.

Knaup-Herr

On Sunday, Oct. 4 at 2:30 o'clock occurred the marriage of Miss Opal Knaup, of Humboldt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knaup of Murdock to Elmer E. Herr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herr of Humboldt.

Rev. L. V. Hassell and Dr. Harlan Heim read the double ring ceremony at the Humboldt Methodist church before a back ground of flowers and ferns, lit with two seven branch candlebra.

Misses Betty and Donna Heim, dressed in long pink dresses lit the candles. Miss Mildred Volker and Miss Irene Christensen, also dressed in long pink dresses, ushered. Dr. A. Stoppenbeck sang "O Promise Me" and the Misses Nelloma and Opal Herr, sisters of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly".

Miss Anna Louise Knaup, sister of the bride, was bride's maid. She wore a blue taffeta dress with a long skirt and wore a corsage of pink roses. Melvin Herr, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, wore a white satin gown with a train, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

At the reception in the church basement which followed Mrs. Heim had charge of the serving. Mrs. Earl Hanks, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Beck had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Adah James had the guest book.

Mrs. Herr is a graduate of Murdock High School, and of the Covenant Hospital in Omaha. She is a registered nurse, and has been superintendent of the Humboldt Hospital for some time.

Mr. Herr is a successful farmer in that vicinity.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home in Humboldt.

Has Birthday Party

Mrs. Harry Nielsen recently held a party in honor of the fifth birthday of her daughter, Ella Mary Nielsen. Twelve of the young lady's friends attended and spent the time playing games. Merle Dean Melsing received the award for her high score made during game time. Lunch consisting of ice cream, cakes and cocoa was served to the guests.

Guests at Hayes Home

Dr. and Mrs. George E. Sayles of Fort Dodge, Iowa, visited here over the week end with relatives. On their way home, they stopped at Ames, Ia., to bring Mrs. Sayles brother, Robert Hayes, and Miss Loretta Sweet of Elyria, Ohio, a student in the home economics college at Ames, to spend the weekend at the home of Mayor and Mrs. R. B. Hayes. They returned Sunday evening.

LEGAL NOTICE AS TO CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 3, 1942

Pursuant to the provisions of Legislative Bill No. 191, Fifty-fifth Session Nebraska State Legislature 1941, there will be submitted to the voters at the general election to be held on November 3, 1942, for their approval or rejection, the following proposed amendment:

"Section I. That Sec. 4, Article IX, Constitution of Nebraska, be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 4. The legislature shall provide by law for the election of such county and township officers as may be necessary: Provided, however, the legislature may provide by law for a form of county government in which county officers may be elected or appointed, but such form shall be optional with each county and shall obtain in any county only upon the adoption thereof by the electors of such county."

Sec. 2. The foregoing proposed amendment, if adopted, shall be in force and effect on and after the first Thursday after the first Tuesday in January, 1943; and it may be made an additional section in Article XVII of the constitution of Nebraska.

FRANK MARSH, Secretary of State.
