Dr. Walter Judd Indicts Conduct Of Pacific War

Americans Caught in the Solomons Because of Stupidity of the High Command

Omaha, Oct. 30.—(UP)—A former Omaha medical missionary to China, Dr. Walter R. Judd, said here tonight that "American fighting men are caught like a rat in a trap in the Solomons because of stupidity on the part of the high command."

Dr. Judd, a republican candidate for congress in Minnesota, spoke before a second district teacher convention.

"I'm bitter about this because people are dying out there," he continued. "We went into the Solomons and for two months we sat there doing nothing because we didn't think the Japanese would try to take it back," he stated. "Well they did try to take it back."

"And there are going to be many more massacres of American fighting men before the army and the navy use up all the plans they have had for years on how to fight Japan and begin fighting today's war with today's methods."

Dr. Judd, who left China after 15 years when the Japanese made his work impossible bitterly assailed the military command.

In conclusion he said "Thank God for the cry of Wendell Willkie. It is another voice crying in the wilderness. He may not have done very much for the republican party, but he does see that the path America has been following is the path of doom."

Bowling Bits

To the top of the list of eligibles in the 200 Club this week of league bowling goes Johnnie Conis with 213.

Why don't more of you townspeople come out and root for your team? If you haven't a team come down and give the players a good hand and encourage them along. All competitive sports like encouragement.

On Tuesday evening when the Teachers were bowling Kent Oil there were several of the fair sex of the faculty present to root for the teachers. It really helped Supt. Devoe with their lusty applause for his strikes. He rolled the best game he has bowled so far this year. Come visit us again, girls.

In addition to the "200 Club" how about you fellows trying to get into the "500 Club"? Know what I mean? This club would be the fellows who bowl 500 or more in an evening of league bowling. So far there are only 5 fellows in the club and only one—V. McNair—can be considered since he has played in 75 percent or more of the games since league started. He has 531 which he rolled this week.

The Kent Oilers got another "hot" streak this week and bettered their own high team score. They had 825 and now have 845.

The team standings for this week are as follows:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
1. Conoco	16	2	.889
2. Kent Oilers	15	3	.833
3. Teachers	14	4	.778
4. Public Utility	12	6	.667
5. Rob-See-Co	9	9	.500
Pioneers	9	9	.500
Timms	9	9	.500
Medders	9	9	.500
Rogers Lockers	9	9	.500
6. Woster Shoe	6	12	.333

Heads Regional Guild

Mrs. Ernest Schuback has accepted the chairmanship of the Girls Guild for the Omaha regional and has taken a great responsibility in her acceptance of this office. She received a letter from the synodical president with headquarters in Cleveland appointing her to this position and sending her best wishes and thanks for taking over this work. The Girls Guild is an organization for girls in the Evangelical and Deformed church for the purpose of giving religious training and leadership to the young ladies of the church. There is an active organization of the guild in St. Paul's church.

Golden Wedding Of Mr. And Mrs. John Rutherford

Well known Residents of the City Honored Guests At A Family Dinner Party

Fifty years ago on October 26, 1892, Miss Anna Baumeister and John Rutherford were married in this city. The Rev. John T. Baird, pastor of the First Presbyterian church performing the marriage service.

On Monday the Golden Wedding anniversary of this most estimable couple was observed at the country home of their son David Rutherford west of the city. The members of the family present to participate in the anniversary dinner comprised Mr. and Mrs. John Rutherford, the honored guests, Charles C. Rutherford, of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rutherford, Mrs. Josephine Cecil, Mrs. Fred Geis, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Millon, John W. Elliott and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. David Rutherford.

During all of the half century of wedded life Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford have resided near Plattsmouth and been a part of the citizenry of the community where their friends are legion. To them on this happy occasion will go the well wishes of all those who have the privilege of knowing them and the wish for many more anniversaries.

Teachers Attend Convention

The district meetings of the Nebraska State teachers association opens their sessions today at the various points over the state, the local teachers attending the district No. 2 meeting at the Tech high at Omaha.

Superintendent L. S. Devoe and the city teachers are to have a two day vacation for the purpose of attending the meetings and hearing the very fine program arranged in the interest of the teachers of the state.

In the Friday session County Superintendent Lora Lloyd Kieck will have charge of the rural and elementary divisions at the Joslyn Memorial. Dr. Leroy Lasse, of the dramatic and speech department of the University of Nebraska will be one of the main features on "The Development and Correction of Speech in Elementary Schools".

The teachers will also get firsthand advice on the why and wherefore of gasoline rationing, when Kenneth Donahoe of the office of price administration addresses the group.
