

Weeping Water

Mrs. Mary Blaikie returned home Thursday from Alamosa, Colorado, where she has spent the past four months.

Mrs. Lauren Mickle and son, Wayne, of Denton, were visiting Mrs. Mickle's sister, Mrs. E. M. Ruby from Wednesday until Sunday afternoon.

Visitors at the Elmer A. Michelson home Sunday were his brother, Henry Michelson, of Omaha, and his daughter, Mrs. James Thomas, of Corpus Christi, Texas, and Mrs. Anna Fredrickson, of Bremerton, Washington.

F. A. Zessin left Thursday for Ft. Morgan, Colorado, where he expects to remain for several weeks, and possibly all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibson were at Crete Wednesday attending the funeral services of Mrs. Charles Finley.

Mrs. Ellen Johnson left last week for Friend to visit a few days before leaving for California, where she goes to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, and to take her small grandson, Robert Moore to his parents. He has been here with his grandmother since his parents went to California.

Word has been received here by relatives that Mrs. Emma Simmons, aunt of Herman Rauth, who visited at the Rauth home early this fall, is very ill at an Iowa Falls hospital. She was taken ill while visiting her sister at Iowa Falls, and was expecting to go on to California for the winter.

Mrs. Lena Koester returned home Tuesday evening from Idaho Falls, Idaho, where she spent the past six weeks at the home of her son, Fred and family.

Word received here last week from Mrs. Frank Wood, at York, says that she tried to stand on crutches for the first time a week ago Sunday which was her birthday.

Mrs. Wood has had a long siege of illness since her fall sometime ago, having been confined to her bed for several weeks. If the senders of the letters, cards, flowers and gifts, which have arrived to cheer her weeks of invalidism could only know what these remembrances have meant to her it would make them as happy as they are. She writes that 250 get well cards and 190 letters have arrived to cheer her and that seventy-two birthday cards arrived from her Cass County friends, and we assure Mrs. Woods that many more would have arrived had more known that it was her birthday.

The "Pathfinders" of the Congregational Church, entertained the members of the junior department of the Sunday School at a hallowe'en party, Friday afternoon in the church dining room. Mrs. John L. Kemp is superintendent of the junior department of the Sunday School and Gertrude Olive is president of the Pathfinders.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Paul Fauquet entertained twenty children at a Hallowe'en party for her two children, Joyce and Larry. The children all wore masks and were dressed to represent characters who are favorites of the juvenile world. The afternoon was spent playing games suitable to the day and all enjoyed a fine time, which will not soon be forgotten by all who attended. The small host and hostess were dressed as twin clowns, in yellow and black.

Friday evening the O. E. S. Kensington gave their annual benefit party at the Auditorium basement, with an attendance of about one hundred who had their choice of playing contract bridge, pinochle or Chinese checkers and enjoyed an evening of visiting also. Among the guests were several of the candidates for this year's election, who took this opportunity to become better acquainted with people of the Weeping Water community. Sandwiches, cookies, pickles and coffee were served in the evening.

Miss Helen Gorder came from Grand Island Saturday evening and remained until Sunday evening when she returned home, taking her mother, Mrs. Fred Gorder home with her for a month's visit.

Mrs. Jess Bohlander, of Metamora, Illinois, and her daughter, Mrs. Dan Trombler, of Omaha, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ranney. Mr. Bohlander is a brother of Mrs. J. M. Ranney, who was also a visitor at the Floyd Ranney home Sunday.

We were invited to accompany Mrs. Ole Olsen and her daughter Miss Pauline to Lincoln Monday, we met several of our friends. Entering the elevator at one of the stores we had time to say a "good morning" to Mrs. Bess Streeter Aldrich, who was standing near us. A little later we met L. R. Snipes on the elevator and we had time for another hurried "Good morning". At noon we took lunch at Miller and Paines and at the table next to us was a birthday luncheon in progress honoring a former Weeping Water woman, Mrs. Seward Day, who had been invited to meet her aunt, Mrs. Tom Allen, there for lunch, and was very much surprised to find several guests ready to greet her. Looking to my left I saw Mrs. Ralph Keckler and her sister, Mrs. Green, of Elmwood at a table, and at my right was Miss Frances Sheldon, daughter of our former lumber dealer George Sheldon. As we left the lunch room we were hailed by Mrs. Rita Wahl, who tells us that Mr. Wahl, a former teacher in our schools, is now an instructor at the Lincoln Airfield, and that she is employed at the First National Bank. Later in the afternoon we met Mrs. Frank Warner, whose husband was in the hardware business in Weeping Water at one time. Mrs. Warner still has to depend on her cane in walking as the result of a broken hip a few years ago.

A letter from Mrs. Floyd Bennett (Mary Hungate) from Patton, California, where she has been in a hospital, for some time, gave the good news that she was leaving for her home at San Diego last week. She also told us that her father, Dr. James B. Hungate, was eighty-six years old on November the fourth.

Mr. Ole Olsen went to Grand Island Sunday afternoon to attend to some business with the Crystal Sugar Company. He returned home Monday afternoon.

Miss Mary Allen and Miss Doris Marshall, both students at the University of Nebraska, spent the weekend at home.

Mrs. Anna Norris, Mrs. Carl Tefft, Mrs. John Norris and Mrs. Ray Norris were in Omaha Monday, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McClain.

Mrs. Merton Norris and daughter Linda, of Omaha, spent three days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Wolcott.

Mrs. James McNamee, who is spending the winter with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rughe, was in town and visited her good friend, Miss Lina Lineback, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Art Berthold and daughter Joan, and Mrs. Thomas Stacey, were Nebraska City visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Day will leave Saturday for Bradenton, California, where they will spend the winter. They will not take their car this winter but will accompany friends from Torrington, Wyoming, who are going there for the winter.

E. E. Day celebrated his ninety-second birthday Tuesday by going to the polls to vote and he and his wife were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson for a birthday dinner.

Mrs. Earl Oldham returned home Friday from York where she attended the state convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and was one of the delegates who gave reports of the national convention held at Birmingham, Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Baker are the proud grandparents of a new grandson born October 30, to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hanson, of Wabasha, Minnesota. The babe weighed seven and a half pounds.

J. I. Corley returned home the latter part of last week from Bryan Memorial Hospital, and is rapidly regaining his strength. This will be good news to all of his friends.

Mrs. Harold Harmon, who underwent an appendectomy two weeks ago, is still at Bryan Memorial.

The good women of this community are taking their part in the work around the home in many new ways this year. It is almost impossible to secure any one to do extra work, so they are reaching out into new fields of endeavor. The most novel experience which we, so far, have heard is that one of our most prominent women is taking charge of the insulation of her home. Having tried all fall to get some one to do the work she, decided that she could climb into the attic, and assisted by two young boys, direct the work and assist until her home is made more inaccessible to the winter winds by the use of insulating material. Other women in this community are husking corn, unloading corn, getting in the potatoes for the winter, and other such jobs, which have always been left for the men to do, and they are cheerful and uncomplaining about every task. The work must be done and they are glad to do their share.

Weeping Water Woman's Club held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben Olive, with Mrs. John Norris presiding, and Mrs. Owen Welch, secretary. This was the annual musical program, which was preceded by devotionals led by Mrs. Frank Snow after which Mrs. Thomas Murty and Mrs. Homer Jameson gave brief reviews of Reader's Digest articles about Japan and Russia. The high school boys sextette then presented some musical numbers and Mrs. Carl Day opened a patriotic musical program by presenting the version of our national hymn, in a lower key, which all joined in singing, she also gave rules for time and place for singing the hymn. From that she led on to the musical story of the "Magician", a story of the First World War, which she illustrated by musical numbers popular at that time. Martha Wallick closed the program by playing the piano number, "Valse Caprice".

The Jolly Homemaker's Extension Club members had a special meeting Tuesday afternoon honoring two of their former members, who are here visiting from Buffalo, New York, Mrs. Cecil Nichols and Mrs. Frank Nichols. U. S. O. games were played and a handkerchief shower for the guests of honor, was a feature of the afternoon. The party was held at the home of Mrs. St. Brandt.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Brandt visited Mr. Brandt's mother, at Elmwood, Sunday, and from there they went to Unadilla to visit the Rhoden family.

Miss Fannie Easterday left Wednesday for Bradenton, Florida, where she will spend the winter.

Visitors at the Chas. Gibson home Sunday were their daughters, Mrs. Jack Hayes, of Omaha, and Mrs. Harley Thurlund and daughter Marsha, Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michelson went to Omaha, Sunday to attend the wedding of Mr. Michelson's brother, Henry Michelson to Miss Anna Fredrickson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ruby, of Nebraska City, visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper Sunday evening. Other dinner guests at the Cooper home were Mrs. Lauren Mickle and son, and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ruby.

Miss Mayme Michelson went to Greenwood Saturday evening and remained over Sunday, when she was bridesmaid at the wedding of her former roommate at the University of Nebraska, Miss Virginia Meisinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Meisinger, to Joseph T. Leesley, at the Greenwood M. E. Church, Sunday evening.

Cadet Russell VanEvery leaves Sunday for Santa Ana, California, and this week has been a busy week for him with a dinner given by his parents at their home Tuesday evening, in his honor, when the guests Miss Mayme Michelson, Miss Patty Stark, of Elmwood, Mrs. Joan Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Colbert, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Heneger, Mrs. Leonard Doty and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Colbert, Wm. Otte and son Harold, and Parker Otte.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. VanEvery and Miss Lora McDonald, of Lincoln, were guests at the Wm. VanEvery home, Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Michelson entertained at a dinner in his honor when the guests were Mr. and Mrs. of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Christensen of Louisville, Russell VanEvery and Miss Mayme Michelson, whose engagement is being announced this week.

Funeral of Mrs. Tilson

The funeral services for the late Mrs. Charles Tilson were held at the Murray Christian church on Thursday, October 29th, coming as the result of a heart attack at 7 o'clock in the morning and at the age of eighty-five years.

Rev. Clifford Snyder, pastor of the Plattsmouth Christian church, conducted the services and brought the comforting message to the bereaved family. During the services, Mrs. Snyder and Miss Betty Reed gave two of the favorite hymns of the departed, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "God Be With You Till We Meet Again".

Mrs. Tilson was a native of Virginia, born at Seven Mile Ford, on September 5, 1857, and has been a resident of the Murray community for some years.

There is surviving four children, Mrs. John Durmore, Syracuse, James Tilson, Garland Tilson and Thomas Tilson of Murray.

The pall bearers at the funeral service comprised: Glen Valley, Charles Valley, Owen Willis, William Minford, Carl Warlick, Arthur Bruce.

No Comfort For Enemies

NEW YORK, November 4. (UP)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today that "Our enemies can get no comfort from this election."

"The platform of every single candidate, republican, democratic and labor, was vigorous, efficient prosecution of the war," he said. "There was a strong element of protest in the vote but it was the protest of insistence upon more effective organization of the war. And that can be no comfort for the enemy."

G. O. P. House Gains

New York, November 4. (UP) Republicans, riding a crest of strength in the northeast and middle west, have pared democratic control of the house to the lowest point since President Roosevelt took office, returns from Tuesday's election indicated today.

Tabulations showed that republicans have made a net gain in the house of 27 seats and were leading in enough more to give them a possible net gain of 40ff They would need 53 new seats to gain control of the house. In a half dozen other districts the contests were so close that the republican strength might be swelled further.

Republicans today had picked up 39 seats and lost three. Democrats had elected 192 representatives; republicans 167; progressives 2; and the American Labor party. 1. Seventy three contests were as yet undecided.

Poultry Care

With winter coming on and your government asking for more egg production, now is the time to house your flock in warm quarters.

Have them culled now, and checked for diseases and lice. at least 75 to 90 percent of poultry are infected with some of the following, such as worms, coccidia, lice and mites. These four things will cause your flock to lose weight, egg production, and make them easy prey for all sort of infectious diseases. Call on the Otis Hatchery to call cull and inspect your flocks, and have them put in top shape for late fall and winter egg production.

Mr. Cook has made a study of poultry diseases, and will work with you on your poultry problems.

We carry the well known line of Purina feed at all times.
