Mrs. Herbert Ambler returned last week from Clarkson Hospital, in Omaha, where she underwent an appendectomy. Her mother, Mrs. J. N. Richison, of Texas, is here caring for her. On Thursday, Mrs. Ambler was taken back to the hospital as her condition was not satisfactory.

John Compton has recently been transferred from Ft. McLehlan, Alabama, to Ft. Custer, Michigan. He is with the military police in the U. S. Army.

Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Lenker entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Eaker and son, Robert, Jr., second mate in the U. S. Navy, at dinner Thursday evening.

Corporal Oscar Torgerson, of the Lincoln air base, spent Friday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. C. O. Herman and Dr. Herman.

Mrs. Richard Keckler was hostess to the Christmas meeting of the 500 Club, at her home Thursday afternoon, when there was a gift exchange, and an afternoon of visiting and enjoying their usual game of 500.

The Davis building, formerly occupied by the Hayes Pastry Shop, is being remodeled and made ready for use by the Federal Farm Loan Association, as an office, when it is moved here January 1st.

James McKay, son of Merle McKay, returned to Weeping Water, from California, recently, expecting to enlist in the Navy. As all enlistments are closed he has returned to his defense job at Vallejo, Calif.

Mrs. S. Ray Smith left Friday for Hardin, Montana, for a two week visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Swindle, and family.

Mrs. William Finley left Sunday for Bethesda, Maryland, to spend Christmas with her husband, who is stationed at the National Naval Medical Center. From there she will go to Philadelphia to visit relatives before starting work with the FBI in Washington, D. C., January 1st.

The farm sale held at the home of the late Wm. Stubbendick, Thursday afternoon had a record breaking attendance, and prices were far beyond their highest expectations. One team of horses sold for $350 and four cows brought $500. In the household equipment, a Maytag Washer, which was bought second hand a few years ago, for a small price, brought $76, at the sale. The Dorcas Society of the Christian Church served lunches at the sale and were sold out completely, long before the sale was over, although they sent hurried messengers into town for more supplies. From all reports the sale was satisfactory in every way.

There was a family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Gibson last Sunday, when they entertained Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibson; Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Gibson; Mr. and Mrs. Harley Thurston, and daughter Marcia, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bassett, and family, Unadilla; and Charles Dwinell, of Erickson, Nebraska.

Way out in sunny California Mr. and Mrs. George Hitchman, former Weeping Water residents, will celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary, December 27, at their home at Santa Cruz. They were married at Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania, in 1882. Mrs. Oscar Domingo is the only member of the family who still lives at Weeping Water. Their many friends in this community send greetings and best wishes.

No Name Club, the congenial group of women from Weeping Water and from Manley, who have met together for a number of years, twice monthly, for a social afternoon, had their annual Christmas party, Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Knud Jensen. The afternoon was spent visiting and an exchange of gifts was enjoyed, each one had been thoughtfully chosen for a friend. Mrs. Jensen served a delicious lunch during the afternoon.

At the Edward Lorenson home Thursday there was another of those groups, whose friendship has lasted through the years, the Cheer-A-Bit Club, as it is known. Although without officers, or regular time for meetings, they have met together for about seven years, whenever the spirit moves. Perhaps it is that informality which is so thoroughly enjoyed by the members. A covered dish dinner of fried chicken, scalloped potatoes, cranberry salad, string beans, peach pickles, beet pickles, hot rolls, Christmas pudding and coffee was served after which the afternoon was spent with games under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Ranney. Those present were Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Miss Esther Tefft, Mrs. Fred Gorder, Mrs. John Domingo, Mrs. Leslie Wiles, Mrs. Homer Janssen, Mrs. Harold Harmon, Mrs. J. M. Ranney, Miss Margaret Ranney, Mrs. Clarence E. Pool, Mrs. John L. Kemp, Mrs. W. D. Lenker, Mrs. Ole Olsen, Mrs. Ed Lorenson and Mrs. Thomas Murtey. Two members, Mrs. Henry Snell and Mrs. Alvin Groesser, were unable to attend. Mrs. Smoots, of Fallsdale, was an out-of-town visitor.

While Saturday afternoon was chosen by the Business Men's Luncheon Club as the day to entertain the youth of our town at a Christmas party at the Chief Theater, Sunday evening was chosen by the M. E. Church Youth Fellowship organization, under the leadership of Mrs. Earle Greene, to entertain the guests at Hotel Rest Haven. At present there are seventeen boarders in this home for older people, and at seven o'clock Sunday evening they had their own Christmas party, with treats, Christmas carols, and a special program. It was an evening which will long be remembered by the Hotel Rest Haven guests.

Wins High Honors

Margie Ruth Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hall A. Pollard of Nebawka was one of the outstanding students at the University of Nebraska college of Agriculture receiving special recognition at the annual honors day convocation.

The ten high men and ten high women in the sophomore, junior and senior classes were honored for scholarship.

Miss Pollard was one of the ten high sophomore women honored. Climaxing the honors convocation was a speech given by G. W. Rosenlof on "Scholarship and Leadership, and their effect on the world in general."

Campfire Party

Mothers and friends and anyone who had taken an active part in campfire activities were guests at a party at the E. H. Bernhardt home last night. Refreshments were furnished and served by the joint membership of the Sunowa and Netah campfire groups.

Among the guests who enjoyed the program planned by the girls were Dr. H. G. McClusky and J. R. Reeder, members of the committee of awards. The girls entertained their guests with a number of Christmas carols.

A decision was made to bring Christmas cheer to two needy families, and each campfire group will provide a family with food and gifts. Each group will also go about the city singing Christmas carols to shut-ins.

PRAISE LORD FOR VICTORY

Cairo, Dec. 23 (UP)—General Sir Bernard L. Montgomery called upon his valiant British Eighth Army today to give thanks to God for its victory over the axis forces now in headlong flight through Tripolitania, toward the Tunisian border. "It is wonderful what has been achieved since Oct. 23rd, when we started the battle of Egypt," Montgomery said in a special message to his troops.

Meanwhile at New Delhi, Lieutenant General Joseph W. Stillwell Commander of the United States forces in India, Burma and China, sent Christmas greetings today to all officers and men under his command, expressing the hope that "next year you will all be back where Christmas can really be merry."

Mrs. Lem McGinnis was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening, when a group of friends came to surprise her on her birthday. Pinocle was enjoyed by all. Prize winners were Loren Vogel, Esther Kupke, Mrs. Hugh Vargas.

Lunch was served at a late hour.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Baker, 2016 Forest Park boulevard, Fort Wayne, Indiana announced the betrothal of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to Midshipman John Benton Livingston, son of Mrs. Lillian Livingston, of Plattsmouth, Nebraska. Miss Baker who attends Trinity college in Washington, D. C. has arrived home for her holiday vacation and will be honored Sunday at a tea that Mrs. Baker is giving and at which formal announcement of the betrothal will be made.

Miss Baker's fiance is here too, for a holiday visit and with his classmates Midshipmen J. J. Crowder, James Richardson, Thomas Hefferson and William Hamaker who accompanied him to Fort Wayne, will be honored with Miss Baker at a dinner to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Baker at the Fort Wayne Country club following the tea.

Before going east to continue her studies, Miss Baker attended St Augustine academy and was graduated from Central Catholic high school. Mr. Livingston who entered the United States naval academy as a member of the class of 1944, will be graduated in June 1943. The young people are planning to be married soon after his graduation—Fort Wayne (Indiana) News-Sentinel, December 19.

Midshipman Livingston and Miss Baker arrived in Plattsmouth last evening and will be here over the holiday season with Mrs. Lillian Livingston, as well as with the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bieleck and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Livingston.

At the Brubacher store on last Monday space was found for the purpose of enrolling the young men who have recently become 18 and 19 years old for future induction into the army. Clarke Jarvis and John Morchar were among those to register.

Mr. W. A. Reed, manager of the elevator, and his wife entertained at dinner in their home recently in honor of friends from Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald and their daughter, Nora Jean, of Avoca, were guests last Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McDonald.

Accepts New Position

Clarke Jarvis has accepted a position as salesman for the Brubacher Store. His knowledge of the territory and acquaintance of the people fits him for the position.

Writes from New Guinea

LeRoy Lloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lloyd, who is on the other side of the world, writes from New Guinea, telling of conditions over there. He said it is extremely hot there.

Notwithstanding the slippery pavement and side roads, the Murray Transfer Company has been busy night and day delivering and trucking corn to the local elevators.

L. C. Horschar was a LaPlatte visitor several days last week; spending the week-end with his brother, Wm. Horschar.

Clarence Englekemeier, who has been in the service for a number of months, obtained a 10-day holiday furlough and is spending it with his parents and friends. He likes the army but was happy to see the home folks again.

Fred Kahler, who gave up his association with Donald Philpot to answer the call to the colors, has been given an honorable discharge. He has been in poor health.

Both the postoffice lobby and the work room have been somewhat crowded. For this reason the work room was enlarged and the heating system installed therein. This provides more room for the public and is a better arrangement all around.

M. G. Churchill was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

John E. Schutz of Plattsmouth was in Murray last Monday reading meters. He made the trip via bus because of the icy pavement.
