Departs for Service

Harold E. Flockhart, who enlisted several weeks ago in the Marchant Marine, has received his call to duty and is leaving this evening for Omaha, where he will report and will be shipped out some time Thursday. Harold, a member of the class of 1941 of the local high school, will take the best wishes of his many friends in his service and among these the Journal force where he was employed for some time. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kerns of this city.

Attend Optician Congress

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard Fitch have just returned from Kansas City where Dr. Fitch attended the Heart of America Congress of Optitians held at the President hotel Sunday Monday and Tuesday.

Among the eminent lecturers was Dr. Ward Halstead of the University of Chicago. Other lectures given in this graduate course of visual instruction included visual comfort, acuity and achievement.

Although the congress is comprised of nine mid-western states, over 200 optometrists from 16 states were present.

Sailor Writes Parents

Seaman second class Connie Al-Ien serving with the U.S. Navy somewhere in the Pacific, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Allen, that he is well. His letter, mailed March 26, is the first word the parents have received since Feb. 1. Seaman Allen after his enlistment last fall was trained at the Great Lakes Naval Station. He is now serving as a cook.

An Appreciation

To the many friends I wish to express my appreciation of their remembrances to me while in the hospital, the cards, flowers, visits and especially to the BREX force. Norman Baker
