SCHOOL NOTES

Kenosha, District 8, Neil Lancaster, Teacher.

May 12 was our last day of school but because of rain our picnic was not held until May 23. Those who had perfect attendance during the last month were: Margaret Ann Campbell, David Grant, Robert Snodgrass and Edith Lewis. Three pupils or half the school had perfect attendance for the entire year. They were Margaret Ann, David and Robert.

George Buffington passed the State Eighth grade examinations so will receive his certificate.

During the school term $67.70 worth of War Savings Stamps were purchased in our school.

Here From California

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gamblin and son, arrived from Santa Monica, California, for a visit here with his grandmother Mrs. E. A. Hitt and his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Hillard Grassman and family, and his sister, Mrs. Howard McGrath and family at Omaha.

Mr. Gamblin is taking an enforced vacation on account of sickness. He is employed at the Douglas Aircraft plant at Santa Monica.

Visits in City

Mrs. Cora Murray of Omaha, a former resident of the city, was here for a few hours Tuesday, coming down to look after the family lot in Oak Hill cemetery. While here she was a visitor with Mrs. P. J. Wheeler and many other friends.

Rotary Enjoys Program

Rotary club met for its weekly luncheon at the Hotel Plattsmouth Tuesday noon. Emil J. Weyrich, local druggist, entertained members with a showing of colored travel pictures. Mr. Weyrich is known to be a man of many hobbies one of which is photography. The pictures shown were taken on his trip to the southwest. Grand Canyon, Boulder dam, Pueblo Indian ruins and other scenes appeared on the screen in all their natural beauty.

Capt. Joe Capwell and Warrane Officer Thomas Spencer Solomon, both here on furlough, were guests of the club. I. L. Kocian, Metropolitan insurance representative, attended as a new member. Program chairman was Arthur Troop.

Receive Promotion

James Short, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Short, has been given the rank of corporal in the Civilian Aeronautics Patrol Corps, unit to which he belongs. The S.A.P.C. was recently put under supervision of the U. S. Army.

Attend National Meeting

County Attorney Walter H. Smith and County Assessor W. H. Puls were in Omaha Tuesday where they were in attendance at the meeting of the County Officials Association of the United States that is enjoying a three-day session this week.

Shows Improvement

The reports from Lincoln are to the effect that Mrs. Lois Troop, 95, who has not been in the best of health for several days, is now much improved and is able to be up a part of the time. Mrs. Troop is well known in this city and Lincoln for her activities in the W.R.C., and other organizations and her many friends will be pleased that she is so much better.

Here from Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manasek, of Omaha, were here Sunday for a few hours to visit with Mrs. R. A. Bates, aunt of Mrs. Manasek. While here they looked after the care of the family plot in Oak Hill cemetery.

Honor Aged Ladies

The Women's Guild of the St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed Church held their annual birthday party for all honorary members 70 years old and over on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors. All members joined in singing, "Happy Birthday" after which Mrs. Willard Sherman played two piano selections. Rev. Sherman offered a prayer and Mrs. Elizabeth Tritsch, oldest honorary member was presented with a bouquet. Delicious refreshments were served and the program closed with the singing of "God Be With You."

Honorary members present included: Mesdames William Budig, Fred Baumgart, Elizabeth Tritsch, E. P. Lutz, Henrietta Mockenhaupt, Mary Egenberger of Omaha, Hans Sievers, Ida Schlieschke, Henry Beck, Philip Thierolf, Henrietta Ofe, John Hirz and Mrs. Jansen.

Visit With Home Folks

First Lt. R. J. Case, United States army air corps, has been here for the past few days to visit with his father, A. R. Case and the other relatives and old time friends. Lieutenant Case is with the mapping squadron of the air corps and has had a very extensive experience as he has spent the past two years in the service. He entered the service from Tarkio college. He has recently been stationed at Laredo, Tex.

To join Husband

Mrs. James S. Comstock and little son, Jimmie Charles, who have been spending some time here in this city and at Murray, departed this morning over the Northwestern railroad from Omaha, for Ithica, N. Y. They will join their husband and father, Ensign James Comstock, who is taking special naval training at Cornell university.

Reaches Destination

Mrs. Don Seiver received word from her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Buchanan, in Marston Mills, Mass., stating that Donna Bea has arrived safely and both girls are thoroughly enjoying their reunion. Many of Donna Bea's friends received cards from her during her stop-over in Chicago, and she reported that since it was her first long distance train ride, she found the trip quite interesting.

To Be Married

Miss Delores Gradoville, daughter of Mrs. Marie Gradoville of this city, will be married Thursday to Mr. Edward Frazier. The wedding will be at Burchard, Neb., Mr. Frazier's home.

Guest From South Dakota

Lloyd M. Taplett and his sister, Maybelle, of Sioux Falls, S. D., were week-end guests at the James E. Wargha farm.

Lloyd will proceed to San Diego, Calif., where he will undergo training in the Marine Parachute troops, while Maybelle is to return to Sioux Falls to finish a term of school work in the Sioux Falls public schools.

Alan McClanahan, who has just completed an eight weeks clerical course in the army air corps at Murray State School. Pfc. McClanahan received basic training at Miami, Florida.

Funeral Service Of Mrs. Chriswiser Largely Attended

Services at the First Methodist Church for Long Time Resident of City

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the First Methodist church for Mrs. Martha Jane Chriswiser, widow of Bennett Chriswiser and a pioneer resident of Cass county.

The message was brought by Rev. T. Porter Bennett, pastor of the church, choosing the twenty-third psalm as his text.

During the services three of the old hymns were given by Mrs. E. H. Wescott and Frank A. Cloldt. "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Asleep in Jesus" and "The Old Rugged Cross." E. H. Wescott played the organ accompaniment.

The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery beside the husband. The pallbearers were old family friends: Glen and Charles Valley, W. A. Swatek, Lee Houston, Bill Fox, Roy Gregg.

Martha Jane Chriswiser was the daughter of the late Richard and Sarah Haynie. She was born in Missouri December 3, 1848, and fell asleep at Plattsmouth, May 23, 1943, being 95 years of age.

Mrs. Chriswiser was one of a family of twelve, of whom only three are living.

She was united in marriage with Bennett Chriswiser in Mills County, Iowa, in 1868, and in 1870 they moved to Nebraska and settled on a farm three and one-half miles southwest of Murray. Mr. Chriswiser passed away May 18, 1917.

She was the mother of five children, all sons, three of whom predeceased her in death, namely: Richard Haynie, June 19, 1940, Charles Manford, April 18, 1932, and John, August 15, 1892.

The two sons that survive are Andrew Parker Chriswiser of Plattsmouth, who has been living with his mother for the past two years, and Ray Chriswiser who lives on a farm near Nehawka, Neb., who, with seven grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, one sister, Mrs. Edna Gillett, of Blair, Neb., and two brothers, James Haynie, of Lodi, Calif., and Samuel Haynie of Maywood, Neb., with many other relatives and a large circle of friends are left to mourn her departure.

Forty-eight year ago she and her husband moved to Plattsmouth. A number of years ago she united with the Otterbien United Brethren Church. Mrs. Chriswiser was always of a jovial nature, was noted for hospitality, love of friends and a fondness of flowers. She was loved and respected by all she knew. She had always lived a very active life.

The bravest battle that was ever fought—

Shall I tell you where and when?
On the maps of the world you will find it not;
'Twas fought by the mothers of men.

Nay not with cannon, nor battle shot,
With sword or noble pen;
Nay, not with eloquent words or thought

From mouths of wonderful men,
But deep in a walled up woman's heart—

Of woman that would not yield,
But bravely, silently bore the part—

Lo! there is the battle field
No marshalling troops, no bivouac song;

No banner of gleam and wave;
But O! these battles they last so long—

From babyhood to the grave.

To Enter Merchant Marines

Charles C. Clark, of this city, who several days ago enlisted in the Merchant Marine, has received notice that he has been accepted and the date of reporting will be given soon. He had been called for the army but has been released for the service of his choice.

Another brother, Wayne Clark, is in the armed service as a member of the United States army and is located in the south at this time.

Visits Son and Family

Mrs. Milton E. Smith is here from Omaha visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Smith. She was accompanied by her grandson, Milton Millhollan. Mrs. Smith will remain for the promotion exercises of the eighth grade of which her granddaughter, Eugenie Smith, is a member.

Plenty of Poultry 4-H Club

The Plenty of Poultry for Victory 4-H club met again at the home of Merrill Meisinger on May 21. Vice President Andy Ruffner was in charge of the meeting. The lesson on Marketing Poultry was studied. Much discussion and interest was shown in learning the factors concerning this topic. 4-H songs were sung and club yells given at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Meisinger served a much appreciated lunch before adjournment.

The "Plenty of Poultry for Victory" 4-H club met at the home of Andy Ruffner the evening of April 23.

President Ralph Hild conducted the meeting. Two new members, Merrill Meisinger and Edwin Younker, were added to the club.

After the lesson was discussed, we sang songs led by Bonnie Topfiff. Mrs. Ruffner served a delicious lunch.

The club held its third meeting at Ralph Hild's home on May 7. Sanitation among the flocks was discussed. At both meetings, tests have been given by the leader, Richard Cole, on subject matter studied at the meetings. After singing a few songs, Mrs. Hild served a delicious lunch.

'General Manager' May Be Named For OPA Organization

Change Would Be Most Radical Step in Personnel, Policy and Operations.

Washington, May 27—(UP)—Lou R. Maxon, head of a Detroit advertising agency who has been serving without compensation as chief information officer of the office of price information, is being considered for the new post of "General Manager" of OPA, reliable sources said today.

If he accepts, the appointment will be among the drastic changes in OPA personnel, policy and operations to be announced soon. Unless last-minute changes occur, it was understood, the new program may be revealed within 48 hours. Fewer regulations, simplification of those already in force and stricter enforcement of the entire price and rationing operation are expected.

It was understood that price administrator Prentiss M. Brown had offered the job of "General Manager" of OPA to Maxon with the understanding that he would be allowed to put the new program into effect. Maxon has refused to indicate whether he will accept.

Last week it was reported that Brown's search for a hard-boiled "General Manager" had failed. It was said then that all who were offered the job declined because they felt it would not carry sufficient authority for them to cope effectively with OPA's problems.

Maxon has been OPA's chief information officer since Brown took office earlier this year. Soon after he joined OPA, he became the focal point of a controversy over an order by Brown which gave Maxon virtual veto over all action, even that involving policy. That order was modified as a result of complaints from many sources.

It is no secret that Maxon long has felt that OPA, reported last week to be "Cracking at the Seams," needed to be tightened up immediately if it was to withstand successfully growing criticism from industry, labor, congress, housewives, the average man on the street, and even OPA officials.

At one time or another, OPA price or rationing policies have antagonized all of these elements in national life. Industry has yelled loudly against regulations governing operations which it held needed no regulation as part of the war effort; labor is complaining against what it describes as OPA "Do nothing Policies" and claims that the agency has not held the price line. Housewives blame scarcity of certain foodstuffs, high prices of fresh vegetables and the Black Markets on OPA policies. Congress, sensitive to all of these complaints, is demanding a new deal.

Undergoes Appendectomy

Miss Lavern Cottingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cottingham, of Murray, was operated on Monday at the St. Elizabeth's hospital at Lincoln, and at last reports was doing nicely. She has been employed at Lincoln at the air base.

New Plans For Feeding Man Under Discussion

United Foods Conference Plan Food for Greater Health and Efficiency

Hot Springs, Va., May 28. (UP)—A new idea for feeding man so that his physique, health and efficiency in future years will far surpass present averages, was emerging today from discussions at the United Nations Food conference.

It also was becoming apparent that the ambitious schedules may make it impossible to conclude the conference by the scheduled date of June 30th—a week from yesterday.

The work on nutrition already has covered a wide field and has resulted in the setting of standards which seem high by comparison with present day practices. It is conceded by delegates that it will be a long time before the ideals fixed at this conference can be translated into actualities.

Reports from delegates continue to emphasize the co-operative spirit being demonstrated here among the representatives of 44 united and associated nations.

F. L. McDougall, economic advisor to the Australian High Commissioner in London and a member of the Australian delegation, said he had attended every League of Nations meeting for eight years and never before had seen such will to work together as was being shown here.

Visits Soldier Son

Mrs. James G. Mauzy has returned from Moorehead, Minnesota, where she has enjoyed a few days visit with her son, Pvt. James Mauzy, who is in the United States army air corps. She found the son in the best of condition altho for a time he had been ill. Since his recovery he has been in his preliminary training and left this week from Moorehead for Santa Ana, California where he will undergo further training in specialized line. James sends his greetings to the many old school friends and associates in the city.
