

MURRAY

By Journal Field Representative

Wm. Vest and wife were at Plattsmouth last Saturday evening attending to some matters of business.

Olin Morris and guests were visitors at the C. E. Morris home last Sunday.

A number of neighbors assisted in the making of hay at the Earl Lancaster place on last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Holmes of Plattsmouth visited in Murray Friday of last week, and looked after their property interests.

Boedeker and Son, who make frequent shipments of both hogs and cattle to market, had a fine lot of hogs on the South Omaha market Monday of this week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brendel of Avoca were visiting in Murray on last Sunday, calling on Mrs. Bessie Seybolt, sister of Dr. Brendel. They also were dinner guests of the Seybolts. Dr. Brendel found the sister much improved, which is good news for her many friends.

M. G. Churchill is getting along nicely from a recent injury to his foot.

Charles Mead has been putting in some long days in order to get the work done in the cornfields and taking care of the hay crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gauer of near Louisville entertained at their farm home on last Sunday. Their guests for the day were E. J. Kruger, A. D. Rhoden and Mrs. Rhoden. The birthday of the two-year-old son of the Gauers was also observed.

Mrs. Jane Brooks, sister of W. O. Troop, while spending some time at the brothers home, showed unusual activity and ability in the preparation and canning of some dozen jars of peas. This is a remarkable record, she being eighty-six years of age.

Mrs. May Koch, formerly Miss May Schlichtmeier, has been with her parents in Union assisting in the gathering of their strawberries.

Earl Merritt, the painter and decorator, has been kept exceedingly busy the past week. He began painting both the interior and exterior of the home of Mrs. Eugenie Delles Dernier.

J. A. Wilson has been assisted in the work of improving his property by George Parks.

Celebrates Fathers Day

Martin Sporer and family, and Wm. Sporer, enjoyed a picnic dinner at Riverview Park in Omaha on last Sunday. The Chester and Charles Sporer families who had planned to join the group were unable to attend. They enjoyed three ball games staged at the Park.

Visited in Auburn

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Brubacher and daughter, Miss Beverly Ann visited the parents of Mrs. Brubacher, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lash, at Auburn, and enjoyed the day last Sunday. They returned home last evening.

Joe Richter has been carrying the mail for the regular carrier, Eugene Roddy, who is on vacation. Mr. Roddy is taking advantage of this time off to cultivate his corn crop near Union.

Kansas Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathers and three daughters, were guests of the Paul Richters over last Sunday.

Visited Murray on Monday

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Davis, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Witham, all of Lincoln, visited in Murray on last Monday. The Davis family formerly lived here and have many friends with whom they enjoyed visiting. The Withams have two sons in the army, while one son in the navy was killed on May 13th off the coast of Australia.

Adjusting Agent Here

M. C. Scanlan, Manager of the Underwriters Adjusting Company, was here from Omaha yesterday making adjustments on damage caused by windstorms. He later went to Glenwood, Ia., on similar business. He reports a considerable number of complaints, but says none of them are of any great consequence.

Notice Methodist Choir

Junior choir at 7:30 at the church and the senior choir at 8 p. m. All members please be in attendance.

Weeping Water

We regret to report that Mrs. Bea Rich, who has been ill for several weeks, and a relapse the first of the week, and is not gaining as her friends had hoped. Her daughter, Mrs. Ed Bobbit, who came from Washington, D. C., several weeks ago, is still with her.

Teddy Steiert, of Omaha, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiseman. Teddy will return to Omaha, next week, but will return to Weeping Water this fall and attend school here.

In last Thursday's paper we told of the Plattsmouth high school graduate, who is now serving his country, and whose parents live in Weeping Water. There was an error in the name. It should have been John Morris, instead of John Morris.

Weeping Water Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Odham, for their annual flower mission day meeting, with the subjects of "Peace" and "International Relations" studied under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Tuck, and Mrs. Odham. The flowers which had been brought to the meeting, were made into bouquets and were distributed among the snail-ins of the community, at the close of the afternoon program.

Mrs. Arthur Brockman and daughter returned home Saturday evening after a two-months visit on the western coast, visiting her sister at El Monte, Calif.

O.E.S. Kensington was entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. Shrauger.

Parents of Twins

Mrs. J. E. Sperry was called to the telephone Monday evening by her sister-in-law, in Kansas City, who told her the glad news that she was the grandmother of twin boys, born Monday to Pvt. Jim Powers and wife, the former Patricia Sperry. Private Powers is located in a camp at New Orleans, and Mrs. Sperry visited him there recently. The proud and happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sperry of Weeping Water, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Powers of Nehawka. Mrs. Powers is a graduate of the Weeping Water high school, and taught in Cass County rural schools before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Embury, of Charleston, S. C., arrived here Saturday evening, and are visiting at the home of Mrs. Embury's sister, Mrs. Ernest Bates. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Bates and two children, Eldon and Donna May, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Embury and children of Nehawka, went to Lincoln to visit their mother, Mrs. Jay Embury at Bryan Memorial hospital, where she has been for the past two weeks. Earl Embury is a welder in a defense plant at Charleston.

We regret to say that Mrs. Jay Embury's condition does not improve as much as everyone had hoped that it would. Her most serious trouble is an ingrowing goitre, which causes a serious condition of the heart.

The pupils of the Weeping Water high school will miss one of their most beloved instructors this fall. Miss Maude Holden, who has been high school principal for several years, has resigned, and will not return again next year. Her home is at Grand Island. Another teacher who has only been here one year, but who has won the hearts of all pupils and parents, is Mrs. Ecklund, music supervisor for the past year. Mrs. Ecklund has also presented her resignation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Armstrong, of Lincoln, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Armstrong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunt.

Mrs. Iva Clary spent Monday with friends in Nebraska City.

Mrs. Masters left Monday for Michigan, to visit a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Domingo entertained at a family dinner Sunday, honoring Harold's father, Oscar Domingo. Those enjoying the day's visit were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Domingo, and three children, Dorothy, Betty and Robert; his aunt, Mrs. S. R. Smith, whose husband was spending Father's day with their son, Milford, at camp, and Miss Lucille Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shrauger and son, Jackie, spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Shrauger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Artz, of Tecumseh, and Mr. Shrauger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wherry, at Pawnee.

Miss Margaret Jane Robinson, of Omaha, spent Father's day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson.

Saturday Evening Dinner club held their regular dinner at Mac's Cafe, after which they adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Steckley to spend the evening. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Day.

Mrs. Arnold Dettmer (Francis Rehmeier) left last week for Salina, Kans., to visit her husband, Cpl. Arnold Dettmer, who is stationed at Camp Phillips.

New Stone Quarry

Weeping Water is to have a new stone quarry, which is owned by the Ace Construction Company, of Omaha, with Kline Erickson, of Omaha, manager. Machinery is being rushed here, and under the terms of the contract, work will begin in earnest next week. Already building stone is being hauled to Omaha. Crushed rock will be their specialty. This new quarry is located on the Frank Hunt farm, southeast of town. The coming of this quarry will bring quite a number of new families into town within the next few weeks. Local men will be hired as far as possible.

Mr. T. W. Ogden, of Horton, Kans., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wiseman. Mr. Ogden arrived Tuesday.

Tom Hopkins and Kenneth Powers spent Wednesday visiting the park in Lincoln. Kenneth expects to leave the latter part of the week for Denver to visit his brother, Tip-ton Powers.

Family Reunion

Mrs. Guy Hopkins had quite a happy surprise Sunday morning, when her son, Dennis Scott came to visit her. Dennis has been stationed at Los Alamitos, Calif., and has recently been transferred to Ottumwa, Ia. His pal, at camp, Dick Montgomery, of Los Angeles, came with Dennis, and later in the morning Mrs. Hopkins, son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Curmes, and daughter, Jean, of Omaha, arrived so they all enjoyed the day together, and all remained overnight, leaving Monday morning. As this was the first time that Dennis had been at home for about two years, it was a happy reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klemme spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dickman, of Nehawka.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Myers have received word from their son, Donald that he is well and safe, destination unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heneger, of Lincoln and Mrs. Heneger's sister, Mrs. Waldemar Schultz and son, Allen, of Denver were visiting in Weeping Water, Saturday evening. Mrs. Schultz was the former Helen Allen, of Weeping Water.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ward visited Roy's father, Charlie Ward, at Elmwood, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hanlon attended the funeral of David Nelson on Friday, Friday. Mr. Chiles was passenger agent for the Mo. Pac. railroad, at Cook, for many years, until his illness forced him to give up the work. Mr. Hanlon was one of the pall bearers at the funeral.

The Friday evening dinner club held an out door picnic at Ralph Keckler home Friday evening.

Mrs. Richard Rhoden and daughter Charlotte of Lincoln, were Weeping Water visitors Saturday evening.

The Woman's association of the Congregational Church held their annual Mother-Daughter Luncheon Friday with eighty two attending. Mrs. O. E. Olsen and Mrs. Edna Shannon were in charge of the kitchen, and Mrs. Fred Klepper, in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Richmond Hobson and Mrs. Eugene Day did the decorating and Mrs. Frank Domingo, Mrs. Carl Day and Mrs. Ed Lorenson were in charge of the program. Mrs. L. R. Shipps, of Lincoln, chairman of the women's work for the Lincoln Association of Cong. churches, was present and reviewed the book, "White Cliffs", by Alice Duerr Miller. Favors were booklets in the shape of pansies, bearing Mother's Day messages. Red roses, blue delphiniums and white daisies were used profusely as decoration. Out of town guests were Mrs. L. R. Shipps, and Mrs. Shursleff, of Lincoln, Mrs. Herbert Lohnes, of Canton, South Dakota, Mrs. Helen Wallick and Mrs. George Towle, of Hollywood, Cal., Mrs. Luis Heib, Ashland, and Mrs. Bert Jamesen, Nehawka.

Mrs. Emmor Marshall entertained the members of the Friendly Ladies Bridge Club and two invited guests, at her home Wednesday evening. The two special guests were Mrs. Helen Wallick, of Hollywood, Cal., and Mrs. George Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. Seward Day, and family, were Father's Day guests of the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Day.

Miss Eloise Pool and Mrs. Bonnie Ellis LaRue came from Peru

Friday evening and remained until Sunday evening visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Oldham and the writer of this column, were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ruby, Friday evening, to eat strawberry chortcake. We reached there in time to visit their gardens, and to look over Mr. Ruby's interesting growth of young trees, of many different varieties. He has a willow tree, which has a branch which has turned and grown back through the main trunk of the tree, forming a handle on that side of the tree. Their victory garden is flourishing, and Mrs. Ruby is busy canning for next winter's use. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cooper arrived in time for the strawberry shortcake, and we all enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Mrs. Ray Tankersley, who was taken to Bryan Memorial Hospital, the first of last week, does not improve as had been hoped that she would. Mr. Tankersley went to Lincoln to spend the day with her Sunday.

HERE'S THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Last Sunday was Father's Day and he was 1-A with the whole family, but today life has settled back into the same old groove and father is just "good old dad" plugging along in his unobtrusive way. Well, we don't want you to forget father too much, or the fine job he is doing to help us to victory. So plan meals that father likes and when he "licks the platter clean" tell him the food came from Hinky Dinky where quality is high and prices low. He'll be more than pleased to know that your Food Dollars go so far for so much good food.
