Death Of George S. Smith, Pioneer Of Cass County

Was Born at Rock Bluffs on October 5, 1861 and Spent Lifetime in Community

Tuesday night George S. Smith, 81, a lifetime resident of Cass county was called to the last reward, passing away at the Resthaven Home at Weeping Water where he has made his home for the past year.

Mr. Smith and his lifetime represent the history of Cass county, he having been born at the pioneer river town of Rock Bluffs on October 5, 1861, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Smith, who were among the very first settlers of that community. Mr. Smith grew up in his home community, receiving his education in the country schools and later taking up farming as his life work. In his childhood and boyhood the rest of Nebraska aside from the settlements along the rivers, was largely still a part of the unconquered west and the native Indians still roved over the land not yet broken by the plow. Nebraska was still a territory at that time.

The Smith farm, south of the city, was long farmed by the departed until in 1935 when his health compelled his retirement from active farm work. In the past few years his health has gradually been growing more feeble until he was taken to the home.

Mr. Smith was married on October 20, 1891, to Della Elizabeth Young, who preceded him in death several years ago. There is surviving two children, Mrs. William J. Dailey, of Omaha, and Earl Smith of this city, as well as one grandchild.

The body was taken to the Sattler funeral home, at 4th and Vine streets, where the funeral services will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the interment at the Young cemetery south of Platts-mouth, one of the pioneer cemeteries of the county.

Home From Coast Guard

Last evening Matthew Sedlak, seaman second class, United States Coast Guard, arrived home from San Francisco to spend his leave here with his father, Michael Sedlak and his sister, Mrs. Charles Fulton and family as well as other of the relatives and old friends. He likes the service very much and the west coast where he has been in service since his enlistment.

Funeral Of Mrs. John P. Todd Very Largely Attended

Member of One of the Prominent Families of the County Is Laid To Rest at Omaha

The funeral services for Mrs. John Todd, held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of the Sattler funeral home, Fourth and Vine street, Tuesday afternoon, was very largely attended by the old family friends and relatives over Cass county.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, conducted the service and spoke words of comfort to the bereaved husband, brothers, sisters and old time friends who had come to pay their last tributes.

Mrs. Russell Reeder, during the service gave two of the favorite numbers of the departed, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus," and "Crossing the Bar," with Mrs. F. H. Goos as the accompanist.

The interment was at the West Lawn cemetery at Omaha, in the family plot, and the pallbearers were relatives, comprising Melvin, Delbert, Glen and Loren Todd, Ivan Balfour and Wallace Philpot.

Obituary

Laura Mathilda Barrett, was born October 14, 1876, at Warren, Illinois. She came to Nebraska with her family and received her education in the schools at Weeping Water. In her younger years she was a member of the United Presbyterian church at Union before it was joined with the Northern Presbyterian church. She was married to John Payne Todd, at Nehawka in 1894 and they made their home in this locality. In 1909 they moved to Okotaka, Canada, a few miles from Calgary, where they farmed for thirty-two years. Mr. and Mrs. Todd, despite their long residence in Canada, had remained citizens of the United States. They moved back to the States in 1942 and have largely made their home in this section of the west since that time, mostly in Omaha and Plattsmouth.

The deceased is survived by the husband, three brothers, and a sister. A woman of tender sympathies she was always considerate of others.

"Safe"

We will think of her as a frightened child Who ran to her Father's arms When a fearful thought with its false alarms

Was driving her almost wild. He held her close in a warm embrace As a loving Father would.

He calmed her fears and dried her tears, With his tender hands, and her sleep was good.

For she rests in a perfect peace, We will think of her safe in His Home so sweet

"Till in God's good time we all shall meet.

Let the flowers bloom where her feet trod, She is safely home with her Father, God.

Returns from West Coast

Mrs. Dewey Reed and daughter, Miss Florence, who have been visiting for some time on the west coast with relatives and friends, returned home today. They had a very delightful time in visiting with the relatives and old time friends, having the opportunity of viewing many of the attractive beauty spots in California.

Graduates from Air School

The announcement has been received here of the graduation of Lieutenant Richard Eppings, Murdock young man, from the U. S. army air corps advanced flying school. The Cass county man was one of the class at the Pampa, Tex., school and stood high in the ranks of his class. Mrs. Mary Eppings, mother, and Mrs. Carl Buck, a sister, were at Pampa to attend the graduation of the class.

Home on Leave

Tuesday afternoon Seaman First Cass Leroy Bashus and fiancée, Miss Elaine Mary, of Eureka, Calif., arrived in the city to enjoy a visit here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bashus, parents of Leroy. Seaman Bashus is with the coast guard and has been stationed on the north California coast since completing his training and near Eureka. This is the first visit home of the young sailor since his enlistment.

Entertains Rotary Anns

Last evening the local Rotary club held a Rotary Ann night and the members were hosts to their ladies at a dinner party at the Hotel Plattsmouth, and this was followed by a round table discussion on "How Plattsmouth Could Be Improved," many very helpful ideas being offered by the members of the dinner party and giving a wide range of viewpoints.

Searl E. Davis was the leader of the program and made a most entertaining master of ceremonies for the occasion.

The ladies of three of the new Rotarians were presented and formally welcomed into the "Anns" by the members of the party. The new Anns are Mrs. Robert Cappell, Mrs. Lawrence Caldwell, Mrs. Orville Neilson

Secures New Teachers

The board of education are announcing the selection of a new teacher that will carry on the classes formerly handled by Mr. Iverson, the new principal. The new teacher is Mrs. Alice Organ, of Peru, who comes here very highly recommended. She is a graduate of the Peru State Teachers college and has four years of teaching experience, the last two years being in the schools at Wymore, Nebraska.

She will teach high school arithmetic and junior business as her courses.

Tom Gradoville Home

Thomas Gradoville, Jr., now in the armed services as a member of the navy, arrived home for a leave here visiting his mother and other relatives as well as with friends in Omaha. He is now on active duty and has had some interesting sea experiences. For a short time after leaving the naval training station at Farragut, Idaho, he was stationed at Bremerton, Washington, where he had the pleasure of being with CPO Ralph Timm for a short time.

Visits at Hospital

Mrs. W. O. Reeves was at Lincoln Tuesday where she spent the day visiting with her husband, at the U. S. Veterans hospital. Mr. Reeves has been at the hospital for the past three years and remains quite seriously ill.

Returns from Outing

This afternoon Rt. Rev. Monsignor George Agius returned home from an outing of several weeks spent in the Black Hills and in the vicinity of Manitou, Colorado. He reports that the weather was very pleasant in the mountain section and enabled him to get put a great deal, but the lack of the car served to keep him from traveling. The trip was made by train as far as Lincoln and by bus home.

Returns to Iowa

Mrs. F. H. Johnson, of Davenport, Iowa, who has been here as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Gall, returned home this morning. Mrs. Johnson is a sister of Mrs. Gall and the visit was one greatly enjoyed by the ladies.

Proclamation

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING THE FACT that in carrying the war into enemy territory, we shall need greater amounts of money than any nation has ever asked from its citizens in all history, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do officially proclaim that on Thursday, the ninth of September, 1943, the Third War Loan shall be launched.

As Commander-in-Chief, I hereby invoke every citizen to give all possible aid and support to this Third War Loan drive, not only so that our financial goal may be reached, but to encourage and inspire those of our husbands and fathers and sons who are under fire on a dozen fronts all over the world. It is my earnest hope that every American will realize that in buying War Bonds in this Third War Loan he has an opportunity to express voluntarily and under the guidance of his conscience, the extent to which he will "back the attack."

The American people supported well the first and second War Loan drives and in fact did even more than was asked of them. Our need for money now is greater than ever, and will continue to grow until the very day that Victory is won; so we must ask far more sacrifice, far more cooperation than ever before.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

By the President:
CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

Franklin D. Roosevelt
