

Nehawka

By Journal Field Representative

George Troop of Murray, was visiting with his father, W. O. Troop, at the farm north of Nehawka, on Monday. Tuesday Mr. Troop was at the home of the son near Murray.

Now in New Jersey

Cpl. Thomas Young Troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop, of this vicinity, is now stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., after spending some time in training at Elkins, W. Va. Cpl. Troop is in the ordnance department of the army.

Harry Knabe, nationally known breeder of Hampshire hogs, is having a new feeding place for the animals.

Too Much Business

Frank Lemon, who has been doing the barber work for the residents of Union and Nehawka, is finding the work very strenuous as he has a great demand on the days that he serves in both of the towns.

Back to Farragut

Robert Trotter, seaman second class, who has been home on leave following his boot training, has returned to his station. He will be assigned to duty on his return.

Mrs. A. F. Sturm has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. John O. Yeiser, at Omaha.

A. F. Sturm has received a letter from his grandson, Andrew Yeiser, who is stationed at David Calif., where he is an instructor in an army school.

Mrs. Vilas Chappell and little daughter, of Nebraska City, was visiting here at the home of Mrs. Christina Chappell, returning home Monday.

Herbert Kuntz and wife and been painting their home and making it very attractive.

Loren Todd, of near Murray, was in Nehawka Monday helping Herbert Kuntz building a wagon for hauling corn.

Cpl. Sheldon Mitchell, stationed at Norfolk, Va., stepped off the train last Monday morning to greet his relatives and friends. He will be able to enjoy a week in Nebraska.

John Stine, brother of George Stine, who was formerly in the army, received a discharge on account of his age and is now engaged at Climax, Colo., where he is a mine worker carpenter.

Former resident here

Charles A. Miller, better known to the old residents as "Whitey," who is residing at Brunswick, Nebr., is here for a visit with the old time friends. Mr. Miller was one of the best known amateur baseball players in this section of the state in the 90's and was associated with James. Sam and Tom Patterson on the Plattsmouth team in the then state league. In recent years he has resided near Brunswick where he has farming interests and where he resides with his nephew, Charles Miller, and family. Mr. Miller also expects to visit near Ashland where a sister, Mrs. Tom Colvert, and family resides.

War Bonds should mean something more to you than just "a good sound investment." Figure it out yourself.

Special Journal Correspondence

Methodist Church
George A. Morey, Pastor
Mrs. John Fischer, Supt. of S. S.

Sunday School—9:30 A. M.
Morning Worship—10:15 A. M.
Everyone is welcome to attend our services. If you haven't been attending, plan to start next Sunday for the church needs your help. There will be a "Rally Day Dinner" next Sunday—so come to church, bring your basket dinner and let us make it a real "Rally."

The choir rehearses during the week. Inquire of Mrs. Fischer as to the time and place.

Boys in Service

Sgt. Eugene Muenchauer of Camp Hood, Texas, is a technician, fourth grade rather than a technical sergeant of fourth class as was given in this column last week. We are glad to make this correction.

Seaman Lester Robertson arrived from Florida the first of last week and is visiting his family, who have been here with Mrs. Robertson's parents since in the summer.

Cpl. and Mrs. Charles B. Palmer and son, Dennis, were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Adams on Tuesday evening of this week. Charles has enjoyed a 15-day furlough since completing his course in radio at Ft. Riley. He and his family are starting for Washington on Saturday of this week, for he is due to report at Fort Lewis, October 4th.

Sgt. Raymond Winkler is returning to Kearney on Wednesday this week to report at the air base there. His brother-in-law and sister will accompany him to Kearney and will visit relatives and friends while there.

Pfc. Harold Bird, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bird, came from Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, and is visiting relatives and friends. He is in the field artillery.

L. W. Piersol spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Lincoln at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edith Axe and family.

Mrs. Nonnie Clements left last Wednesday for her home at Imperial after having spent several weeks with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Allen, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Oberle and Mr. and Mrs. William Winters motored to Omaha last Sunday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oberle and family and also to help Sherry Lee Oberle celebrate her fourth birthday.

Resident Struck by Car

Ivan Burdick was accidentally struck by a car driven by a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Root of Palmyra when crossing the highway two miles south of Eagle last Saturday evening. He passed away soon after the accident and before neighbors and a doctor could reach the home.

Mr. Burdick was well known in this community where he had spent most of his life.

Seaman and Mrs. Lester Robertson and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scatergood on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Moore and son, of California, were the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Ralph Ransford and Mr. Ransford. Mrs. Moore was formerly Miss Bernice Haas and taught school here for several terms.

Mrs. A. M. Trumble visited her mother, Mrs. Charles Rivett, at the Bryan Memorial hospital on Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. Houston Welton and son of Peru visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price, the former's parents, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips and family left on Monday of last week for Verdell to attend the funeral services held on Tuesday for a nephew.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wetenkamp spent last Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kettelhut.

Miss Jennie Gerhard returned on Wednesday of last week from Silom Springs, Ark., where she had gone to attend the funeral services held for a brother-in-law, S. W. Moore. She remained there with her sister until she was able to get reservations for a return trip to San Francisco.

Belated Message

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 29 (UP)—A young man left St. Paul in August, 1911, to get a government job in Washington, promising his sweetheart he would come back and marry her.

But she never heard from him, so one year later she married her "second-best beau" H. J. Buck.

Mrs. Buck, married for 31 years to beau No. 2, received a post card today from her almost-forgotten fiance, and she forgave his apparent cold-heartedness.

"I am still looking for a job," the post card said. It was dated Sept. 21, 1911.

MURRAY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

J. W. Taenzler, Pastor

Rally Day in the Bible School at 10 A. M. Over the top for Jesus. Wanted: 100 present. Will you bring two?

Family Day will be observed at 11 A. M. Sermon: The Christian Family. The pastor has a gift for the largest family present for church. Come and bring a friend.

No evening services, so every member should make a special effort to attend the morning worship.

If we don't win this war, we won't have any churches. Buy Bonds.

If we don't have any churches the war isn't worth winning. Go to church and help build a Christian home for our boys to come back to.

GET IN THE SCRAFF!

To the People of this Community:

Remember the tragic appeal of the little French Premier, Reynaud, as his beloved country fell before Hitler's screaming Stukas:

"Please hurry. Send us clouds of planes. Please."

The clouds of planes are now over Europe. They are War Bonds with wings. We must have more and more planes until the skies are literally black with our planes. Invasion is made easier, less costly as the bombs drop. The Third War Loan campaign is now entering its second week. How many War Bonds with wings have you bought? But for these fighters of the skies you could not sleep easily tonight. The invasion battles overseas in which your flesh and blood is taking part are being turned in our favor—your favor—by these clouds of planes. Back the attack with War Bonds. Buy an extra $100 Bond today.
