They're Still Dying; You Keep on Buying War Bonds and Stamps

Don't spend your pay in competition with your neighbors for scarce civilian goods. Save, America, and you will save America from black markets and runaway inflation. Buy more Bonds every payday. How many bonds? Figure it out yourself.

Maximum Egg Production Is Requested

Only healthy, well developed, comfortable and well fed pullet flocks will average 40 eggs per bird during October, November and December.

To keep pullets healthy and comfortable the Cass Co. Poultry Advisory Council urges that these Agricultural College recommendations be followed:

House only well developed pullets.

Provide 3 sq. ft. of floor space per bird.

Use 4 feed troughs per 100 hens.

Our feed will keep them well fed.
