Fall Festival Dinner Success

The dinner which the ladies of the Lewiston community have for a number of years served to the public, was a pronounced success. Many people availed themselves of the opportunity to enjoy a fine dinner on last Sunday. Those from other parts attending included Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shrader of So. Omaha; Ran Pearson of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. John Clinton of Peru, and Oscar Linville and wife of Omaha.

Earl Merritts are papering and re-decorating a house in Plattsmouth which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reed. Mrs. Reed is employed at the Norfolk Packing company in Plattsmouth, and the family will make their home there.

The first part of this week the Boedeker Feeding company received some 85 head of cattle coming from the vicinity of Alliance and same were placed on the Boedeker farms for feeding.

Lucean Carper was a visitor in Omaha on Monday attending to some matters of business in connection with his store.

Herman Smith was in Omaha last Monday to secure a windmill for Edwin Shoemaker which was installed the following day.

Wm. Sporer was a dinner guest of his son, Chester Sporer and family last Sunday and reports a fine crop of hybrid seed which Chester is now gathering, same making from 70 to 80 bushels per acre.

Mrs. Dale Long who has been at Kearney for the past two weeks, has returned and is now back at the post office here.

The Christian Bible school had a very interesting lesson last Sunday on the fourth commandment, "Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it Holy." A fine attendance record was reported—there being seventy-nine there.

Has New Well

Herman Smith dug a well last week for Dale Topfiff, which was one hundred and one feet deep. A pumping test for five hours showed the water at 40 feet, which proved the well was a very good one.
