

IN LOVING MEMORY
Of our dear Mother and Father, Mrs. Johanna Budig and Mr. William Budig, on their birthdays, Oct. 25 and Oct. 28.

The world may change from year to year.
The loving memories of our dear Mother and Father shall never fade away.
We always sit and think of you, And of the way you died.
That when you left you couldn't say goodbye.
The blow was hard, the shock severe. We never thought your death so near.
Only those who have lost can tell The pain of parting without farewell.

Sadly missed by
Your Children.

Trainees Enjoy Furlough

School Have Holiday

With the close of the schools this afternoon the student body will enjoy a four-day rest from studies, the district teachers meetings being held Thursday and Friday in addition to the regular school free days of Saturday and Sunday.

The athletic department of the school left at 4 p. m. this afternoon for Wahoo where the Blue Devils will play their first night game of the season.

The teachers of the school system will be busy at the district meetings, the greater part of the local teachers going to Omaha.

Couldn't Cheat on Friends

Chicago, Oct. 27. —(UP)—When Corp. David M. Light, Jr., 24, came home on furlough, he told Superior Judge John J. Lupe, he held out his arms to greet his wife, Eleanor. But she only smiled, he said, and told him she "couldn't cheat on her boy friend—not even with her own husband." Divorce granted, said Judge Lupe.
