Iowa Family Honored

Manchester, Ia., (UP)—The Ralph Childs family Saturday will become the first family in the nation to receive the rural electrification administration's "award for distinguished service in production of the nation's food through use of rural electric power."

A special program is planned at which Harry Slattery, REA administrator, will present the Childs family a plaque bearing the citation.

Mayor F. K. Jones today proclaimed November 13 "Food-for-Victory" day here, urging participation in the program.

John B. Cousin, president of the REA-financed Maquoketa Valley Electric Cooperative, Anamosa, Ia., said the Childs family was selected to receive the award on the basis of increased pork, poultry and dairy production in which electrical equipment played a part. Their farm produced twice as much pork this year as last; size of the laying flock doubled; 500 more chickens were raised, and 29 cows milked, compared with 18 last year.

Mince-meat Now Ready

The ladies of the St. Mary's Guild and the Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Luke's church have prepared and now have on the market, their line of mince-meat. This mince-meat sale is an annual event in the church societies and affords the opportunity for the public to purchase this delicious home made mince-meat, known far and wide as the very best to be found. Those who may wish to purchase the mince-meat may do so by contacting any member of the St. Mary's Guild. The mince-meat is being sold at $1 a quart.

Thanksgiving Music Program

The Thanksgiving Music Program to be presented by the Plattsmouth Festival Chorus at the First Methodist Church on the evening of Tuesday, November 23, is fast rounding into form. However, several music groups of the city, have not as yet, contacted the director, Mr. B. E. Evans, High School Co-ordinator, relative to their participation in this community project. Will all those choir leaders, and music directors concerned please notify Mr. Evans soon.

Let us stop for a few minutes from our very busy schedules, and give thanks to Him for our many, many blessings, and join in a prayer that peace may soon return to a war-weary world. There is no finer means by which we may show our gratitude to the Almighty, than by joining in hymns of praise on an occasion of this kind.

Shall we line up in this community service project now?

Louisville People Promoted

In the promotions announced by the war department appears the names of Randall A. Koop, from second to first lieutenant, and Isabel Jamie Ross, to first lieutenant in the WAC. Both of the officers are from Louisville and Lieutenant Koop was wounded in the service with the air corps in the European war fronts.

REVISED MPR 213: Effective September 14, establishes maximum prices for new coil and flat bed-springs.

AMENDMENT 11 TO REVISED Price Schedule 85: Effective October 9, 1943, action 1360.52(E) now provides that after October 9, 1943, no increment shall be included in the maximum retail price for a vehicle if the seller has refused to sell either it or any other new passenger automobile to a holder of a ration certificate having the qualifications of a purchaser and willing to pay the maximum price. The period for which the increment may not be charged will be from the date of the refusal up to and including the date the vehicle being priced is sold.

Allied Sinking Of Submarines Shows Large Total

Destroyed Faster Than Germans Can Build the Underwater Ships—150 Down in Six Months

Washington, Nov. 10. (UP)—The allies, clearing the Atlantic for the coming invasion of western Europe, have destroyed submarines during the past six months faster than Germany can build them.

That was evident today in the joint Anglo-American announcement that approximately 60 German submarines were destroyed during August, September and October, raising the total to 150 for six months.

The monthly average of German losses for the period thus stands at 25 U-boats a month were being launched. But allied bombings of shipyards and of plants where submarine parts are fabricated are believed to have cut output almost in half.

At the present rate of attrition, German submarine reserves are being depleted.

The joint announcement revealed that the submarine toll for the August-October period exceeded the number of allied merchant vessels lost by submarine action. Tonnage losses from all causes—air and U-boat attacks and mines—during October were the second lowest of any war month.

The announcement carried a warning, however, that the battle of the Atlantic could not be regarded as over.

"The Germans," it said, "have introduced new U-boat weapons and tactics. Thus far we have been able to cope successfully with the changing situation. The battle continues in full vigor."

Nevertheless, the report said, the record of the last three months was "particularly gratifying because during most of this period fewer U-boats were operating, fewer targets were presented for our air and sea forces."

President Roosevelt was pleased by the report. He told his news conference that anti-submarine warfare was coming right along and that measures had been developed to counter the nazis new U-boat weapons.

Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared in a broadcast earlier that the back of the German submarine warfare had been broken.

These statements and the joint announcement explained why the U. S. navy recently cancelled contracts for several hundred destroyer escort vessels and increased its order for amphibious landing craft.

Fighting in Yugo-Slavia

London, Nov. 10. (UP)—Fierce guerilla fighting raged from end to end of Yugo-Slavia today and Gen. Draja Mihailovitch's Cairo headquarters announced that his troops had attacked and temporarily blocked the Danube rivers' famed iron gate canal along the Yugo-Slav Russian frontier.

Units of Mihailovitch's patriot army, a communique said, blocked the iron gate by sinking two grain laden barges squarely across the canal interrupting traffic moving down the Danube from central Europe.

The communique said German and anti-democratic forces had opened a major drive to split the patriot armies in Serbia from those fighting in Montenegro and Bosnia. Two axis columns attacked from Sarajevo and Tuzla and heavy fighting is now in progress east of these cities, it said.

To Reorganize Cabinet

London, Nov. 10. (UP)—The London News-Chronicle said today that Prime Minister Churchill will make several changes in his cabinet before the opening of the new parliamentary session, possibly going outside parliament ranks to appoint a reconstruction minister.

Several ministerial changes with "some surprises" were predicted by the newspaper.

Tornado in South

New Orleans, Nov. 8. (UP)—Ten persons were reported today to have been killed and more than 150 injured as a result of a series of tornadoes which struck communities in three gulf coast states during the week end.

Manufacturers of electrical appliances reported that no Christmas tree lights have been produced since 1942, and the only ones available this year will be from stock carried over.

BACK THE ATTACK WITH BONDS

The number of merchant ships lost during the August-October period was not disclosed. Reports from other sources, which do not give a complete picture, listed one vessel lost in October, seven in September and none in August. An unofficial United Press compilation shows that as of Oct. 30, allied losses in 1942 and so far in 1943 in all waters total 818 vessels. The Atlantic alone totaled 768, of which 670 were in 1942.

Disloyal Japs Prepare Weapons From Auto Springs

Knives Reported Manufactured by the Japanese at Tule Lake Camp—Claim Japs Coddled

Tule Lake, Cal., Nov. 9. (UP)—Japanese at the Tule Lake segregation center dismantled government automobiles to make knives from the springs, according to testimony before an investigating committee of state senators today.

Witnesses testified that in addition to the knives they fashioned, the Japanese stole 1,000 butcher knives. The testimony was heard by a committee of four state senators investigating the recent riot which forced the army to take over the center.

Employees of the center testified that inmates were "coddled" by officials of the War Relocation Authority, and that they refused to obey orders.

John P. Stubbs, procurement officer at the camp, told the committee that "social service workers" in the WRA believed U. S. army work clothing was "not good enough for the Japs." As a result, he said, a warehouse full of the clothing remains unused.

N. C. Wilkinson, former superintendent of the project's packing house, testified that there was a "tremendous waste in the WRA."

"The Japs destroyed parts of hogs and threw meat into the 'hog graveyard,'" he said.

Ray R. Best, director of the center, testified that he called upon the military to take control of the camp last Thursday night because Japanese internees violated his orders not to congregate around administration buildings.

Best said he heard "several shots" when troops moved into the camp. He said he "presumed" the shots were fired by soldiers, although earlier testimony said camp guards also used guns.
