

Santa Claus

COMING TO

Plattsmouth

Saturday

December 18

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M.

Definite assurance has been received that Santa Claus will be here on this coming Saturday to greet the youngsters of the Community, as the committee in charge have received assurance that the trip will be made by plane and Santa will be here on time. The entrance into the city, he will have to make landing at some spot outside of the city and make his entry by car or jeep.

The committee have arranged that Santa will have treats for the children on the day of his visit, apples and oranges being selected as gifts for the youngsters.

The American Legion has arranged that Santa may have his headquarters at their building on Vine street where he can receive the children in comfort for all.
