W.C.T.U.

Mrs. Orin Lanning entertained the W.C.T.U., at her home last Friday afternoon.

The president opened the meeting and all joined in singing "There's a Long, Long Trail." After a short business session, Mrs. Clyde West presented an interesting lesson on "New Trails for Peace." She gave each person there some new thoughts on this vital problem which will confront everyone in the future even more than at the present time as we follow the trail for the "Peace" that must come to the world. It is important that each person, our churches, public institutions, and various organizations and our units of government work together and make the right contributions for a lasting peace.

The visitors were Mrs. Walter Jacobmeier, Mrs. John Vickers and granddaughter, Christy Ann Schneider, Dorothea Keil and Mary Ellen Moore.

The hostess served a delicious lunch at the close of the afternoon.

Graduates Second Class

Both groups of students were commissioned lieutenants. Lieutenant Fischer was graduated at Freeman Field in August 1943 after receiving a diploma from the air mechanics school at Sheppard Field in 1942. He received a safe flying award during basic flying training at Walnut Ridge, Ark.

George Grover Trimble

George Grover Trimble was born in Otoe county on a farm about half way between Eagle and Palmyra, Nebraska, on June 14, 1888. He passed from this life on January 15, 1944, aged 55 years, 7 months and 1 day. He was married to Carrie Waite on June 14, 1921. They started their wedded life at Eagle where they have always maintained their home. Since their home was childless and they each had a deep love for children and in intense interest in their development, they took Merna Stradley into their home nine years ago, which added much to their enjoyment and pleasure. George united with the Methodist church at Syracuse, Nebraska in 1904, was a member of the Palmyra American Legion and also of Canopy Lodge 209, A. F. & A. M., at Elmwood. For almost 20 years, he has been in business in Eagle where he has served the community not only in a business way, but as a real friend with a helping hand for everyone. He leaves his wife, Carrie; a daughter, Merna; two brothers, Blanchard and Clyde of Los Angeles, California; two sisters, Mrs. Cora Vinson of Lincoln and Mrs. Alma Stewart of Fairmont. His father, mother, two brothers and a sister preceded him in death.

IN MY FATHER'S HOUSE

No, not cold beneath the grasses,
Not close-walled within the tomb;
Rather, in my Father's mansion,
Living in another room.

Living, like the one who loves me,
Like my child with cheeks a bloom,
Out of sight, at desk or school-book,
Busy in another room.

Shall I doubt my Father's mercy?
Shall I think of death as doom,
Or the stepping o'er the threshold
To a bigger, brighter room?

Shall I blame my Father's wisdom?
Shall I sit enswathed in gloom,
When I know my loves are happy
Waiting in the other room?

—Robert Freeman.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist church of Eagle, Tuesday afternoon, January 18, with Rev. George A. Morey officiating. Mrs. Marvin Carr was at the piano and also accompanied Oryl Lee Fischer, Mrs. John Fischer, Mrs. Fred Rudolph and Fred Rudolph as they sang three hymns, "No Night There," "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and "It Is Well With My Soul."

The pallbearers were G. H. Palmer of Pickrell, Theodore Spahnle of Lincoln, Ivan Caddy, Ernie Thomas, Henry Wetenkamp and George Trunkenholz.

Both the American Legion and members of Canopy Lodge 209 A. F. & A. M. had a part in the service conducted at the Eagle cemetery.
