Hear from Soldier Son

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Daniel, Sr. of this city have received a letter from their son, Pfc. Everett Daniels who is now with the American army overseas. Everett is somewhere in Italy and is well and feeling fine. He writes that recently on a trip to some of the Italian cities he had the pleasure of a visit with S/Sgt. Wallace Terryberry and Cpl. Carl Hofacker, both of this city. The local boys had a fine visit with each other during the leave period.

Our boys must keep on fighting—we must keep on buying WAR BONDS until victory is won. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

Enjoys Skiing Party

Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Kelley have received word from their daughter, Miss Lawanna, of Los Angeles that she has just returned from an outing in the Yosemite valley in California. She accompanied a group of friends from Los Angeles and they enjoyed their first experience in skiing. The local girl enjoyed it very much and was able to learn the art in excellent shape and felt a great thrill at the experience.

START WILKIE HEADQUARTERS

Lincoln, Nebr., Feb. 22. (UP)—Emmet S. Brumbaugh, general chairman of the Nebraska Wilkie for President committee, announced today the opening of outstate headquarters of the organization in Room 215 of Hotel Lincoln. Mr. Brumbaugh stated that an active campaign would begin at once in behalf of Mr. Wilkie's candidacy and continue up to the time of the primary election on April 11. Petitions will be filed with the secretary of state next week to place Wilkie's name on the Nebraska ballot for the Republican presidential nomination. No slate of delegates will be filed, he said, as outstanding Nebraska Republicans are already in the race to represent Nebraska at the national convention in June and Mr. Wilkie believes these men will carry out the wishes of Nebraska Republicans and be guided largely by the vote in the preferential primary. Omaha headquarters of the Wilkie organization will be opened soon under the personal direction of Mr. Brumbaugh.

MRS. GAHNDI DIES

Bambay, Feb. 22. (UP)—Mrs. Mohandas K. Gandhi, wife of the Indian nationalist leader, died at 7:35 P. M. today at the Aga Khan's palace at Poona. She had been suffering from heart attacks for some time and her condition became grave several days ago.

Gospel Services

The Gospel service being held in the Library auditorium, are continuing this week. Meetings each evening Tuesday to Friday (inclusive) at 8 o'clock. Our message is "Jesus Only" as Savior, Lord and Example for all. You are heartily invited to attend these services. Come and bring your friends. John Good, George Boyle Ministers

An Appreciation

I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the many friends for their thoughtful acts while I was at the hospital at Omaha. The remembrances of cards, flowers, calls and gifts made my stay much more pleasant than otherwise. Mrs. Clarence Engelkemeier

VOTE COMPROMISE PROPOSED

Washington, Feb. 22. (UP)—Senate House conferees turned their attention today to a new compromise soldier vote plan which pointed to a possible settlement of the complicated issue that has kept congress in an uproar for almost three months. The plan offered by Rep. Eugene Worley, D. Tex., a house conferee, would abolish the anti-poll tax provision of the 1942 soldier vote law but would retain a federal war ballot.

Rep. John Rankin, leader of the fight for the House, approved state's right plan indicated that Worley's proposal would prove the way out.

HONOR LOCAL LADY

The Campfire organizations of this city are much pleased over an honor that has come to one of their untiring workers, Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, and is also a tribute to their excellent work. Mrs. Bernhardt, who has served as the area secretary, was Tuesday made a member of the Omaha council, this tying Plattsmouth in with the work of the Campfire in Omaha and the adjacent territory in a radius of fifty miles. Mrs. Bernhardt has been a very active figure in the Campfire girls work and in the past three years the Campfire enrollment here has risen from nine to the figure of fifty, this being recognized as one of the largest increases in the small cities. The new position of Mrs. Bernhardt will give the local campfire groups the advantages of the benefits of the larger area.

ATTEND CHURCH MEETING

Tuesday evening Omaha had the pleasure of hearing Rev. Henry Sloan Coffin, moderator of the Presbyterian church of the United States, one of the leading religious leaders of the United States. Rev. Coffin has just recently returned home from England and brought a very inspiring message to the people of Nebraska. The meeting was held at the First Presbyterian church at 36th and Farnam streets, the structure being filled to its capacity by the members of the church and many from out in the state. The moderator brought a ringing message of the present day and of the stand that the church and its people must hold in the coming post war world to assure that a permanent and durable peace was to be guaranteed and the nations not to be forced into war in the next twenty to twenty-five years. Among the members of the Presbyterian church from this city to attend were Dr. H. G. McClusky, R. W. Knorr, Frank A. Cloldt, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Iverson, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Perry and daughter, Elizabeth, Mary Kay Gorder, Darlene White, Mrs. Luke, Mrs. E. H. Bernhardt, Mrs. Guy White and daughter, Annis, Donald Skalak, Donald Bowman, Betty Ann Albert.

Only Received Word
Mr. and Mrs. George Conis of this city have been greatly annoyed from the effects of the notice of a birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Conis at Perry, Iowa, appearing in the Journal. The name of the parents was omitted from the article and as the result George and his wife have been receiving undue congratulations.
An Appreciation
I wish to gratefully thank all of the kind friends that remembered me while in the hospital. The personal calls, cards, flowers and gifts made my enforced stay at the hospital more pleasant.
Roy Howard
