Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wood were called to Norfolk last Thursday evening on account of the death of Mrs. Wood's aunt, Mrs. B. Chamberlain, whose funeral was held Friday. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Knuttgen and two sons, of Omaha, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Berthold, Sunday. Mr. Knuttgen is to leave very soon for the Army, and arrangements were made while they were here Sunday, for Mrs. Knuttgen and Mrs. Berthold to live together at the Berthold home while their husbands are in the service of their country. They were schoolmates at Nebraska City, and have been lifelong friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kirchoff, of Eagle, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirchoff Sunday and at the home of Mr. Dick Kirchoff, who had been quite ill during the past week.

Mrs. George Miller and two children and Mrs. Gerald Stovall left Tuesday for Columbus, S. C., where their husbands are in the U. S. army camp.

Mrs. Herbert Cappen spent Sunday at Leavenworth visiting her husband who is to leave this week for further training.

Mrs. Elmer Pearson of Manley was visiting in Weeping Water Saturday.

Willa Waldo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard H. Waldo, is one of the latest to be kept at home with the mumps.

Charles Hitchman, regional manager of the Federal Land Bank of Omaha, and M. J. Meurer, insurance specialist for the Federal Land Bank, were Weeping Water visitors Friday, bringing with them the insurance policies, which are connected with the loans made by the Otoe-Cass Farm Loan Association office at Weeping Water, so that they may be available whenever needed.

Richard Keckler arrived here Monday from Farragut, Idaho, for a nine days furlough with his wife, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler.

North Branch church are taking collections for the Red Cross each Sunday during the Red Cross campaign. Their first Sunday's collection was a little over $101. We will report the other collection later. These collections are divided, we are informed by one of their members, and half of the amount is given to the Cass county fund and the other half to the Otoe county fund, as the church is close to the county line, and their members come from both counties.

Rev. and Mrs. John H. Pryor were Lincoln visitors Monday afternoon.

Mrs. William Peters has been ill for the past week, but we are told that she is much improved at this time.

We met Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panonin Monday. They were in town laying in a supply of groceries as they had been unable to get into town on account of the condition of the two and a half miles of road leading to their farm home from the main highway.

Miss Anna Hart entertained the Knickerbocker Bridge club at her home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Parsons and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Parsons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hall, at Bennett.

Mrs. Roy Walter left last week for Stark, Florida, to be near her husband, who is stationed at Camp Blanding.

Weeping Water High school seniors have chosen "Act Your Age" as their annual class play. Cast and date are not yet to be decided. Mrs. Frank Elgaard is to be the director.

Mr. Ole Olsen entertained Mrs. Gisen, Rev. and Mrs. John H. Pryor and Mrs. Thomas Murty at a dinner at Mac's Cafe dining room, honoring Mrs. Olsen, as it was her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Rasmusen were married thirty-five years ago, Thursday, March 16. Owing to the bad condition of the roads they celebrated Sunday afternoon, when they had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rehmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Rehmeier, Cpl. and Mrs. Arnold Dettmer, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meegensen, and Mrs. and Mrs. Karl Fehrsen.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ehlers, Friday, March 17, a son. Mother and son are reported to be getting along nicely. This is Mr. and Mrs. Ehler's third child, and their second son.

Mrs. Ernest Jamesen

Mrs. Ernest Jamesen, 78, was born September 16, 1866, at Burg-hill, Ohio, and died at her home at Weeping Water, Saturday March 18. Emma Strain was the daughter of Samuel Strain and Lovica Hutchins Strain. Coming to Nebraska to visit her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchins, she met Ernest Jamesen, whose parents lived on a nearby farm. September 5, 1888 Ernest Jamesen and Emma Strain were married and immediately came to Weeping Water, and began house-keeping on a farm southeast of Weeping Water. There their four children were born, and they remained on the farm until 1910 when they moved into town, where their children attended school and were graduated from the Weeping Water High school.

Mr. Jamesen preceded his wife in death in the year 1941. Mrs. Jamesen's health has been failing for several years, and the loss of her beloved husband, and war conditions which have taken her loved ones away from home, have preyed heavily on her mind. Three weeks ago she became worse and her daughter, Miss Cleo Jamesen, a trained nurse, in Chicago, was called here and has remained to care for her mother. Her son Ray was also with her.

Mrs. Jamesen leaves to mourn her passing, four children, Mrs. Hazel Love, Palm Beach, Fla.; Miss Cleo Jamesen, Chicago; Ray Jamesen, Weeping Water and Don Jamesen, Chicago. Three grandchildren, M/Sgt Wainwright Love, Alexandria, La.; Mrs. H. B. Thomas, West Palm Beach, Fla., and Lt. Richard Love, of the Navy Flying Corps, who is somewhere in the South Pacific. One brother, Charles Strain, Cleveland, Ohio.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at Hobson's funeral home, with Rev. W. D. Lenker in charge of the services, and special music was furnished by Mrs. Henry Ruhga and Mrs. Herbert Ratnour, with Miss Maude Moulten accompanying. Pallbearers were William Jamesen, Homer Jamesen, Fred Allen, Ralph Keckler, Troy Jewell and Bert Jamesen. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

Miss Freda Heneger
Miss Freda Heneger, 41, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Heneger was born April 22, 1903, on a farm southwest of Weeping Water, and passed away March 14, at Beatrice, Nebraska, of complications following the Flu.

Miss Heneger leaves four brothers, Gordon and Ed Heneger of Weeping Water, Lee Heneger of Lincoln, and Harvey Heneger of Laramie, Wyoming; three sisters, Mrs. George Domingo of Weeping Water, Mrs. Charles Ogan of Council Bluffs, and Miss Eula Heneger of Beatrice.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Hobson funeral home, with Rev. W. D. Lenker officiating. Mrs. Henry Ruhga and Mrs. Herbert Ratnour sang two songs, accompanied by Miss Maude Moulten. Pallbearers were Frank Domingo, Art Barkhurst, Charles Gibson, Marion Spangler, Walter Andersen and Renos Anderson. Interment was in Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heneger of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogan of Council Bluffs came to Weeping Water to attend the funeral.

A letter received by the Clifford Coopers from Tom Edgmon, tells of his hopes of a furlough very soon. Tom has been stationed in Greenland for several months. He will go to Arkansas to visit his parents and hopes to make a short visit in this vicinity before his furlough expires.

His father suffered severe injuries recently, when he cut his leg badly while chopping wood.

Jack Herman has come from the University of Nebraska, for a visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Herman, as he expects to leave for induction into the Navy, March 28.

Mrs. Frank Wood, of York, wrote to friends here this week, that her brother-in-law, Perry Walker, of Courtland, Kansas, passed away in February, and that her brother, Bert Jennings, who went to attend the funeral was taken very ill, and has just recovered sufficiently to return home. Both Mr. Walker and Mr. Jennings are well known here, as they visited at the Wood home quite often while they lived here.

Cecilia Bowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bowers, is at St. Elizabeth hospital recovering from an operation.

Again we hear that "Cass County is Over the Top" in the Red Cross drive. Mrs. Ray Norris received this report from Judge Paul Fauquet, county Red Cross Drive chairman, the first of the week. Owing to the muddy condition of the roads, off the main highways, some chairman have been unable to complete their canvass. Judge Fauquet and his able corps of workers are to be congratulated on the fine report, and the fine spirit of co-operation which has been evident during the drive.

Tuesday, March 21, was Edwin G. Steckley's birthday, and Mrs. Steckley invited twenty-one guests for a surprise birthday dinner to be held at Mac's Cafe dining room. Mr. Steckley had been in Lincoln that afternoon and it took some coaxing to get him into town for dinner during the heavy snow, which came that afternoon. The center of attraction on the table was a three-tiered birthday cake. Miss Grace Steckley came down from Lincoln with her father and was present at the dinner. Owing to the storm his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Steckley, and Mrs. Edwin J. Steckley, of Lincoln, were unable to be present. After dinner all adjourned to the Steckley home, where the evening was spent playing bridge.

Home Extension leaders held a meeting at the auditorium Tuesday afternoon, when reports were heard and plans discussed for next year's program.

Mr. and Mrs. Mogens Johnson had as their Sunday guests, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of Avoca, and Miss Audrey Blake of Louisville, who is a teacher at Avoca.

A talk with the new proprietors at Ft. George indicates that they are well pleased with their new location and the business there. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Beming, of Syracuse took charge of the filling station and tourists cottages, March 1. Their daughter, Mrs. Carl Gess, whose husband is in the Navy, is making her home with them. Harold Nichols, the former manager, has moved to Havelock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Steckley have received word that their son, Lt. Edwin Steckley, is in England.

Saturday, March 17, was Mr. and Mrs. Fred Allen's thirtieth wedding anniversary. As their store is a very busy place on Saturdays, they postponed their celebration until the
