Home Economic Agent Resigns Post Effective May 1st

Miss Jessie Baldwin Will Leave Post Where She Has Served So Efficiently and Well for 15 Years

Cass county people will regret very much to learn that Miss Jessie Baldwin, Cass county home demonstration agent, has tendered her resignation of the post, making the announcement on Monday, Mar. 27. She is hopeful of being relieved of her post by the first of May.

Miss Baldwin first came to this position in July, 1928, and has served the interests of the extension department in excellent shape. She is personally known to thousands over the county and her contact with club leaders has made her especially valuable in getting the many useful programs in the conservation and production of food, home aids, and development of businesslike methods of handling the home, sewing, canning and all lines of the home aids.

Miss Baldwin has been a great help to the leaders of the 4-H club work of the county and here she will be greatly missed.

It is the understanding here that Miss Baldwin will continue to make her home in Weeping Water, which will be very pleasing to the many friends.
