

EAGLE

Special Journal Correspondence

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rudolph and Fae Ellen spent last Thursday evening and Friday at Nelson, Nebr., with Miss Phyllis Rudolph, who teaches there. While there they attended the grade school operetta "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," in which Miss Rudolph's pupils participated.

Mrs. Carrie Trimble and Miss Mierna Stradley were in Lincoln last week and as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Spahnle.

A number of Eagle friends attended the wedding of Miss Betty Kende, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kende and Robert Taylor last Saturday evening in Lincoln. Those from Eagle who were in attendance were: Miss Jill Caddy, who is a cousin of the bride, lighted the tapers, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Caddy, Mrs. Ada Wettenkamp, Mrs. Dallas Fifer, Mrs. Carrie Trimble, Miss Mierna Stradley and Mrs. Clyde Wenzel and daughter, Helen Marie.

Seaman George Caddy has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Caddy and other relatives during the past week.

Mrs. Gorge Unruh entertained the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon of this week. She was assisted by Mrs. E. C. Oberle, Mrs. E. A. Schuelke and Mrs. Ruth Jensen, who were welcome members. Mrs. A. H. Siskman and Mrs. Ed Francke were visitors.

During the past week Harold Scattergood and family moved to the farm southwest of Eagle which he will farm the coming year. Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Fifer moved into the house vacated by the Scattergood family.

Mrs. Wesley Walsh

Emma May Rudolph was born on a farm southwest of Eagle, March 26, 1893, and passed away at a Lincoln hospital on the eve of her 51st birthday, March 25, 1944. She was the daughter of Charles and Caroline Rudolph, early settlers of this community. With the exception of three years in Syracuse, her entire lifetime was spent near Eagle.

On September 1, 1913, she was united in marriage to Wesley Walsh, and for thirty years they lived on a farm a short distance from her birthplace. She was preceded in death by her father and mother and an infant son.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Mabel Weyers of Eagle, and Mrs. Selma Weyers of Elmwood; three sisters, Mrs. Theresa Burdick, Mrs. Freda Wall and Mrs. Elsie Unland; three brothers, John, Joe and Fred Rudolph, all of Eagle; four grandchildren and other relatives. She was devoted to her family and home. Her grandchildren were a great joy to her, and she was tireless in her love and devotion to them. Her garden of flowers will be remembered by those who knew her. Through her long illness she suffered patiently until she was called to the Great Beyond.

I cannot say and I will not say
That she is dead—she is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand

She has wandered into an unknown land

And left us dreaming how very full
It needs must be since she lingers there.

And you, Oh, you, who the wildest yearn

For the old-time step and the glad return.

Think of her faring on as dear

In the love of there as the love of here.

Think of her still as the same, I say
She is not dead—she is just away.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in the Methodist church with Rev. George A. Morey in charge. A quartette composed of Miss Betty Ross, Miss Lois Peterson, Ory Lee Fischer and Robert Konhove sang three beautiful hymns, "Going Down the Valley," "The Old Rugged Cross," and "The Garden of Prayer." Mrs. John Fischer was at the piano.

The pallbearers were Carl Norton and Hugh Norris of Lincoln, Herbert Oberle, Bert Dopp, Fred Manners and Frank Boesewetter.

Burial was in the Eagle cemetery.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness and thoughtfulness to us in the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother. We especially wish to thank those who took part in the funeral service and sent the floral tributes.

Funeral of Mrs. Newland

The funeral services were held Tuesday at the First Christian church for Mrs. William Newland, former resident of this city, a large number of the old friends being in attendance at the services.

Rev. J. W. Tannenler, pastor of the church conducted the service and brought the message of the scriptures as well as paying tribute to the life of the departed.

During the services Mrs. C. J.

White and Mrs. J. L. Hodges gave three numbers, "Rock of Ages," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" with Mrs. O. C. Hudson as the accompanist.

The burial was at the Oak Hill cemetery with members of the family serving as pallbearers, Ray Harring, Harry Tineher, Guy Long, Louis Spry, Clifford Black of Omaha, and Earl Winscott.

ANNOUNCEMENT

This week we are introducing to Plattsmouth the new manager of the Cass Drug Store — Mr. Fred Feldhausen.

In bringing Mr. Feldhausen to our city we have chosen a Registered Pharmacist of wide experience in the retail field. Prior to his coming here he was located at Wahoo, Nebraska for one year and at Tecumseh as manager for ten years, and owned his own store for five years. He brings with him the experience necessary to properly take care of your needs, to render the type of service you have a right to expect, and to compound your prescriptions accurately — just as your Doctor has written them.

Mr. Feldhausen is a past commander of the American Legion and has always been active in the Chamber of Commerce and in all civic affairs.

We take great pleasure in presenting our Mr. Feldhausen to you—
