State of Nebraska, County of Cass, ss:
I, Geo. R. Sayles, County Clerk of Cass County, Nebraska, do hereby certify that the Sample Republican, Sample Democrat and Sample Non Political Ballots published in this newspaper are true and correct copies of the Official Ballots to be used at the Primary Election to be held in Cass County, Nebraska, on Tuesday, April 11, 1944.

Witness my hand and the Seal of my office at Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, this 3rd day of April, 1944.

Geo. R. Sayles,
County Clerk, Cass County, Nebraska

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH "A Community Church" UNION, NEBRASKA T. Porter Bennett, Pastor

9:30 "The Easter Message" with a baptismal services and reception into membership. The church is an organization of members who desire to advance the Kingdom of God on earth. All are invited to unite with this church.

10:30 The Church School. Donald McQuinn, general superintendent. Shall we make this the largest attendance this year?

7:10 Youth Fellowship. Miss Ruth Enoades, president; Miss Vurlin Meakins, counselor. That was a good meeting last Sunday night. All of our young people should attend.

UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH Murray, Nebraska B. M. Dobbin, D. D., Minister

The Women's Missionary Society meets Friday this week at the church, one week earlier than usual. There will be special Easter music as well as an Easter sermon on next Sabbath. Probably also an infant baptism.

"We smiled when the young mother took her three-weeks-old son to church, so that he would always be in the habit of going to church," but forty years later when we saw him assisting in the communion, we remembered his mother's words."—Woodruff.

Here for Visit
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Martin of Princeton, Illinois, arrived in the city last evening for a visit here over the Easter season with their old friends and neighbors. They arrived in Omaha on Wednesday evening. They are house guests here of Captain and Mrs. W. S. Eaton and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin report that their son, Donald Martin, is now attending Westminster college, Fulton, Mo., where he is taking pre-medical training.
