Rev. and Mrs. John H. Pryor, Mrs. Ole Olsen, Mrs. Mogens Johnson and Miss Esther Tefft went to Fremont, Tuesday to attend the state conference of Congregational churches. They expect to return home today (Thursday.)

It will be of interest to Cass county people to know that Rev. Everett Jackman, who sang at the funeral services for Rev. W. D. Lenker, Monday afternoon, was a former Cass county man. We are informed that he was born at Louisville, and later his father, Charles C. Jackman, bought a farm west of Weeping Water where Peter Petersen now lives. That was their home for several years. Rev. Jackman is now pastor of the Hanscom Park Methodist church in Omaha, and was pastor of one of the large churches of Boston before coming to Omaha.

Speaking of former Weeping Water people, we learned recently that Florence Wilkinson, sister of H. C. Wilkinson, is now living at San Jose, California, within a block of her sister, the former Nan Wilkinson, and Florence's brother, Frank, lives within forty miles of San Jose. And while we are talking about the Wilkinson family we will add that Harry Wilkinson was in town a few hours recently, after having been on a business trip to Omaha, and he gave the information that his two sons are in the army; one in Oklahoma, the other taking radio instruction in South Carolina. Harry has been in the banking business at Curtis, Neb., for a great many years.

Mrs. Andrew Fredrickson has been very ill for the past two weeks. Mrs. Kane Fredrickson came from Detroit, Michigan the first part of last week, and has been caring for her. Her son, Kane, arrived Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller are the proud parents of a daughter, whom they have named Rose Ann. She was born Tuesday, April 18, at their home in Weeping Water, and weighed eight pounds.

Miss Anna Rauth of Omaha spent the week end with relatives, the John Rauths and the Herman Rauths.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cole visited their daughter, Mrs. F. L. Swindle, at Lincoln, Sunday. While there they also visited at the Ora Cole home.

The Albert Lloyds have moved from the Charles Gerlick farm to the tenant house on Mrs. Anna Mohr's farm.

A deal has been closed on the sale of the brick building on Main street, formerly occupied by the Cleaning establishment, and owned by Troy L. Davis. Lawrence Wiseman has bought the building, and will move his business there very soon, and later he and his wife expect to live in the apartment on the second floor.

Rev. and Mrs. John H. Pryor took a group of young people from the Scrooby club to Lincoln where they attended the State Pilgrim Fellowship Rally held at the Vine Street Congregational church, with afternoon and evening meetings. Those accompanying Rev. and Mrs. Pryor were Martha Wallick, Opal Reehle, Jane and Dorothy Molden, Jim Specht and David Olive.

Mrs. Edward Dowler of Omaha attended the funeral of Rev. Lenker Monday afternoon.

Mrs. M. C. Hansen of Elba is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Chris Hansen and other relatives in this community.

Sunday visitors at the Clifford Cooper home were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Rhodes and family.

The Weeping Water High school senior class play will be given Friday evening of this week, with Mrs. Frank Elgaard acting as their coach. "Act Your Age," a three-act comedy, promises to be both interesting and merry.

Two of our Weeping Water girls have been invited to go to Bellevue to assist in special music at an evangelistic meeting at the new Christian church chapel, some time during May. Miss Nina Fremant will lead the singing and Miss Rose Mae Livingston will be the accompanist, for one week of the meetings. While at Bellevue, they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Pumpfun. The Weeping Water Christian church choir will furnish special music for two of the services, also.

Baier — Edgmon

We have two weddings to report this week. The first one is that of Miss Emma Baier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Baier of Avoca, and S/Sgt. Tom Edgmon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alec Edgmon, former residents of Weeping Water, who were married Wednesday, April 12, 1944, at Fayetteville, Arkansas. They were accompanied to Fayetteville by the bride's sister, Mrs. James Edgmon. The happy couple spent a few days at the home of the groom's parents at Kingston, Arkansas, after which the groom returned to his station on the eastern coast, and the bride returned to her position at the Fort Crook Bomber plant, to do her bit toward ending the war sooner.

Holt — Tuma

Miss Betty Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holt, and Sgt. David Tuma, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tuma of Aurora, Nebraska, were united in marriage April 21, 1944, at Omaha, and came to Weeping Water for a visit with the bride's parents and then to Aurora to the groom's parents before leaving for California, where the groom is stationed. Sunday, April 2, there was a family gathering at the home of the bride's parents honoring the newly wedded couple, with the following guests attending: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peck and family of Nebraska City; Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Hansen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Holt and family, and Mrs. M. C. Hansen.

All business houses in Weeping Water were closed Monday afternoon during the funeral services for the late Rev. W. D. Lenker. The Methodist church was filled with friends of the deceased wishing to pay homage to one to the most loyal friends which they ever had had. The main auditorium was filled to overflowing, and a loud speaker was placed in the basement, and that was filled with seats. Others were standing.

Dr. Charles B. Hankins of Omaha, who gave the funeral address, said "Walter Duncan Lenker had few superiors as a representative of God. He was a great man, a great friend and a lover of God. He was an eternal optimist, and an idealist, who never allowed his ideals to grow dim." Dr. Everett E. Jackman, pastor of Hanscom Park Methodist Church, Omaha, sang three numbers, "Abide With Me," "One More Day's Work For Jesus," and "Oh Love That Will Not Let Me Go." Rev. John N. Pryor, pastor of the Weeping Water Congregational church, gave the opening prayer. Miss Maude Moulten presided at the pipe organ.

A delightful family gathering was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Wiles for Mrs. Earl C. Wiles, Jr., whose marriage to Sgt. Earl C. Wiles, Jr., took place while he was on a furlough a short time ago. Mrs. James Wiles and Mrs. George P. Wiles were the hostesses and provided an interesting afternoon of visiting and directed the playing of Beano, which all enjoyed. Those attending were the bride, Mrs. Earl C. Wiles, Jr., Mrs. Mary Wiles, Mrs. Charles Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wiles and family; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wiles and son; Mrs. Troy Wiles, Mrs. Roy Wipf, Mrs. Jean Jones, Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. Malvin Wiles, Mrs. Stella Wiles, Mr. and Mrs. James Wiles and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. George Wiles and family. Some very beautiful gifts were presented to the guest of honor, and to the grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Mary Wiles, and to the mother of the bride, were presented each a lovely dish as a reminder of the occasion.

A meeting was held at Weeping Water Monday evening to talk over the possibilities of a war prisoners camp to be housed in the CCC camp buildings in the south part of town. The pressing need of farm and canning factory workers in Cass county, and the vacant camp buildings, are all being considered.

No Smoking, Please!

Watch that fat! When you see it smoking in the skillet, turn off the gas. Smoking indicates that fat is beginning to break down chemically, and will soon develop a disagreeable flavor so that it cannot be reused for cooking. If the worst happens, however, and the fat is ruined all is not lost. Deposit the discredited brown mess in your used fat container and turn it over to the meat dealer for ration points and cash. Because of its salvage value it can still work for the war if not for you.
