Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Knutten and two sons, left Tuesday for Pasco, Washington, where Mr. Knutten has a position with the DuPont Construction Co.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elgaard (June Hinds) and their two children Jean and Robert, of Marysville, Mo., spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elgaard and Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hinds.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rains, Francis Rains and Mrs. Troy Jewell attended the wedding of Miss Edith May, Alexander of Oklahoma, to Dale Alberg, of Grand Junction, Colo., which was at nine o'clock at the Union College church. The bride and groom were members of this year's graduation class at Union college. Mr. Alberg will be remembered as the young man who conducted meetings in Weeping Water, last winter.

Mrs. LeRoy Sell is visiting Mr. Sell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Sell, LeRoy, Ark. Mrs. Sell is in California. She expects to join him there in the near future.

Owing to the fact that the young lady who takes care of Marsha Thurlund, while her parents are at work at the bomber plant, is enjoying a vacation with a case of the mumps, Mrs. Thurlund and Marsha of Bellevue have been staying with Mrs. Thurlund's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gibson, for the past two weeks, and she joins the group who go from Weeping Water each afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Barkhurst and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heneger were Omaha visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wiles and Mrs. Homer Jamosen were Lincoln visitors Monday.

Visiting at the Clarence Pool home this week are Mrs. George Colbert and her daughter, Mrs. Colbert Brown, both of Wauwata. These ladies have many friends in this community, as this was their former home.

Miss Hazel Pool went to Lincoln to attend the Baccalaureate services of the State University, Sunday, and remained for Commencement exercises Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Doderidge, (Charlotte Hungate), of Lawrence, Kansas, were in town for a few hours Tuesday and called on many of their old friends while here. Your writer was their guest at lunch at the J & M cafe, and we had a good visit talking over the whereabouts of friends. They reported that their brother-in-law, Colonel Floyd Bennett, is now located at San Diego, after many months on the Pacific ocean. Mrs. Bennett (Mary Hungate) visited at the Doderidge home in Lawrence last week, enroute to attend the graduation of her son Walker G. Bennett, at Annapolis, expecting to spend some time with friends at Philadelphia on the way. Their daughter, Marigold Walker, attended college at Barbank the past year and now expects to enter training for the nurses corps. They also visited Dr. James B. Hungate last week, and found that he is not so well this spring. He is now 87 years of age.

Miss Jessie Baldwin, Miss Maude Baldwin and Mrs. John Robinson were co-hostesses at a bridge dessert Monday afternoon at the J & M cafe, with 28 guests, when Mrs. John Robinson of St. Louis, and Mrs. Herbert Lohnes were guests of honor.

Mrs. Herbert Lohnes (Eldora Baldwin) and two sons, have come to Weeping Water to make their home while Mr. Lohnes is in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stratton and their two sons, Dannie and Davie, went to Gretna Monday evening to attend the graduation of Mrs. Stratton's nephew, William Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fox, from the Gretna High school. Enroute there they stopped at the home of Mrs. Stratton's mother, Mrs. Louisa Sals.

and took her and a sister, Mrs. Bertha Barkhurst with them to Gretna. Weeping Water Alumni banquet was held Saturday evening at the Agricultural auditorium with 91 guests present. The theme for the evening was "Victory Garden." Tables for the banquet were set in V-shape, with a large V-shaped table where the members of the alumni sat. Within the large V-shape table was a smaller one for the guests of honor, the 1944 graduating class. The speakers table was a straight table across the point of the large V. Within the smaller V table was a garden scene, with wheelbarrow, two scare crows and an abundance of flowers. Miniature wheelbarrows and watering pots overflowing with flowers, and low bowls of flowers were on the table. The color scheme was carried out with yellow tulips and purple iris, and in the place cards of white interlaced with narrow purple ribbon forming the code for victory—three dots and a dash. In one corner was a gold colored box. Favors were bright colored seed packets filled with candy corn. All this beauty of the floral "Victory Garden" did not detract from the excellent menu provided by the ladies of the Congregational church, as follows: Baked ham, potatoes au gratin, asparagus tips, spring salad, rolls, butter and jelly, coffee, strawberry shortcake. Programs were printed on gold color paper and tied like a scroll.

Mary Allen at the piano played during the seating of the guests. Victor Walliek gave the Address of Welcome, and Peggy Amick gave the response. Marguerite Stohlman and Leta Gabel, delighted the guests with their piano accordion duet, and were called back twice. L. A. Behrens, superintendent, introduced the "new crop" of seniors, after which the three Everett sisters, Margaret, Shirley and Barbara, sang two numbers, with the fourth sister, Mary, accompanying them. Mrs. Frank Marshall then presented some surprise awards—a corsage and a boutonniere to the two oldest members present. They were Miss Mildred Hart and Carl E. Day. To the two youngest members, Ruth Jean Gibson and Bob Clark, went a corsage and a boutonniere. A white rose was presented to each member of the graduating class. She then introduced Jean G. Jones, who paid tribute to all members of the alumni association who are in the service. As a finale to the delightful evening all sang "God Bless America," with Miss Mary Allen accompanying at the piano.

Presiding as toastmistress was Mrs. Harlan Gibson, who had been uniting in her efforts to make this year's meeting a success. Mrs. Wilbur Leng, vice president, and Robert Keckler, sec-treas., were the other members of her committee. Mrs. J. P. Grow was the chairman of the decorating committee, and much credit goes to her for the fitting decorations.

Newly elected officers for the coming year are: President—Mrs. Edwin G. Steckley; Vice President—Mrs. Eugene Day; Sec-Treas.—Wilbur Fitzpatrick. One member was present who had attended forty-nine consecutive meetings of the alumni association. She is Miss Mildred Hart our beloved city librarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Suddith report that a message from their daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Downs, of Lincoln, said that her two children now have the measles. During the past winter they have been unfortunate enough to have whooping cough, scarlet fever and the mumps, which they had thought to be all that was coming to them during one winter.

Some time ago we told about a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Heneger from their son, Lieut. James Heneger, who is stationed at New Caledonia, telling of his joy at finding an article in the Yank's Magazine from his home town of Weeping Water, and that was the article about Mrs. E. M. Ruby's postage stamp quilt. Within the past few days Mrs. Ruby has had two letters about seeing the article. The first letter was from Harlan Haith, who is in New Guinea, telling of his delight at seeing something from his home town, and especially about one of his best friends, and he enclosed a clipping about the quilt. A day later she received a letter from a cousin from Lincoln, who is on a business trip to New York City, telling of seeing the article. Verily, this is a small world.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mrs. Emmor Marshall, Mrs. Fred Allen and Miss Hary Allen went to Lincoln Monday to attend the graduation exercises at the University of Nebraska, when Miss Doris Marshall graduated, although she had completed her course at the end of the first semester. Oliver Carmichael of Vanderbilt University was the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Haulan are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Haulan's sister, Mrs. Lou Benham of Bridgeport. Mrs. Benham is enroute to St. Joe for a visit and from there she will go to Troy, Kansas, for Decoration day.

Friends here of Billy Cowger, who was here for several months, have learned that he has been quite ill with pneumonia, and in a hospital in New Caledonia.

Mrs. John H. Pryor was called to Mountain Lake, Minnesota, last week by the serious illness of her father, who is 85 years old. She returned home late Monday evening. He had been removed to a hospital and his condition was not improved. She expects to return to Minnesota later to assist in his care.

Miss Mary Ann Pryor, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. John H. Pryor, is expected home Friday from Grinnell, Iowa, where she attends Grinnell college.

Many of our older citizens will remember Will Miller, son of Mrs. James B. Hungate, and a graduate of the Weeping Water High school in the class of 1902, and very recently you may have been reading about the mile-long tunnel which is nearing completion near Loveland, Colo., and which is said to be one of the greatest feats of engineering in the middle west. Perhaps you have read about it, and have also read that the engineer in charge of the building of that tunnel is a Fred Miller. But perhaps you did not know that our Will Miller and Fred Miller are one and the same person. His name is Fred William Miller. While in school here he was called Will. Since graduation from college and doing business for himself, he has been known as Fred W. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bolze are the proud parents of a dear little baby daughter who arrived Monday, May 23, at Bryan Memorial hospital. Mother and daughter are getting along fine. This is their second child as they have a son, Roger, who will soon be old enough to enter school.

Mrs. John Strauch, of LaMesa, Cal., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Litten, and she arrived just in time to welcome the small daughter of her niece, Mrs. Bolz, and helped to keep the home going while the mother was in the hospital. She came east at this time to visit her son, who is in the army, who arrived at his home in Topeka, Kansas, this week. She expects to leave Sunday for Topeka, and from there she will go to Parsons, Kansas, to visit another son before returning to California.

Mrs. E. M. Ruby and Mrs. Clifford Cooper were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ray Smith.

Mrs. Rilla Hollenbeck, has been visiting Mrs. Jeanette Young this week. She is well known in this community as the former Rilla Gilmore. She expects to visit relatives and friends in and about this community until the first of June, when she will go to California.

Mrs. Frank Marshall shall be hostess at the regular meeting of the O. E. S. Kensington, Tuesday afternoon at her home, when the noon was spent at the surgical dressings room doing Red Cross work.

Lyle Flemming entered Bryan Memorial hospital, last week and had a major operation Friday morning. His son, Jamie, had only recently returned from the same hospital after undergoing an appendix removal. Lester Hoback is assisting with the farm work, and the neighbors are planning to see that his corn is all planted. Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Heneger, Mrs. Glen Heneger and Mrs. Flemming were at Lincoln to visit Mr. Flemming, and they report that he is getting along as well as possible.

AN APPRECIATION

To the many kind friends I wish to take this means of thanking you for the lovely cards, letters and flowers during my stay at the hospital. They were appreciated so very much.
