Shrine Circus To Entertain Shut-Ins

Fifteenth Annual Shrine Circus May 31 to June 7

As one of the events in connection with the week's showing of the Shrine circus, sponsored by the Omaha Tangier Temple at the City Auditorium, May 31 to June 7, in Omaha, Shriners will, for the 15th consecutive year, give their annual entertainment for crippled children and shut-ins of the community.

Judge Charles E. Foster, who has headed this entertainment committee annually since Tangier Temple began entertaining the children and shut-ins at its first circus, will again be in charge of arrangements. Transportation to and from the Auditorium will be provided by the Shriners.

Needless to say, several hundred children of orphanages and institutions, as well as older shut-ins, are looking forward eagerly to the event.

The circus is again this year being assembled and directed by the veteran showman and Shriener, Rink Wright of Stanton, Neb. He will be assisted by Mrs. Wright.

Joe Bender, with two invited guests, Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., and Mrs. Leslie Wiles.

Instead of the regular luncheon Wednesday the members of the Business Men's luncheon club entertained their wives at a dinner Wednesday evening at the J and M cafe. Fred Allen, president, was in charge of a short business meeting after which all joined in an old fashioned song-fest, before adjourning to go to the auditorium building, when the evening was spent playing bridge and pinochle.

At this meeting Harold C. Elliott reported the progress made in the organization of the Boy Scouts. Eighteen boys have signed up for the work, and Dr. O. C. Herman has accepted the position of assistant scoutmaster, taking the place of Dr. Hojl, who moved to Omaha recently. E. Thomas Stacey is scoutmaster.

Next Sunday, the first Sunday in June, will be annual picnic day at the Ray Norris farm. Twenty-five years ago a group of young married people gathered at the Norris farm for a picnic. They had such a good time that it was decided to make the picnic an annual affair. As the years have gone by other groups have been added to the picnic party. First all members of the Congregational church were invited to attend, and it was known as their picnic day.

Now the group has been enlarged to all friends of Mr. and Mrs. Norris. There will be a basket dinner served at tables on the lawn, and a reunion of friends. We all look forward to this day at the Norris home. With the restrictions on tires and gas this year, we may all have to walk. Here's hoping that the day will be bright so that the roads will be good.

Mrs. John Bauer of Avoca spent last week visiting her daughters, Mrs. Albert Nichols and Mrs. Russell Newham.

A. F. Meeske has completed the remodeling of the building on the north side of Main street. This building was formerly owned by Troy L.
