Former Cass County Man Married Miss Frieda Moeller, daughter of Mrs. Alma Gleichman, and Curtis G. Fitzpatrick, petty officer first class, Naval Air Technical Training Center, Norman, Oklahoma, were married at 4 p. m. Sunday, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. G. R. Kent, and Mr. Kent, 3225 NW 26. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John F. Schulz, pastor of Zion Lutheran church.

Roses, peonies and mock orange glossoms decorated the home. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Helen Myer. Given in marriage by her brother, Walter E. Moeller, the bride wore a pale blue dress, and corsage of gardenias. Her accessories were white. E. E. Erickson, petty officer first class, NATTC, Norman Okla., and Miss Ann Moeller, sister of the bride, attended the couple.

The ceremony was followed by a reception, with Mrs. Kent and another sister, Mrs. Marjorie DeWesse, in charge of refreshments, and Miss Ida Yank, of the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Okarcho High school, and of Hills Business university. For seven years she has been secretary to W. J. Rodman. Before entering the service the bridegroom was with the Prudential Insurance company of Oakland, California. After a two weeks trip the couple will be at home in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick came to the home of Mr. Fitzpatrick's sister, Mrs. Edd Boedecker, where they spent several days going from here to Imperial to visit other relatives. Mr. Fitzpatrick was born and spent his early years on a farm near Murray, and is the youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzpatrick.

Three resignations were submitted to the Royal Neighbors, and at an election held at their last meeting Mrs. Lawrence Johnson was elected as oracle to succeed Mrs. Perry Wright, who had asked to be relieved on account of poor health. Mrs. Paul Ward succeeded Mrs. Vestta Baker as recorder and Mrs. A. H. Jones succeeded Mrs. S. L. Brandt as receiver.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Philpot were Mr. and Mrs. Grant Deterding and daughter, Delores, and Mrs. Harold Sheldon, all of Council Bluffs.

Chapter BT, F.E.O. met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Tefft and her daughter, Miss Esther Tefft, with a program of musical numbers played by Mrs. Carl E. Day, and a report of the state meeting given by the president, Mrs. Helen Clark.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Day were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Switzer of Fremont, and Mr. and Mrs. Seward Day and family of Lincoln. While here they visited Oakwood cemetery and assisted in decorating the graves of relatives who are buried there.
