Death Of Fred Kehne Long Time Resident Here

After Long Period of Failing Health One of the Well Loved Residents Answers Last Call

The death of Fred Kehne, 79, one of the long time residents of this community occurred late Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buechler, where Mr. Kehne has made his home for the past few months with the daughter and family. He previously made his home in the residence on Granite street but due to his feeble condition it was necessary to have him cared for at the daughter's home.

In 1922 Mr. and Mrs. Kehne decided to quit active farming and moved to Plattsmouth where they purchased a home on Granite street.

Mrs. Mary Heideman, Niobrara, Nebraska, August Kehne, Wilmot, Nebraska, Mrs. Louise Buechler, Plattsmouth, Phillip Kehne, Plattsmouth. The wife and one son, Fritz, preceded the husband and father in death. There is also surviving twelve grandchildren and other relatives to mourn his passing.

The body was taken to the Sattler funeral home at 4th and Vinc streets and the funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the St. Paul's church of which Mr. Kehne was a long time member.

Friends wishing to take a last farewell may call at the funeral home Tuesday morning from 9 to 11 o'clock or this evening from 7 to 9.

We Share Your Feelings

Sorry as we are for what the flood may have done to your property—and what it's done to ours—we realize there's not much we can say to make it any better.

But we're doing the very best we can to get your electric service back in A-1 shape. Many of the points we must reach to restore service completely have been hard to get to, but we're making repairs rapidly now.

In the meantime, for safety's sake remember to avoid any fallen electric wires. Also, if your property has been flooded, don't attempt to turn on any of your electric motors or other equipment until you can have them carefully checked. Taking this precaution will help you avoid burn-outs of motors and wiring.
