Just writing about some of your readers old friends, Jim and I had the pleasure of attending a Cass county picnic at Pixby Park at Long Beach, Sunday, June 11. Pixby Park is a small and a very lovely park—and such gorgeous flower plantings. Roughly guessing, about 80 were present. They had a big cake of which all present had the pleasure of eating a nice serving. The "Greetings Cass County, Nebr., in the top frosting" was in pink. This is supposed to be an annual affair. We visited with a great many but of course some we didn't know.

Here are the names of some we met: Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Beeson, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goodman, Mr. Mauzy, Mrs. Ogareta McNamee Wood, formerly of Union. And just before we left we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry, Mrs. John Kuhney, whose birthday was celebrated and was presented with a nice piece of cake while the gang sang Happy Birthday, also her daughter, May, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Will, Dora Will, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Will and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Albert, Mr. Ross Todd, also Harry Rice and Bert Fulton who the day before the picnic had just come back from Cass county, Nebr., the conditions of the crops and season we got first hand, and that traveling is plenty heavy. Those we visited with would really like one of those good old-fashioned back yard chats and many agree it will always be home to them. Everyone
