Many View Pictures

The showing of the photographs of the service men of this community, in the windows of many of the places of business in the main section is most impressive and a large number of the relatives and friends of the boys were out to look over the photographs. The large number shown is only a part of the boys from here that are in service and is impressive of the fact that so many are scattered over the world.

The pictures cover every branch of the service and the idea of the special recognition of the service men, sponsored through the efforts of Mrs. James G. Maazy has proven a great success with fine cooperation from the members of the families of the service men.
