"The Stitch in 1944. Learning to Sew," and "Learning to be a Home-maker." 4-H clubs met at the Albert Johnson home on June 22, with Norma Ford as hostess.

Roll call was answered by telling "The things I have made." All sang "America the Beautiful." Vocal solo, "Little Sir Echo" by Dorothy Jean Stone.

Demonstration, "Catch Stitch" by Betty Ackley. "Running Stitch" by Dorothy Jean Stone. A story "Golden Windows" by Norma Ford. The lesson discussed was "The Work box" and "You are Welcome."

Refreshments were served by Norma and her mother.

This same club met with Margie Whipple on June 30th; roll call was answered by "Cedar Harmony." Selecting and making a hand towel, was discussed by Dorothy Stone; piano solo, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Dorothy Stone; piano solo, "Bluebell March," and "The Harp," by Margie Whipple; reading, "A Foon for My Club" by Betty Ackley; demonstration, "Setting the table" by Margie Whipple; "Selecting and making a dish towel" by Norma Ford. Miss Shafer, home demonstration agent, showed the girls how to judge kitchen towels Margie and her mother served refreshments.

The Cass County Cannery, Cass County Cooks and Stitch in Time clubs met with their leader, Miss Evelyn Wolph on July 5th. Demonstrations and helps were given by several members of each club. Miss Schafer and Mrs. Owen Pollard were guests.

These clubs are progressing nicely and have several varieties of foods canned, and are planning trips to Club week and Conservation camps. Miss Wolph served sherbert, cookies and iced tea to the group.

Martin Jorgenson, Gunnery State

2/c, called his mother, Mrs. Will Jorgenson, from Seattle, Wash., to congratulate her on her birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich were hosts to the annual Fourth of July picnic supper at their home.

Mrs. Frank Linder and daughter, Opal, entertained the Otterbein Aid society at their home Thursday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed a social time while quilting. Refreshments of ice-cream and cake were served.

Cockadoodles Cost Too Much

"TOTAL WAR" comes home to the chicken flock—"those that don't work, don't eat." Chickens that eat up good feed but don't produce eggs are "barnyard saboteurs"—and that goes for all roosters. When their job is done, it is time to cut off their cockadoodles and their feed—pop them into the soup kettle or a market crate!
