King Korn Carnival—

In 1935 the first Queen was crowned. She was Miss Lois Troop, now Mrs. Robert Bestor, and "Cap" Gayer was the King. Each year thereafter a King and Queen were crowned, selected alternately from the country and the city and each year the Coronation Services became more elaborate and more impressive.

The Kings and Queens in succession who came to the throne and reigned for one year were as follows:

1936—William F. Evers, Miss June Keil

1937—Arthur Hild, Miss Eleanor Swatek (Mrs. Wm. Nelson)

1938—Frank A. Clodt, Miss Martha Kaffenberger (Mrs. Harold Meisinger)

1939—Frederick Wehrlein, Miss Gertrude Vallery, (Mrs. Wayne Gorton)

1940—Dr. R. P. Westover, Miss Mary Helen Dill (Mrs. Robert Ray)

1941—Dr. R. W. Tyson, Miss Betty Jo Libershal

Dr. Tyson and Betty Jo Libershal were the last crowned and are still King and Queen of the Kass County King Korn Carnival, and will be until the glad day comes when carnival activities can be resumed. It would be impossible to mention both men and women, who have taken an active and unselfish part in the promotion from year to year of this King Korn Carnival; the schools, both city and rural, the farmers, city government, Chamber of Commerce, the American Legion, the Womens' organizations, Norfolk Packing Company, BREX Shops, the newspapers, the county officials, business and professional men—all pitched in with vigor and enthusiasm to make the King Korn Carnival a huge success.

Acknowledgement is hereby gratefully made to the Plattsmouth Journal and the Omaha World-Herald for slug head full page articles and pictures of Carnival events which had no small part in putting the King Korn Carnival on the map.

The crowds in attendance grew from year to year and the fame of the Korn Carnival extended far beyond the bounds of its local activities. People came long distances to attend, and the four-day event drew many former residents who made of it a special home-coming occasion.

Time does not permit to recall the many special features such as the Kangaroo Court, the Mardi Gras parades, the public double wedding, the golden wedding observance, the largest family contest, the athletic sports, the religious rally, the his-

Camp Fire Notes

The Iyopta Camp Fire group met at the home of Ruth Nelson, Wednesday, Aug. 2.

We identified flowers and drew names for our secret pals. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Nelson. Our next meeting will be at Joan Ault's home.

Suffers From Infection

Dwight Iles, who cut the bottom of his foot very severely a few days ago, was taken to Omaha Thursday and placed in the St. Catherine's hospital for treatment. The injured foot has developed an apparent infection that will make it necessary for treatment for some time.

Has Tonsils Removed

Patricia Ann, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carr, had her tonsils removed at the Clarkson hospital yesterday.

The operation was performed by Dr. Robertson and was very successful. The little patient is now home and feeling fine.

Returns to Missouri

Mrs. Vincent Slatinsky of Sedalia, Missouri, who has been here visiting her sister, Mrs. Julius Pitz and family, has returned to her home in Missouri. Mrs. Slatinsky is a former resident of this city, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda.

terical hall, the Corn Palace, the Garden Club show, the Quilt Show, the Pig Race, the Burlington train and many others.

The purpose of it all was to advertise Plattsmouth, and at the same time to furnish good, wholesome entertainment capable of being enjoyed by young and old alike, and all of it absolutely free. The war unfortunately brought all this to an end for the duration, but as soon as victory is won it is hoped these activities can be resumed again.

A booster organization meeting for the Kass County King Korn Klub is to be held August 30th in the Eagles Hall at 8 P. M. Watch next article for further details. Meanwhile put this date on your engagement calendar—you will not want to miss it. Orville Nielsen, president of the Ad Club, is chairman of the program for that evening and he is promising some very interesting features. Everybody is invited.

Snow Suits! WHAT! Yes — Snow Suits.

Right here in the midst of hot weather we are talking about Snow Suits because you all know what a dearth there was of these garments last winter. Generally its going to be no better this year, but locally its better if you act promptly. We began last year to prepare for this emergency and right now we have Snowsuits in liberal assortment.

2 piece Style, zipper anklets $11.95

Better make your reservation,
$5 will do it.

This year with childrens underwear scarce you'll need these snug warm garments.

SMALL GRAIN YIELDS POOR ON THE AVERAGE

With threshing only partly completed, small grain yields are averaging poor so far in Cass county, Nebraska, Charles Boedecker said early this week. Farmers are encouraged, however, by an excellent corn outlook.

"Corn could still be hurt if the weather turned too dry and hot this next month," he continued. "We have plenty of moisture at present, but the corn this year has been used to a lot of rain, and would suffer more quickly than usual from dry weather."

Alfalfa hay also is piling up a big tonnage this year, and with that and a good crop of corn, farmers there, most of whom are stockmen, won't find much room for complaint next fall and winter.

Mr. Boedecker feels. Right now, however, the corn supply is very limited, and the fact that small grain yields were smaller than usual increased the tightness of the feed situation.

A shipment of 27 Angus heifers which Mr. Boedecker fed in partnership with his father, Glen Boedecker, banker and stockman, shared the new all-time Omaha heifer top Monday when they sold at $16.85, averaging 958 pounds. They were started on ground ear corn, sheaf oats and alfalfa, and gradually worked onto shelled corn. The last month, their roughage has been prairie hay.

Dr. Lake was a good student and held several degrees. He was a graduate of Berea college, Kentucky, Ph. B., B.S.C. and M.D. from the Nebraska State University. He was a veteran of the first world war, with the rank of 1st lieutenant of the medical corps. A member of the First Central Congregational church, Omaha.

For the past twenty-five years he was a druggist in Omaha and resided at 4801 Center street.

He was a kind husband, a loving father, a sincere brother and a faithful friend. The manager of the Veteran Administration wrote: "You will have the further consolation of the thought that he served his country and died honored and respected by all of us."

"We live in deeds, not years: in thoughts not breaths
In feelings, not in figures on the dial.

We should count time by heart-throbs. He most lives
Who thinks most, feels noblest, acts the best."

The funeral services for Dr. Lake were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Caldwell funeral home at 7th and Oak streets and largely attended by the old time friends of the family.

Rev. T. Porter Bennett, pastor of the First Methodist church, had charge of the service and brought a message of consolation to the members of the family circle.

During the service Raymond C. Cook gave two of the favorite songs, "Face to Face" and "Lead Kindly Light." Mrs. Roy O. Cole being the pianist.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery and the pall bearers were members of the family and old friends: Jack and Robert Vallery, Forest Cunningham, Carl J. Schneider, Glen and Charles Vallery.

Some Hazards of Swimming

Because of wartime travel restrictions, most of us will find places near home where we can enjoy swimming and other water sports.

Picnics, and excursions to nearby lakes and rivers will probably be among the popular activities for the summer.

There are a number of things to think about, plan for and practice in these situations. Swimming is a very fine and healthful sport if you know how to swim and how to protect yourself and others while swimming. One should never enter the water for bathing or swimming until one hour after eating. One should avoid chilling, or a feeling of fatigue by leaving the water at once when such symptoms appear. One should never enter the water when overheated or remain in the water long enough to be sunburned by excessive exposure.

Be sure that the place you choose for swimming is known to you and your companions; that is, know the depth of the water and know something of the currents in that part of the lake or river. Try to choose a supervised swimming beach if possible. If you cannot do this, have one or more of the party who can swim well take the responsibility of helping in emergency and supervising the group.

If there is danger of the water being polluted by sewage, or from other sources, do not use it for swimming. Serious disease may come from such practices.

Boating may be enjoyed safely if one never rocks the boat or attempts to change places on the water. Serious accidents have happened because of such practices.

Be sure to have safe drinking water and safe food on picnics and excursions. Enjoy the home front and be safe.
