

Nehawka

By Journal Field Representative

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Pollard spent Sunday at the Mead Ordnance plant, guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Pollard and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemon were guests of the Marvin Henderson and John Chambers families in Omaha on Sunday.

E. A. Nutzman represented the Nehawka Post at the American Legion convention at Omaha. He left here Saturday, and his wife and daughters drove to Omaha Monday to attend the auxiliary meeting, held at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent Balfour joined a group at the Nebraska City picnic grounds to help Ralph Hobbie celebrate his birthday, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Thoren and Mrs. Francis Thoren and families were guests of the Harry Thoren family in Omaha on Saturday.

Mrs. Jessie Moritz spent a few days the first of this week in Lincoln, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lucy St. John spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Hall Pollard, in observance of Mrs. Pollard's birthday.

The Achievement Day of the eight Nehawka 4-H clubs was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Waldo, county agent and Miss Schaefer, home demonstration agent, were present and gave interesting talks for the club folks. A program, which consisted of piano solos, duets, songs, poems and demonstrations.

The club work was judged in sewing, canning and cooking. A vegetable display was exhibited; ribbons were given the winners. Much of this work will be on display at the Cass County Fair at Weeping Water and the choice will also go to State Fair in Lincoln.

Nehawka is very proud of the achievements of the club members which success is due chiefly to the leaders, Miss Evelyn Wolph, Mrs. F. O. Sand, Imogene and Ruth Pollard, and Mrs. Nels Thoren.

The clubs are: Cass County Canners, Cass County Cooks, Home Beautification, Stitch in Time, Garden Club, Girls Room, Sunny Cooks, and Victory Sewers.

Mrs. Harold Dane (Ethel Rough) and Mrs. George Dane of Iowa City have returned home after a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Martin Ross and other relatives of this community. The Rough reunion was held in Lincoln while they were here. Fifty-one attended and it was revealed that twenty-three sons of the group are serving in uniform.

The Nehawka school will begin at 9:30 on September 4th. This is reported by Supt. G. W. Weik.

Mrs. Brooks, (the former Rosemary Larson, of Lincoln, our third and fourth grade teacher was in Nehawka Monday to get things lined up for the new term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Trotter spent Sunday at Douglas with his mother, Mrs. Anna Trotter, and his brother, Clarence. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst, Nebraska City; Mrs. Hugh Carmen and son, Allen, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Trotter and Genevieve of Omaha and Miss Phyllis Parker.

Sgt. Leland Hogue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogue of Murray, living four miles north of Nehawka, is the first of anyone from this community to have been reported as killed in action overseas.

He is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school, joined the air corps in May 1929, and was sent to Chanute Field, Illinois. From there he was soon sent to Lowery Field, Colo., where he took up photography work and graduated there. He later became an aviation cadet and did considerable flying in the United States camp before being sent overseas in June 1943. He was ground and aerial photographer and had successfully completed many missions over the enemy territory. He died in action over France on August 6th. His parents received word from Washington, D. C., on August 18. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogue, who with a brother, Roland, age eleven, are at home. Four sisters, (Ruth) Mrs. John Ketelhut, (Bernice) Mrs. Jack Lindsey, Union; (Doris) Mrs. Roy Engelkemier, Murray, and (Margaret) Mrs. Joseph Plueller, a supervisor at the St. Elizabeth hospital in Omaha, also survive.

He was born on September 14, 1914, near the place where he made his home until entering the United States Air Corps.

John Barkhurst, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Barkhurst of Nebraska City, writes his parents that he has received a shoulder wound, serving in France and is now hospitalized in England. He enlisted in February, 1941, and was sent overseas only a few months ago. His mother was the former Norma Trotter, Nehawka.

Chief Gunner's Mate Martin D. Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jorgensen, is with his parents for a week, having been at Seattle for several months after serving in the Aleutians. He will receive special schooling for gunnery work and electrical hydraulic training at Washington, D. C., after his furlough.

S2c Robert Romans is home with his wife, the former Marie Anderson, after completing his boot training, in Farragut, Idaho.

Lt. Paul Sand, flyer, is with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Sand, for ten days from camp at Rosewell, N. M.

Robert Wunderlich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich, has been promoted from second to first lieutenant at his camp in England.

S. Sgt. Paul Dean, paratrooper, in England writes his sister, Mrs. Bob Frans, Nehawka, that he has been released from the hospital and has a five day pass to visit the nearby cities. He will report to active duty soon.

Pvt. Clarence Embury is in the railroad unit at New Orleans, La. His wife and children returned from Enders, Nebraska this week, where they have been visiting since he left for camp.

Mrs. John Lloyd reports word from her grandson, S. Sgt. Matthew Lloyd serving in the 134th Infantry in France has been injured on July 28th and is being treated at a hospital. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lloyd of California.

JOIN CHURCH TOGETHER
Columbia, Mo.—Through several thousand miles separated them, the entire family of S-Sgt. Merrill Griffin joined the Methodist church in Columbia at one time. Through correspondence between Sgt. Griffin who wrote from his foxhole in Italy expressing his desire to join the hometown church, and the Rev. J. W. Crichlow of Columbia, arrangements were made to have a chaplain perform the baptismal rites on Griffin in Italy at the same time the Rev. Crichlow bestowed them on Griffin's wife and two children here.
