

The Plattsmouth Journal

Mrs. Sherman W. Cole Dies Suddenly Sunday Evening

Was On Way Home From This City When Attack Brings Death in a Few Moments

The community was greatly shocked this morning to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Sherman W. Cole, a life long resident of this city and a lady loved and esteemed by hundreds of friends.

Mrs. Cole had apparently been in her usual good health and on Sunday had conducted the morning service at the Christian Science society church, of which she was first reader. Following the church service she had gone to the home of Mr. Cole's mother in the Bauer apartments, where with Mrs. C. L. Wiles she had assisted in caring for Mrs. Cole and visiting.

On starting for home she was accompanied by Mrs. Tom Grosshans, a niece, who was driving the car, as they were traveling south on Chicago avenue Mrs. Cole was stricken with the heart attack and died almost instantly. She was stricken when the car was near the Henry Horn residence.

Immediately back of the car in which Mrs. Cole was stricken was a car driven by Tom Grosshans and with Mrs. C. L. Wiles, they stopping at once to assist as far as possible in caring for the stricken lady but without success.

Jennie Johnson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, was born April 22, 1891, in and near where she has spent her lifetime. She graduated from the Plattsmouth high school in the class of 1909.

She was married on December 27, 1911 to Sherman W. Cole, a member of one of the pioneer families of the community, they settling after their marriage on the farm near Mynard where they have since resided.

Mrs. Cole has been a very active figure in the community affairs of her home locality, an active worker in the Mynard community club, and the social activities of this section of Cass county. She was also a member of Home chapter No. 189, Order of the Eastern Star of this city.

There is surviving the passing of Mrs. Cole the husband, Sherman W. Cole; two sons, Willis R. Cole, of Louisville, and Richard O. Cole, at home. Mrs. Cole was the last of her immediate family, the parents and two sisters preceding her in death.

The body was taken to the Caldwell funeral home at 7th and Oak street where the funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The burial will be at the Horntag cemetery south of the city.

Attends School

Lieutenant and Mrs. L. J. Snell are now located in Trenton, New Jersey, while Lt. Snell is attending the Navy School of Military Government at Princeton University Princeton, N. J. Prior to the recent transfer they resided in Chicago for eight months. Mrs. Snell is the former Helen V. Price of Plattsmouth.

Funeral at Elmwood

Funeral services were held this afternoon at Elmwood for Theodore Gustus Thimgan, 69, who was found dead at his home on Saturday. Mr. Thimgan had not been in good health and passed away in his sleep.

The funeral services were held at the Evangelical church with Rev. Adams, the pastor in charge of the services. The burial was at the Elmwood cemetery with the Clements mortuary in charge.

Mr. Thimgan was a brother of the late Edward Thimgan of this city.

VISIT IN CITY

Judge and Mrs. Thomas E. Dunbar accompanied by Miss Naomi Sherwood were Plattsmouth visitors Tuesday. Miss Sherwood has been secretary to Judge Dunbar for eighteen years before the Judge went on the bench of the District Court of Cass, Sarpy and Otoe counties.

Exhibit at Art Show

On Sunday, November 5th at the Morrill Hall, at the University of Nebraska, there was held the first annual all Nebraska art salon, one of the largest art showings that has been offered in the state.

Five special mentions were awarded to F. A. Broadwell, Jr., and Jack A. White, Omaha; Jim Blackman and Mrs. Don Schlemmer of Lincoln and Marie E. Kaufmann of Plattsmouth.

Approximately 200 entries were received and of the fifty-five chosen to be hung, twenty were from Omaha, nineteen from Lincoln, seven from Hastings and three each from North Platte and Plattsmouth, two from Hebron and one from Peru.

Miss Kaufmann has been active in art work for many years and was instructor of art in the local schools for years. She is also a member of the Omaha Camera club.

Ash Grove Plant Employes To Aid In Gathering Corn

All But A Few of the Men at the Louisville Plant Free This Week to Aid the Farmers

The employes of the Ash Grove cement plant at Louisville with a small exception, are enjoying their vacation this week from active duty in the plant and are putting their outing to good advantage.

The men are getting busy in helping out the farmers in the Louisville area gather their crop of corn and getting it cribbed. That section of Cass county has a fine crop of corn and has felt the need of added labor for the shucking work that the men from the Ash Grove plant make less burdensome by their services.

A week of service by the several hundred men of the plant will make a great showing in gathering the crop.

IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Reports on the condition of Bill Boggess, a former coach of the Plattsmouth high school, state that he is in serious physical condition as the result of an illness of some duration. Grand Island and the past summer he Grand Island and the past summer he underwent an operation for a brain tumor. The patient has failed to show the hoped for improvement and has been taken to the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minnesota for a checkup.

Boys Have Hearing

Monday in the county court before Judge Paul E. Fauquet, two young lads were charged with intoxication and one with disturbing the peace. The court after hearing the evidence in the case and considering the youth of the defendants gave sentence.

Charles Arnold was given a fine of $10 and costs for disturbing the peace and was also paroled to Chief of Police Noah Parker for a period of one year.

Gordon Francis, who is engaged in working on one of the farms near this city was given a fine of $10 and costs for intoxication, also a ten day jail sentence because he refused to reveal the source where he secured the liquor.

New Teacher Here

Mrs. Edward Harris, who was just recently separated from the WAVES, has been elected as a member of the teaching force of the Plattsmouth city schools and is now on the job in the local Central building.

Mrs. Harris has four years teaching experience and comes here highly recommended. She has resumed her teaching work as the husband is now with the armed forces of the nation.

Miss Hazel Pool of Weeping Water, a teacher in the grade schools, has tendered her resignation to the board of education owing to ill health and is expecting to return to her home at Weeping Water.

Cass County Young People Winners In 4-H Club Work

Charlotte Rieke of Near Weeping Water Is the Canning Champion and Ralph Hild Baby Beef

Cass county has the distinction of producing two of the 4-H champions of Nebraska, Charlotte Rieke as the canning champion and Ralph Hild of west of Mynard, as the baby beef champion of the county. Both have been active figures in the club work of the county in the recent years.

Charlotte has been getting things done on the family farm near Weeping Water and won for herself in the contests the Kerr Glass Co., award.

Charlotte, who won a purple ribbon at the Nebraska state fair this year with her emergency dinner, canned 262 jars of food and prepared 54 1/2 pounds of food for the freezer locker this year and has a long fine record as a club member.

Starting 1939 she was a member of clubs in swine and clothing projects. The following year she was in poultry and cooking clubs and it was in this year that she had her first experience on a demonstration team winning a white ribbon at the state fair.

She enrolled in canning, forestry, homemaking and dairy in 1941. In 1942 it was swine, dairy, homemaking and canning. That same year she won a trip to 4-H Club Week in food production. In '43 she led a group of younger girls in a cooking club, and was awarded a $25 war bond for her victory achievements, and won a 4-H Club Week trip on the canning demonstration. She was on the high ranking demonstration team at the '44 county fair; was awarded a blue ribbon at state fair. She placed first in the county canning judging contest. Charlotte is now a freshman at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

Ralph Hild is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hild of west of Mynard and since his earliest days has been much interested in the 4-H work over the county. His interest and hard work resulted in winning the trip to Chicago and the $50 award offered by Alvin E. Johnson, Omaha banker.

Ralph has been in 4-H clubs for six years, during which time he has won a total of 68 ribbons and made $1,069 profit.

Last year was a great year for Ralph when he took first in judging at his county fair and third at the state fair. He was a member of the judging team that took second at the state fair. He won six ribbons with his five calves including a grand champ, blue and red at the county fair, and two blue ribbons at the Ak-Sar-Ben. He received a blue ribbon at the state fair for showmanship. Ralph exhibited a red ribbon hog at the Ak-Sar-Ben.

In 1944, besides his baby beef project he carried poultry, swine and sheep projects. He was the champion swine showman, his hogs won nine ribbons, and he had the champion pullet at the county fair. With the eight baby beeves that he fattened this year he took six ribbons including two blues at the county fair, two reds at the state fair and one red at Ak-Sar-Ben. He represented Cass county in the health contest taking blue ribbons at both the county and state fairs. He attended the state conservation camp at Seward and won a $25 war bond from the Standard Oil Co., for 4-H achievements.

He now has eight baby beef on feed as 1945 projects.

Home From Hospital

Mrs. Robert M. Mann and little daughter, Georgia, returned home Monday evening from Omaha where they have been at the hospital since the birth of the little one. The mother and daughter are doing well and their home coming has been most pleasant for all of the family.

Has Excellent Sale

Sheriff Joe Mrasek was at Greenwood Monday where he was holding a tax sale for the village of Greenwood that had foreclosed on a number of lots in the village under the tax sale law.

The sale of the lots was very brisk and brought the sum of $2,128 to the village of Greenwood with the lots being largely purchased by the residents of the village.

Civic Bodies Host to New Journal Owner

Joint Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Ad Club This Noon at Hotel

There was a very fine attendance of the members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Plattsmouth Business Men's Ad club at the Hotel Plattsmouth this noon, the meeting being to honor the new publisher of the Daily Journal, Lester A. Walker of Fremont and Mrs. R. A. Bates, the retiring publisher. A very happy part of the occasion was that Mrs. Walker was able to accompany her husband and enjoy meeting the local people.

Orville Nielsen, president of the Ad Club presided and presented H. A. Schneider of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Schneider in turn presented Mr. Walker, paying a fine tribute to his splendid record in the newspaper world, the fine paper that he has produced and is to follow in this city with the Journal. Mr. Walker responded briefly and expressed his pleasure at being a part of the community life and to be identified with Plattsmouth. Mrs. Walker was presented and gave a few brief remarks of pleasure at being present.

E. H. Wescott, secretary of the club, gave a few remarks on the long service of the Journal in the community and the years that Mrs. Bates had spent in connection with the paper.

Mrs. Bates responded briefly. County Treasurer Ruth Patton was a guest of the civic bodies and was greeted by the membership.

Judge Fauquet Wins By Very Large Majority

Secures Majority Vote in All the Precincts and Wards of the County

Judge Paul E. Fauquet who was appointed to the judgeship on the resignation of Judge A. H. Duxbury, was returned to the position Tuesday by a great majority and carrying all of the precincts and wards of the county. His majority without the third ward vote was 2,447.

The vote by precincts was as follows:

	Fauquet	Briggs
Tipton	171	110
Greenwood	114	86
Salt Creek	120	113
Stove Creek	273	105
Elmwood	227	81
South Bend	88	85
Weeping Water	156	39
Center	189	69
Louisville	369	171
Avoca	141	76
Mt. Pleasant	162	40
Eight Mile Grove	198	54
Nehawka	183	59
Liberty	199	121
West R. B.	186	76
East R. B.	54	44
Platts.	257	73
W. W. 1st Ward	164	21
W. W. 2nd	202	31
Platts. 1st	250	84
Platts. 2nd	320	148
Platts. 3rd
Platts. 4th	169	76
Platts. 5th	106	72
TOTAL	4,289	1,842

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank those for the floral offerings and kind expressions of sympathy during the loss of our beloved wife and mother.
Ross Smith and Children

Woman's Club In Observance of Educational Week

Meeting Full of Interest—Featuring Book Review by Mrs. W. E. Miner of Omaha

The members of the Plattsmouth Woman's club met last evening at the attractive home of Mrs. Karl Grosshans in the south part of the city, with a large number present for the occasion.

The home was beautifully arranged with bright-hued flowers of the fall season and flowers added their charm to the dining table.

Mrs. F. R. Gobelman, the president, presided, and also gave the devotions of the evening while Mrs. Engelmeier led the members in the salute to the flag of the United States.

Mrs. E. H. Wescott gave a very interesting talk on "American Citizenship" urging the necessity of the individual citizen exercising their right to vote at the poll as the visible demonstration for their privilege as a citizen.

It was voted by the club to give a book to the public library and Mrs. William Baird and Mrs. E. G. Ofc were named as the committee to pick out the book for presentation.

The ladies of the club also voted to purchase a war bond in the sixth war loan campaign that is coming up in the next few days.

Very interesting reports of the county and state conventions were given by Mrs. Louis Ward Egenberger, of the county meeting at Weeping Water, and Mrs. Robert B. Hayes of the state convention at Omaha.

The chief feature of the evening was the book review of "The Three Bamboos" by Mrs. William E. Miner, of Omaha, past state president of the Nebraska Federation. The members enjoyed this feature very much and the review was followed with the greatest of interest by all. While in the city Mrs. Miner was a guest of Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

The associate hostesses with Mrs. Grosshans were Mrs. Fred Lueg, Mrs. R. W. Knorr, Mrs. E. G. Ofc, Mrs. James Mauzy, and Mrs. Phil Hinz.

Have Pheasant Dinner

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Heidt was the scene of a very pleasant pheasant dinner on Sunday and the guests comprised Louis Friedrich and daughter Malinda and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Pulis.

Mr. and Mrs. Heidt have just returned home from a visit at Plainview and Randolph, being accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Tritsch, aunt of Mrs. Heidt. They were visiting at the home of Mrs. George Friedrich and Baltz and John Volk, sister and brothers of Mrs. Tritsch.

With Mustang Fighters

An Eighth Air Force Fighter Station, England—Supporting P-51 Mustang fighter pilots, who recorded 401 German planes destroyed in 290 combat missions over Nazi Europe during eight months, is Staff Sergeant Oscar E. Brandt, of Nehawka, Nebraska.

The Nebraskan is an aircraft welder with the hard-hitting Eighth Air Force based in Britain.

The hard-working ground men of the 357th Fighter Group, commanded by Lt. Col. John D. Landers, have been praised for their teamwork with the flyers, who have blasted 20 Germans out of the sky over Berlin in one day without loss; escorted 20 bombers to Russia and Italy on a shuttle trip of 5,000 miles without losing a single plane; provided a perfect job of bomber escort to Leipzig, Germany, when not a B-17 Flying Fortress was lost and 21 Nazi interceptors were sent screaming to earth; and who have kayved more than 20 swastika-painted planes in one afternoon and on six different occasions.

The flyers of the station where Sgt. Brandt is based, destroyed 45 German planes in two days in support of the Holland airborne invasion.

Funeral of V. Pily

The funeral services for Vincent Pily, Sr., were held on Monday afternoon at the Caldwell funeral home at 7th and Oak street, a great many friends of this old resident being present to pay their last tribute to his memory.

Dr. H. G. McClusky, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was in charge of the religious service and brought the message of consolation and hope to the members of the family and the old friends.

Frank A. Clويد gave two of the old hymns during the services, "Saved by Grace" and "No Night There" with Mrs. Russell Reeder as the accompanist.

The members of the Trys lodge No. 18 of the Z.C.B.J., also participated in the funeral service.

The interment was at the Oak Hill cemetery with relatives and neighbors as the pall bearers, Joseph F. Hadraba, Henry Donat, Louis Swoboda, Anton Hason, Mike Bajcek, John Meisinger, Jr.

Charles Stoehr Wins County Commissioner Race

Road Supervisor of Plattsmouth Precinct Has Commanding Lead of 946 Over Sam Gilmour

The voters of the first commissioner district of Cass county gave Charles E. Stoehr, democrat, for many years the road supervisor of Plattsmouth precinct a great majority over S. T. Gilmour, the republican incumbent of the commissioner-ship.

Mr. Stoehr carried everyone of the wards and precincts in his race and with the third ward of Plattsmouth still missing his vote stands at 1,576 to 630 for Mr. Gilmour or a majority so far of 946. The third ward vote will add to the majority of Mr. Stoehr.

	Gilmour	Stoehr
Eight Mile Grove	63	197
W. R. B.	65	205
E. R. B.	21	81
Plattsmouth	72	271
Platts. 1st Ward	128	214
Platts. 2nd Ward	151	320
Platts. 3rd Ward
Platts. 4th Ward	70	193
Platts. 5th Ward	60	115

Dooley to Senate

Senator Tom Dooley of Gretna, was returned to the unicameral Tuesday by the voters of the third district by a substantial vote over W. B. Banning, of Union.

The vote for the candidates in the two counties were Dooley 6,171 and 4,357.

In Cass county the vote was Dooley 2,884, Banning 2,851, and gave the present senator a large lead in his home county.

Albert Glaubitz Wounded

E. H. Bernhardt, of the Norfolk Packing Co., received word today of the wounding of a former employe of the plant, Sgt. Albert R. Glaubitz, Jr., in France on October 23rd. The news came in a letter from the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glaubitz, Sr., who are residing at Reno, Nev., at this time.

The address of the young man is Sgt. Albert R. Glaubitz, 37127403, ASN, Hospitalized APO 640, Care postmaster, New York City, N. Y.

Goes to Hospital

Mrs. Herman Graham, who has been in poor health for some time, was taken Sunday to the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha where she will take treatment and be under observation for sometime. She was taken to Omaha in the Sattler ambulance.

Taken to Hospital

Mrs. Ray Wiyssel was taken to Omaha last evening in the Caldwell ambulance and placed in the St. Catherine's hospital for observation.

Cass County In Strong Sweep To Republicans

Governor Griswold Is the High in the County Political Races

Cass county definitely spoke its part in the republican victory in Nebraska Tuesday with Governor Griswold leading the way. From the first counting of the votes it was evidenced that Dewey and the state ticket was getting a large lead. Plattsmouth gave the Roosevelt ticket a stronger support than elsewhere in the county but not sufficient to check the tidal way for the GOP.

The totals for the county with one precinct missing are as follows: Presidential Ticket: Thomas E. Dewey, R., 4,102; Franklin D. Roosevelt, D., 2,592.

STATE TICKET

For Governor: Dwight Griswold, R., 5,119; George W. Olsen, D., 1,491. Lieutenant Governor: Roy W. Johnson, R., 4,357; Edward A. Doszek, D., 1,866.

Secretary of State: Frank Marsh, R., 4,257; Nate M. Parsons, D., 1,884.

Auditor of Public Accounts: Ray C. Johnson, R., 4,103; L. E. Chadderton, D., 1,890.

State Treasurer: Carl G. Swanson, R., 4,172; Wayne J. Davies, D., 1,949.

Attorney General: Walter R. Johnson, R., 3,935; Michael T. McLaughlin, D., 2,132.

Railway Commissioner: Duane T. Swanson, R., 3,843; Will M. Maupin, D., 2,169.

CONGRESSIONAL TICKET

Congressman, Second Dist.: Howard Buffett, R., 4,119; Mabel Gillespie, D., 2,113.

NON-POLITICAL TICKET
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court: Paul I. Manhart, 1,476; Robert G. Simmons, 4,118.

Member of the Legislature Third District: W. B. Banning, 2,851; Tom Dooley, 3,187.

Judge of the District Court Second District: Thomas E. Dunbar, 4,217; John L. Mattox, 1,520.

Thos. E. Dunbar

County Judge: M. S. Briggs, 1,842; Paul E. Fauquet, 4,289.

COUNTY TICKET

County Treasurer: Ruth Patton, 5,948.

Director Eastern Nebraska Public Power District: Alvin A. McReynolds, 3,663; T. E. Wheeler, 3,715; William Bischof, 3,084; Charles Ward, 3,879.

Director Consumers Public Power District, District Six: Carl F. Shafter, 752; Elmer L. Hevelone, 586.

Prohibition: Yes, 1,987; No, 4,379

Gas Tax: Yes, 2,867; No, 2,941.

To Remain East

Mrs. R. D. Fitch, who has been with her husband at Norfolk, Virginia, is planning on remaining there for the present at least although Mr. Fitch, who is in the armed service, has been ordered to Camp Parks, California. The children are in school at Norfolk and the mother will keep them there until the close of the school year.

TO HOLD COUNCIL FIRE

The Iyopta campfire girls will hold their council fire this evening at 7:30 at the high school gym. The public is cordially invited and the services will start at 7:30 sharp.