Subscription payments for The Plattsmouth Journal may be paid locally to Mrs. THOS. MURTEY, Representative

The Woman's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Edith Clizbe. This was their annual election of officers day, and the result was as follows: Pres., Mrs. T. Hugh Hanlan, Vice Pres., Mrs. John Norris, Sec., Mrs. Herbert Ambler, Treas., and financial chm., Mrs. Thomas Colbert, Cor. Sec., Mrs. W. H. Waldo, chm of Spiritual Life, Mrs. J. W. Wiseman.

Newly elected officers of the Bide-A-Wee club are Pres., Miss Esther Tefft, V. Pres., Mrs. Harold Elliott. New members taken in at the last meeting were Mrs. M. L. DeCreame, Miss Jessie Baldwin, Mrs. Art Baldwin, Mrs. Art Meeske and Mrs. Willard Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beck attended a family dinner last Sunday at Louisville and helped their 12-year-old niece, Betty Hinkle, celebrate her birthday. The reunion was held at the home of Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hinkle. Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dobbs and family, Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dobbs, and daughter, Sue, of Marsing, Idaho, and Quenton Webster, of Mt. Grove, Mo.

Quinette-Wiles

Miss Leota Quinette, of Plattsmouth and Conant Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wiles, of Weeping Water, were united in marriage, Wednesday, November 8, at Hiawatha, Kansas. They were accompanied by Donald Resso, of Weeping Water, and Miss Wanda Propp of Plattsmouth. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles have rented the home of Mrs. Ellen Johnson, and are living there for the present. Conant will continue to assist his father on his farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott moved last week to the Torrence Flemming home on east Eldora Ave.

Theo. Carnes returned home last week from the hospital after a serious operation on his spine. He is reported to be getting along fine, and decided that he must go to vote. The trip was very tiring but he is gradually getting back to normal.

Miss LaVern Shaffer spent the week end with her parents, who live near Shubert. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Rughe, who visited her brother Bert McNamee, and wife at Falls City.

Weeping Water extends congratulations to Charlotte Rieke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rieke, Charlotte has been named as state 4-H canning champion for 1944. She is a freshman in the college of agriculture, at Lincoln, preparing herself for work as a dietitian. At the last state fair she won a purple ribbon with her emergency dinner, canned 262 jars of food, prepared 54 1-2 pounds of food for the freezing locker, all done this year, following work in 4-H clubs since the year of 1939.

Major Harold Hinds has been transferred from Mesa, Arizona, to Kearns, Utah, a replacement center. His wife, who has been living at Mesa, expects to return to Lincoln to live.

Weeping Water teachers were voted a raise in salary. In the grades it will amount to about fifty dollars per year, and in the high school, fifty for the full time teachers and twenty-five for the half time teachers.

Ray Norris presented the ladies of the Congregational Church with a fifteen pound turkey. This was sold at their auction Friday evening to Eugene Ludwick.

Mrs. C. E. Tefft, Miss Esther Tefft, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Olive and family were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, at Lincoln last Sunday.

South Side Pinocle club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Partridge.

Tuesday was extension club leaders training day, and the meeting was held at the auditorium, and leaders were trained in different ways of preparing potatoes and meats.

Chas. Everett has been at the Veterans hospital for the past week taking treatments. His condition remains about the same.

Eugene Domingo got his hand caught in the corn picker, with the result that it was badly mashed, but no bones broken.

Pvt. Jack Hays arrived home last week from the hospital in Topeka, where he was transferred from a hospital in England. This is the first time that he had seen his four month old son, Tommy, and the reunion with his wife, the former LaVern Gibson, and his young son, is indeed a happy one.

While in town last week Mrs. W. D. Lenker rented her house, which she recently bought from Mark Wiles, to the J. C. Rice family, who recently returned to Weeping Water, after having lived in Missouri for the past several months.

We have just learned that Pvt. Cecil A. Beck, Pvt. Marvin Wade, both of Weeping Water, and Pvt. Elmer Gennette of Murray, are all stationed at Camp Hood, Texas, and Sanford Homan reports that his son, Robert, is still at Treasure Island.

Jolly Homemakers Extension Club met Friday, at the home of Mrs. Russell Newham, when they had a covered dish dinner at noon, with the meat and potatoes prepared there, as their November lesson was about the preparation of potatoes. This extension club is unique, as its membership is made up of women with small children, and it is understood that they are to take the children with them to each meeting. They have found that this has proved to be very enjoyable, and has solved the problem of finding someone to care for the children while they attend their club. They made plans for a Xmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. George Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Cook arrived in Weeping Water, Friday evening, with their household goods, from Gandy, and have moved into the west apartment in their apartment house formerly known as the Philpot apartments. Mrs. Cook is the former Ella Philpot, and they are well known to old settlers in this community.

Mrs. Henry Snell made a business trip to Lincoln Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler had a table for six reserved at the Congregational Church supper Friday evening, when those seated were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green, Elmwood, Mr. Harry Hawes, Beloit, Kansas, Robert Keckler, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler, and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Welch had Mr. and Mrs. T. Hugh Hanlan as their guests.

A large crowd attended the Congregational church bazaar, chicken pie supper and harvest home festival, Friday evening, and the women of the church feel well repaid for the time and energy spent. After dinner the various pumpkins, squashes, dressed chickens, eggs, butter, vegetables, etc. etc., besides a fifteen pound turkey, were auctioned off to the highest bidder, with Henry (Hi) Kirchoff acting as auctioneer, and he proved to be so adept at his profession that he even had people bidding against themselves. Everyone seemed to be in a responsive mood, so it was greatly enjoyed.

At the dinner was a family party consisting of Mrs. E. E. Day, and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Selby of Denver, who had arrived the evening before, a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Switzer of Fremont, two grandsons, Lt. Leonard Switzer, who returned from Italy two weeks ago, after flying a B-24 and having completed fifty missions, Ensign Richard Switzer, who is stationed at Seattle, and another daughter, Mrs. George Corley, Weeping Water.

As your writer sold tickets for the dinner, and was seated near the entrance of the dining room, we heard a voice asking, "Are strangers allowed to attend these dinners?" We looked around and discovered that it was Mr. and Mrs. Bert Howard of Scottsbluff, who were asking the question. They had stopped in town to call on their friends, the E. E. Days, and found that Mrs. Day and her family were at the church, and had come on over there, so they joined the Day party. While there
