Mrs. Melvin Sturm and Mrs. Walter Wunderlich shopped in Lincoln Wednesday.

Barbara Jean Gansemer of Nebraska City spent Sunday with Virginia Schwartz.

Mrs. Nelson Berger went to Lincoln Friday to attend the funeral services of her uncle, Dr. Frank W. Krieg. Services were held at the Roper Mortuary and burial was at DeWitt, where he grew to manhood.

Born in Chicago in 1863 and came to Nebraska with his parents when four years of age. When he was six years old, he was playing with a group of boys at a railroad turntable at Crete, Nebr., and accidentally had a leg cut off; 25 years ago he again suffered another physical blow, he became deaf and had to give up his medical practice. He graduated from the medical school at St. Joseph hospital, and practiced for many years at Crete; his wife passed away several years ago and he has resided in Lincoln for the past few years.

He is survived by two sons, Wendell Krieg, research specialist in nevalogy at the Monteveret Uni in Chicago; Moritz Krieg, with an electric company at Denver, Colo.; who also is an artist, paints landscapes and has much of his works in the various art galleries in the U. S.

Four sisters, one of whom is the mother of Mrs. Berger, Mrs. L. W. Wilkins, of Lincoln. Two brothers, twenty nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Mary Katherine VanAckern of Palmyra, 72, died Thursday at a hospital in Lincoln after an illness of several years, a fall last September fractured a hip which failed to heal and resulted in her death.

Born in Avoca in 1872, daughter of Henry and Mary Behrens, married John VanAckern of Avoca in 1891. He passed away twenty years ago. She had recently made her home with her sons and daughters.

Surviving are three daughters and four sons: Mrs. Emma Root, Bennett; Mrs. Bertha Reed, Pomona, Calif.; and Mrs. Anna Royal of Nehawka; Henry, Ed and Paul of Palmyra, and William of Murray. Mrs. Alvin McReynolds of Nehawka is a niece. Thirteen grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held Monday at 10:40 a. m. at St. Leo's Catholic church at Palmyra, of which she was a member, and burial at the church cemetery there.

D. A. R. Meeting
 The members of Fontenelle chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Rosencrans with Mrs. Zelpha Seward as the hostess, enjoying a very fine program that had been arranged for the occasion. There was a fine attendance of the membership present to take part in the evening program. The devotional period was led by Mrs. R. W. Clement and the meeting presided over by Miss Pearl Staats, the regent of the chapter.
 Mrs. F. R. Gohelman had the program in charge and it consisted of a discussion on the "Approved Schools." The Daughters of the American Revolution, national chapter, have two schools that they are sponsoring, these being located in the south and to which the national chapter is giving financial support, this being one of the extensive educational programs that is being handled by the national organization.
 The local chapter voted to donate $5 to the two schools as a part of the support fund.
 It was also voted to prepare and present a Christmas bok for the men of the nation that may be on the high seas at the holiday time.
 Mrs. Mae S. Morgan, local member, now residing in Omaha, was present to enjoy the meeting.
 At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Canvass Vote
 The counting board that has started the official canvass of the vote of Cass county at the last election on Tuesday, November 7th, is now in the midst of the count of the service men's vote. There are 218 votes received and 81 still to come in.
 The canvass is being conducted by James Hall and Adolph Koubek with County Clerk George R. Sayles as the presiding member.
 The returns from the soldiers as far as counted shows their votes are following the general trend of the civilian vote. Among some of the returns are that on the presidency: Dewey, 133; Roosevelt, 93; Griswold, 192; Olson, 33; Buffett, 159; Gillespie, 50; Dooley, 77; Banning, 127; Fauquet, 132; Briggs, 74. For Prohibition, 36, against prohibition, 167. For gas tax amendment, yes, 162, no 42.
 An Army Ordnance jeep and trailer can be converted into an ambulance which is capable of carrying three litter patients, two assistants and a driver. The jeep ambulance may be maneuvered over all kinds of terrain in combat areas.

Completes Count
 The canvassing board today completed the count of the absent and soldier vote ballot cast at the November 7th election. There were 337 received and among the results were
